The Greatest Insult Ever Offered to the American People.

"But I was made to believe that the public good called me to make the sacrifice. * * ——but it must be remembered that all the sacrifices, except that of comfort, had been made in accepting the 'first term.'"—General Grant's letter to General White.

A few years ago there was a man who had been educated at our West Point Academy at the public expense. He dropped out of the army and became a hauler of cordwood to the St. Louis market. Common report says he used to be found dallying long by the roadside on his way home.

Later he was clerk in a leather store in Chicago, very poor.

He was appointed a Colonel in the army, and promoted and promoted and promoted, until he had the command of all our armies. Many persons always thought that much, very much of his success was owing to the superior opportunities given him.

Finally, a rank and title never before conferred in this country were created especially for him. He was made the General of the United States Army. Then he was nominated for President of the United States and elected. Next he was re-elected.

Elected and re-elected to what? To the highest elective office ever created by man! To an office, to hold which, in the infancy and begining of the Republic, George Washington was proud! An office which Thomas Jefferson and James Madison and John Quincy Adams and Andrew Jackson gloried in the privilege of filling;

And now look upon the beggar on horseback—the penniless wood-hauler—despised then, not for his poverty, but for his gross weaknesses and faults, coming out in a letter and spitting in the face of the whole American people, and insulting them in the most odious and offensive manner, and parting upon the "sacrifices"—"SACRIFICES," that's the word—which he,—HE, ULYSSES S. GRANT—uses, the sacrifices he made in becoming their Chief Magistrate!

Out upon the poor fool! Who does he imagine he is? Let the contempt of the whole great American people he has insulted cover him countless fathoms deep!—New York Ledger.

MRS. LINCOLN'S CONDITION.—Mrs. Mary Lincoln, widow of President Lincoln, who was recently adjudged insane in Chicago, is receiving treatment under the care of Dr. Patterson, at his residence, Bellevue place, situated at Batavia, one of the most beautiful villages in northern Illinois, about 37 miles from Chicago. Mrs. Lincoln (with her attendant, a young lady formerly a school teacher, selected for this position on account of her kindness and intelligence,) occupies two very pleasant rooms in the part of the house reserved for the private residence of the doctor and his family, and has no reason to be aware that any other patients are in the house. She takes her meals in her rooms or at the doctor's private table as she chooses, drives and walks out when and where she pleases, but when out is always accompanied by either Mrs. or Miss Patterson or her special attendant, for all of whom she expressed a great liking. Such has been the influence of the quiet and pleasant surroundings that nothing whatever has occurred to render necessary anything more than a prudent supervision, and this is given by pleasant companionship, without any appearance of restraint. At present her derangement exhibits itself mainly in a general mental feebleness and incapacity, and it is not possible to give an opinion as to her restoration.

THE POTATO BUG.—This curse, which has recently made its appearance in the Eastern and Middle States, is a native of Colorado, whence its name of Colorado beetle. It was first seen in 1820, feeding on a wild potato, but when the settlers introduced the domestic potato the bug attacked it at once. It breeds prodigiously, the female laying from 700 to 1,200 eggs, which hatch in about six day and immediately begin work, which lasts for nineteen days. Where they are numerous they devour the whole plant clear to the ground. They are decidedly poisonous, and consequently barnyard fowls avoid them.—Whether there is any bird or insect that will eat them is as yet unknown.

THE Somerset (Md.) Herald says that the Khedive of Egypt, desiring to give Lieutenant Colonel Long, a son of Mr. L. Long, Sr., of Princess Anne, an expression of his satisfaction for the gallant conduct, courage and firmness which that officer exhibited in the engagement at Keba Rega and M'Roole, on the line of the equator, has conferred upon him the grade of Colonel and the Cross of the Order of the "Medjidieh."

THE new hotel which was begun at Ocean City, on the Worcester beach, some months ago, is nearing completion. It is built across the beach, and is so situated as to afford a fine view of the ocean from every window. The building is 200 feet long, three stories and an attic high, and, as at present arranged, contains 112 rooms.

THE Peninsular Press Association, which left Lewes, Del., on Tuesday, arrived at New York on Wednesday morning. On the way up on the steamer the annual meeting was held, and the old officers of the association were re-elected, except B. Everett Smith, vice-president, who doclined. Dr. W. D. Noble, of the Federalsburg Courier, was elected in his stead.

An Invaluable Traveling Companion.

Change of climate, water or diet is apt to induce harrassing and often dangerous diseases. The three changes combined are fatal to thousands of emigrants every year. Is it not, then, of the last importance to know that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are an absolute preventative of the hurtful consequeces arising from these causes? Travels, voyagers, and emigrants to new countries cannot be too often reminded of the fact that this agreeable vegetable tonic is the most reliable safeguard against disorders to which they are far more liable than the habitual denizens of healthy regions. The primal effect of the unwholesome atmosphere which produces what are called malarious fevers, is to depress and debilitate the system. The body then becomes an easy prey to the malignant principle in the air. It is manifest, therefore, that the surest way to avoid all epidemic and endemic maladies of an intermittent type, is to counteract the weakening tendencies of miasma by artificial invigoration. That Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the surest resuscitant of flagging vigor, is a fact which is best appreciated wherever influences inimical to health exist. But it is not alone against malaria that they protect the system. They so toughen it as to enable it to endure with impunity extremes of heat and cold to which travelers are often subjected, and they neutralize those elements in unaccustomed water or diet which would otherwise beget disorders of the stomach and bowels. The brackish water with which voyagers by sea are often compelled to quench their thirst, is apt to provoke dysentery and other serious complaints, but when the Bitters are mixed with it, it becomes harmless. Truly this great protective invigorant is an invaluable traveling companion.

