CHAS. O'CONOR ON LOUISIANA.—Chas. O'Conor has written an opinion on the Louisiana troubles in which he contends that the President having made an error and discovered the fact was bound to remedy it. He finds an instructive 'strictness and precision' in the fundamental laws in all matters affecting the States. 'It was only,' he says, 'in cases of imperious necessity, and then under the most cautious limitations, that the fathers consented to allow Federal interferance with State elections. However flagrant the disorders and violations of law and justice, in the canvass or otherwise, by which a duly and fairly elected State officer might be set aside and a usurper permitted to occupy his seat, it was deemed, most expedient to leave the remedial process in the hands of the State itself.' Following this exact line of obedience to State rights, Mr. O'Conor then argues that the paramount authority in the recognition of a State is Congress, and that when Kellogg made an application to the President for aid, he 'presented merely a renewal of the same precise question which arose upon the first dispute—namely, was Kellogg the duly elected Governor of Lousiana? If the President doubted his legality, then he should have decided according to his conscience and withdrawn his recognition. 'However his original decision might control others, it was in no degree obligatory upon himself. Individual consistency in official opinion or action is not to be maintained at the expense of rectitude and justice.' 'Those who condemn the President's original interference in Kellogg's favor have even more reason for condemning his recent interposition.' No one can expect Kellogg to resign, and the only hope Mr. O'Conor perceives for Louisiana 'is that the popular will of the country, speaking through its efficient organ, the independent press, may prevail upon the President to reconsider his course."

BEN. BUTLER'S COOLNESS.—The Boston Post gives a report of General Butler's speech in his congressional district, with the following incident:

"The general then discussed the financial problem, and while he was holding all men to paying their honest debts, a spoon was lowered by means of a string through the scuttle of the roof and hung like a spectre in midair. A giggle was heard from the audience, and it soon assumed the proportions of a roar. The general tried to continue, but was several times interrupted. He failed at first to observe the objectionable article of table use. Gen. Butler finally placed his eye upon it, and gazed from right to left without saying a word. He again attempted to proceed, but only again to be interrupted. Finally he shook his handkerchief and straitened himself and said: 'Well, I should think that it is about as good an argument as I can be opposed to.' The spoon wiggled in the air and the general continued: 'There must be some opposition in this town.'" [Laughter and applause.]

ALL is quiet in Louisiana; but the prospect ahead is not flattering. It is not likely he will be disturbed again by any armed force. The Customhouse is too convenient for that, and the telegraph from Washington too direct and active. The prospect which renders him uneasy in his fraudulently acquired seat is the next meeting of Congress and the recently unearthed letters. He will undoubtedly be investigated, and judging from the debate at the late session, in no friendly spirit. Against any action which may then be taken, the President will not interpose the shield of his authority. We do the President the justice to believe that, personally, Kellogg is disagreeable to him. He has caused him annoyance, bother and worry that is quite sufficient to place him outside of the pale of Executive sympathy. It is possible, therefore, that justice, though slow, may overtake this notorious culprit yet.

RESULTS OF THE RACING SEASON OF 1874.—The racing season of 1874, just closing, has been the most remarkable on record. The fastest half mile was made in 57¾ seconds, by Olitipa; the fastest mile in 1 minute 41¾ seconds, by Tom Bowling; the fastest one and an eighth mile by Picolo, in 1 minute 56 seconds; the fastest two miles in 3 minutes 27¼ seconds, by Tom Bowling; the fastest four miles in 7 minutes 19½ seconds—the fastest three in 5 minutes and 29½ seconds, by fellowcraft. These fast times were all made on the Saratoga track.

A SON OF THE MORMAN PROPHET.—Feramortz L. Young, a stately, handsome, and intelligent young man, aged about eighteen years, a son of the Morman prophet Brigham Young, has just been admitted as a cadet to the Naval Academy at Annapolis. It may be added that the prophet has now at West Point, in the first class an elder son about twenty-three years of age, who will graduate therefrom, in June, 1875.

A YOUNG lady in a Pennsylvania town put a piece of wedding cake under her pillow, and went to bed with the happy belief that she would dream of seeing her future husband. That evening, however, she had eaten two plates of ice cream, about a pint of strawberries, several sweet cakes, and two large pickles, and she now says she would rather remain single all her life than marry the man she saw in her dream.

IT seems like a waste of time to spend five years at West Point for the purpose of acquiring the title of lieutenant, when a boy can be called "colonel" by simply addressing a few words to any thirsty congregation in a bar-room.

PURELY
Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA
EUREKA
VINEGAR BITTERS

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.

DYSPEPSIN
A Certain Cure for DYSPEPSIA, LIVER COMPLAINT, Jaundice, Billiousness, Sick Headache, and Habitual Costiveness.

WHAT is life without the enjoyment of health? If you had the wealth of Crœsus, and afflicted with Dyspepsia, or its kindred diseases, you could not enjoy life. Dyspepsia is a prevalent disease in the U. States, brought about by our habits and irregularities. The Materia Medica has been exhausted to find a remedy, and the skill of the most learned Physicians has failed to effect a cure. Notwithstanding this declaration we unhesitatingly say—"MILLER'S DYSPEPSIN" is a Certain Cure for Dyspepsia and the many complaints incident thereto. It has been before the public a sufficient length of time to fully test its merits, and in every instance where it has been used according to directions, it has resulted in giving relief and effecting a cure. With each bottle is a Circular, describing the symptoms of the diseases named, and for which only we claim it as a specific.

Give it a fair trial, and rest assured you will be benefitted.
