A Horticultural Secret Revealed.

A short time ago allusion was made in the horticultural journals of Germany of an alleged extraordinary secret for propagating trees and grafting roses whereby much time could be saved, offered for a small sum by an Austrian nurseryman. This gentleman has since communicated an article on the subject to the Weiner Gartenfreund an abstract from which is given in the London Gardener's Chronicle. Briefly, his method is as follows: Cuttings of shrubs and trees are taken off at the beginning of July, from 6 inches to 12 inches long, according to the kind.—The leaves are removed from the lower portion, which is to enter the ground, but those which are to come above ground are left. Beds are prepared for them in open air by thoroughly digging and levelling, and afterwards applying a superficial layer, about 2 inches thick, of rotten manure from a spent hot-bed. The cuttings are then stuck in about two inches apart and in a somewhat oblique direction. Each bed when filled is surrounded by a lath fence, so that shade may be given when the sun is very hot, and the cuttings are well watered with a rose-spouted can.—This completes the operation. The only further care necessary is a sprinkling overhead three or four times a day during the first week, if the weather be very hot, and once a day afterwards. In the course of five or six weeks, treated in the manner indicated, the cuttings of most plants will have formed a callus, and further shading will be unnecessary. Late in the autumn a layer of rough manure, 2 or 3 inches thick, is spread over for winter protection. It also serves as manure when the cuttings start growing in the spring; and cuttings treated thus make extraordinary progress, forming plants equal to two-year-old plants from winter or spring cuttings. Very few it is asserted, fail. The new method of grafting roses is the insertion of growing eyes early in spring instead of dormant eyes in summer. They are inserted in the main stem, one on each side, to form symmetrical heads. These make, it is said, as much growth the first season as the dormant eyes in the second season.

HE LEFT HER.

He left her and stepped out to see a friend between acts.

"Why, Edward," said she, when he returned, "there are tears in yours eyes."

"Yes, pet," replied he, solemnly, "I suppose there are—I saw such a sad sight when I was out."

"You did—what was it?" inquired she.

"Such a sad sight," continued he, keeping his face away that she might not smell his breath. "I discovered a young man whom I have known for years drinking whiskey."

"You did?"

"Yes, standing right in plain sight before me, partaking deeply and carelessly of the intoxicating glass."

There was a little pause when the young lady suddenly said:

"Edward was he standing right in front of you?"

"Yes, pet," was the reply.

There was another pause, when the young lady asked again:

"Edward, don't most of the fashionable counters have great nice mirrors right on the walls behind them?"

Edward flushed a little and looked quizzical as he replied that he "believed they did."

And there he permitted the subject to drop.

In no country in the world is there so many land-owners as in France, there being over 5,000,000 peasant land proprietors. This makes a spirit of independence and begets thrift. Everybody pays taxes, which are in some cases as low as one cent per year. It is in this way that France procures its large revenues.

Many fashionable women now wear sour milk as ornaments. That is to say, a Yankee in Mansfield, Conn., is making a great quantity of sour milk into an imitation of coral for jewelery. The fluid is colored, run into moulds, and solidified by heat.

A man out West, who offered bail for his friend, was asked by the judge if he had any incumbrance on his farm. "Oh, yes," said he, "my wife."

Norwegian girls must be able to bake bread and knit stockings before they are allowed to marry.

We are only really alive when we enjoy the good of others.

"Stagger Juice" is the new and expressive title for whiskey.

A great heart is as quick to find another as the world is slow.

Washing Soap.—Families and others all want the Best Soap for Washing, and the price is also an item. The Crampton Imperial Soap is unsurpassed, and we advise all having washing to do to give it a trial. It may be had of T. W. Eliason, Jr., sole agent in Chestertown

Read and Learn for Yourself.

Many valuable discoveries and much useful knowledge is kept from the world, because of the immense expense in making them known to the people. This is not the case with Boschee's German Syrup, although but a few years introduced into this country its sale now reaches in every town and village in the U. S. Its wonderful success in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Asthma, and all other diseases of the throat and lungs, was first made known by distributing every year, for three years, over 400,000 bottles to the afflicted free of charge, by Druggists. No such a test of merit was ever given before to any other preparation. Could you ask more? Go to your Druggists, C. F. Stam & Bro., or R. B. Britton, Millington, and get a bottle for 75 cents and try it. Sample bottles 10 cents.