QUEENSWARE, of all kinds, Can be had at low prices at
May 1. J. H. SIMPERS & BRO'S.

A SOURCE OF REVIVAL.—A private letter from Louisiana says that a new era of agricultural prosperty seems about to dawn on that State. The crops of corn, cotton, cane and rice are all said to be splendid. Old planters say they have never seen such crops at this season. Even the vegetables and fruits are unusually abundant. There are no locusts, except the carpet bagging tramps, and even they do not seem able to exhaust the vitality of the soil.

IT has been decided by the Circuit Court for St. Mary's county that the driver of a vehicle on the highway has the right to pass another traveling the same direction, but at a slower gait; that the latter is bound to give the former half the road to enable him to pass, and that if he does not he will be liable to any accident that may happen.

THE Colorado potato bugs are poisonous. Persons should be careful not to scratch themselves after handling them before washing their hands. A gentleman in this county got badly poisoned by them, and a lady in Caroline lost an eye in consequence of scratching her eyelash while the virus was on her figers.—Easton Star.

THE New York Tribune says "the indications, as they present themselves to thinking men, are that the political revolution will be consumated in 1876, and the democratic party will come into power in the nation."

PRINCESS ANNE has averaged a shipment of twenty-five car loads of strawberries per day.

It is stated that the receipts for strawberries in Worcester county will be more than twice as much as they were last year.

Examiners' Notice.

THE undersigned, Examiners, appointed by the County Commissioners for Kent county, to examine and determine whether the public convenience requires the straightening of the public road leading from the village of Fairlee to Bacchus' Mill, through the land formerly owned by Capt. I. S. Rogers, commencing at or near the gate leading from the main road into the field tilled in corn this year, above the house occupied by Mr. J. E. Newcomb, a distance of about a thousand feet more or less; and to straighten and widen the public road leading from the Crawford farm to Smith's Cross Roads, through the land formerly owned by Capt. I. S. Rogers, in front of the house occupied by Frisby Spencer, colored, a distance of about two hundred feet, more or less. Also, to lay down a new road, commencing at or near the farm-house on said Crawford farm, to the corner of the woods, and intersect the public road that leads to Red Point; said road to run through said Crawford farm as nearly straight as practicable, and to abandon and return to said Crawford farm all the present road and landing not required for road, except the Landing and road at Red Point on Fairlee creek, and to examine the Landing at Red Point and make suitable appropriation for the improvement of the same:—hereby give notice to all persons interested, that they will meet, on Wednesday, the 14th day of July, 1875,

At half-past Ten o'clock, A. M., at Fairlee, to execute the duties imposed upon them by the said appointment and commission.

JONES'

Adjustable Peach Assorter.

With the above machine a man with the assistance of two good boys can easily cull 1000 baskets of Peaches per day, taking out the leaves, soft and specked fruit, and assort the balance into three sizes, (cullings, primes and extras,) far more accurately than it can be done by hand; with an increased force, the capacity of the machine is (comparatively speaking) unlimited. But as the reputation of the first Assorter was fully sustained by those in use last season, I merely wish to state that they will be and those who may favor me with their orders will have until the 25th of May to countermand the same, should the fruit be injured in the meantime. For terms please see circular. The price therein named is the result of close figuring, based upon what they cost me to have them built by the hundred, and as the probability is that so many will not be needed hereafter, it will be to the growers' interest to secure them this season.

To the following gentlemen I respectfully refer, all of whom have either seen the machine at work, used them last season, or sold peaches culled by them:

Hon. B. T. Biggs,	W. P. Biggs,	D. J. Cummins,	John S. Collins & Co.,
John Combes,	W. R. Cochran,	R. A. Cochran, Jr.,	W. T. Cavender,
E. T. Evans,	J. Alex. Fulton,	R. S. Griffith,	A. M. Higgins,
Thos. B. Hallock,	H. A. Nowland,	G. W. Naudain,	Richardson & Robins,
Hon. Wm. H. Ross,	F. T. Perry,	Dr. H. Ridgely,	Sereck F. Shallcross.
Samuel Townsend,	Col. E. Wilkins,	F. A. Wilkisson.

May 22—1m

NOTE.—As the peach season is rapidly approaching, and as the crop is now (June 10th) pretty well assured, I wish to call the attention of all who design getting the machine to a clause in my circulars which reads thus: "If those who hold back their orders until the eleventh hour do not receive their machines until their peaches are on them, I hope they will place the responsibility exactly where it belongs, as they cannot be built in a day or a week."

HOW LOST, How Restored.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice that the alarming consequences of Self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

Ayer's

Sarsaparilla

Is widely known as one of the most effectual remedies ever discovered for cleansing the system and purifying the blood. It has stood the test of years, with a constantly growing reputation, based on its intrinsic virtues, and sustained by its remarkable cures. So mild as to be safe and beneficial to children, and yet so searching as to effectually purge out the great corruptions of the blood, such as the scrofulous and syphilitic contamination. Impurities, or diseases that have lurked in the system for years, soon yield to this powerful antidote, and disappear. Hence its wonderful cures, many of which are publicly known, of Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, **