Delays are Dangerous.—If this axiom is true respecting the ordinary affairs of life, still more obviously so as regards the exigencies of approaching disease. Unquestionably! Yet how many neglect to practically recognize this plain truth when health is in the balance. Of the many premonitory symptoms of disease a hacking cough is the most prophetic of peril. Arrest it at the outset with Dr. Wistar's Pine Tree Tar Cordial, and so avoid Consumption, Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Lungs, Coughs, Colds, and, indeed, all Affections of the Respiratory Organs, are entirely cured by this sovereign remedy, which also eradicates Dyspepsia, Gravel, Piles, Nervous Debility, Torpidity of the Liver, Urinary Difficulties, Constipation, Palpitation of the Heart, Scrofulous Affections, and the infirmities peculiar to the gentler sex. This Cordial derives its virtues from the vegetable kingdom, and is infinitely to be preferred, both on account of its superior efficacy and freedom from nauseous and injurious properties to the official drugs so often administered with no other effect than to offend the palate and disorder the stomach. The Pine Tree Tar Cordial can always be relied on to do what is claimed for it. Sold by all druggists. Principal Depot, 916 Filbert St., Phila. mar24-3m.

NOTICE TO FARMERS!

I. P. THOMAS'

FERTILIZERS.

In addition to our Standard Raw Bone Super-Phosphate, we will place upon the market our new with which we confidently hope to meet the demand for something lower in price. Our Centennial was practically tested the past season on corn, and gave entire satisfaction. It proved to be an effectual preventative for what in Maryland and Virginia is known as Frenching in corn. While a guaranteed analysis accompanies each bag of our Fertilizers, such guarantees are getting to be quite common, and are rarely of any practical advantage to the purchaser, unless he does possess such a knowledge of analytical chemistry as would enable him to detect a fraudulent article. Believing that a business, to be successful, must be fairly and honorably conducted, and to assure our customers of our intentions so to deal with them, we are prepared to guarantee our Fertilizers in a more substantial and practical way.

We will, by written agreement, place our Fertilizers in competition with an equal value of any Fertilizer in the market, or with stable manure of the same market value, and allow the price paid for our Fertilizers to be graduated and fixed according to product. Thus practically guaranteeing that no one shall undersell us or return more intrinsic value for money received. If any seemingly fairer propositions than the above shall be suggested, we will be found ready to accept them.

Sales to the amount of hundreds of tons were effected by us in Kent county, Md., under the above arrangements and guarantees during the season of 1875. A committee of leading farmers of the county was selected to make competitive tests. Results clearly proved that the I. P. THOMAS RAW BONE SUPER-PHOSPHATE was cheaper at $47 per ton than was any of its competitors at $23.50.

For corroborative proof of the above test, J. Frank Wilson, chairman of committee, may be addressed at Still Pond, Kent Co., Md.

In the Spring of 1876 we furnished Thomas Gale, of Hanesville, Kent Co., Md., 5½ tons of our Raw Bone Super-Phosphate, to be applied to about 30 acres of corn, agreeing to take our pay from the increased product. About 300 pounds to the acre was sown broadcast, and plowed in with a light furrow, the balance applied to the hill at the time of planting. One acre was planted without Fertilizer, to determine the increase in product, which upon the whole amounted to about 750 bushels; estimating it at 50 cents per bushel, Mr. Gale's result shows a clear profit of 45 per cent. in the first crop—the increased quantity of fodder was sufficient to pay extra labor. The land was not of the quality usually termed corn land in that locality, while the season was not the most favorable.

Our Centennial Super-Phosphate

contains a large percentage of Potash, and in this particular alone differs from our Standard Raw Bone Super-Phosphate. It is

EXPRESSLY PREPARED

FOR CORN.

Prevents Frenching, gives a healthy, vigorous growth, and is $10 lower in price per ton than our Standard Article.

Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous, and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.
