Lime--the Proportion to Haul, Handle, &c.

As the farmers are pretty well through with all work for this season, so far as tending and putting out crops is concerned, the next step should be, while the roads are good and solid and the team strong, to haul home the lime that is needed and to have it placed in large bulks or piles of from two to three hundred bushels, so as to have it in good acting condition for early spring work. Now is the time to do this class of work, as there are no crops that need tending. The earlier the lime is hauled and put on large piles the better the lime will act as it decomposes and slakes and all of its chemical properties will get into better working order. There is no better way to put out lime than to first bulk it. It is also a very good way to get ahead with work. The whole farm can be limed through the winter if the lime is got home now, shortly, and put on large piles. The lime can then be spread in February and March, ahead of other work, and out of the way. You can lime a grass, a wheat field and also your corn field with equal results. There is no better time in the whole year to put out lime providing it is well slaked in large bulk, and spread in good order. The alkaline of the lime is much more thoroughly distributed at this time of the year, owing to a greater supply of water being present in the soil, and the properties of the lime are more completely taken up in the soil, and it at once is ready to act on the mineral and vegetable properties; so that the earlier it is applied in a good, mealy condition, the better the results will be the coming season. To be sure to get your lime home early the balance of the farm work can be done along and in between the hauling. It is a good plan to make sure of good solid roads. And while you are hauling be also sure you get the the best lime that can be had. Do not get a common grade because it is a little cheaper in price or a little nearer to haul. Good lime is a good investment, but there is a great deal of very common and indifferent rock used and the burning is in a great many cases poorly done. Cement limes are not intended for land. A good agricultural lime must be out of good, pure rock, properly burned and well proportioned in its different agricultural properties. A common lime does not pay, even at 5 cents per bushel. Good lime at 25 cents might be a great deal cheaper. Our farmers generally are within hauling distance of the different railroads and have access to good lime. Buy none but the best. Thirty bushels of good is worth as much as 100 bushels of common lime. Don't spend your money and time handling a poor article. Nothing is saved by it. The very best article can be had delivered at railroad stations at from 11 to 13 cents per bushel. Prices vary according to distance of shipment, &c. Lime will likely raise in price, especially the best grades. The improved methods of manufacture give farmers a much better acting lime and it takes less per acre to do the work. There is no improver so cheap to the farmer as a good lime. It is a sure investment and a very profitable one. The farmers in the north-western part of our county are liming and anyone being absent from this portion of the county a few years and returning are surprised to see what lime has done in that section. The farmers through that whole section are seeing the great necessity of thorough liming and it is said that this locality has made more advancement in the last few years than any other part of the county or State, in the way of improving poor land.

Winged Lunch-fiends.

A German resident of Guayaquil, Ecuador, describes from personal observations the habits of a pair of condors which to the best of his belief must have their nest somewhere in the upper Andes of Ecuador. Twice a day—once at 9 a. m. and again about 4 p. m.—the giant vultures appear on the Bay of Changa to help themselves to the shellfish stranded by the waves of the tide or the refuse left behind by a crew of tortoise hunters. The process of personal refreshment occupies them about half an hour, after which they select a few portable scraps and soar off in a northeasterly direction, toward the highlands of Rio Tambo. With the aid of a good telescope, they can be seen crossing the line of the coast-range and continuing their way in the direction of the grand central chain, in a bee-line about 200 English miles from tide-water. One of the birds can be recognized by a gap in the edge feathers of his left wing, and in spite of that impediment, must travel an average of 5,600 miles a week for alimentary purposes.

FARMERS!

Lend Us Your Ears.

It is an indisputable fact that the

HOME MANUFACTURE

of Fertilizer in this county has reduced the cost of it to the farmer from

Three to Five Dollars Per Ton

and saved to them

Thousands of Dollars,

Therefore, is it not wisdom on your part to encourage us while we are trying to save you money, and bring you nearer to the manufacturer? We desire to deal as directly with you as possible, thereby saving to you all extra commissions. We therefore invite all farmers, farmers' clubs and grange organizations to call on us before purchasing elsewhere. We manufacture all of our own brands of goods and guarantee them as represented. They are drier, have less acid and moisture than the usual city mixture and will drill perfectly. We guarantee them free from shoddy or any inactive material, and will

Guarantee them under Forfeiture of the Purchaser's Bill to produce as good results in a crop contest as any other for the same money, and challenge competition. We are having reports of from 38 to 44 bushels per acre having been raised this year, from the use of our Phosphate. Besides the above guarantee we are offering to wheat growers using our grades, as follows: $10 for the largest yield per acre on one acre or more.

$30 for the largest yield per acre on five acres or more.

$60 for the largest yield per acre on ten acres or more.

See circulars for further description.

Our premiums last year were won by David Cover, of Winfield, and R. F. Cook, of Wakefieldsburg.

The following letter from Mr. Jno. H. Stem, one of the most reputable farmers in the county, is submitted for the benefit of our patrons and all those interested:

WINFIELD, MD., JULY 23RD, 1891.

H. S. ROBERTS & CO.—SIRS:—I threshed yesterday from a scant nine acre field, sowed with 300lbs. to the acre of your "BIG GUN AND PRIDE FERTILIZERS," 386 BUSHELS OF WHEAT, averaging about 42½ BUSHELS TO THE ACRE. I sowed 1½ bushels of seed to the acre. These are facts that it seems to me the people ought to know. If any one doubts it, I am willing to substantiate it with my oath, and other proof if necessary.

1891.

NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

The Tariff and the Farmer.

The Tribune will devote much space during 1891 to the Tariff as it affects the Farmer and the Mechanic.

Hon. Roswell G. Horr, of Michigan, has been added to the Tribune's staff of Tariff writers for this purpose. He will, through the columns of The Tribune, devote himself to this topic, and will invite and answer questions upon points which perplex the American Farmer and Mechanic. He will also, so far as other duties will allow, attend Farmers' Institutes and agricultural gatherings the coming winter and spring, and expound the principles of the Tariff.

Those who desire the presence of Mr. Horr at Farmers' Institutes, etc., are invited to communicate promptly with The Tribune.

Young Men Who Wish to Succeed.

Many a man feels the lack of early direction of his energies and early incubation of the maxims which promote the formation of character and success in after life. Every such man would gladly see the young men of to-day better guided in youth than he was. The Tribune has planned the following series of valuable articles, which will appear in this paper only:

"What shall I Do?" By S. S. Packard, President of Packard's Business College.

"Suggestions for the Boys on the Farm who are Ambitious." By the Hon. J. H. Brigham, of Delta, Ohio, Master of the National Grange.

"Education without the Help of a College." By President C. K. Adams, of Cornell University.

A Continuation of "How to Win Fortune." By Andrew Carnegie, whose remarkable article of last Spring was so full of encouragement to poor men.

"Multiplicity of Paying Occupations in the United States." By the Hon. Carroll D. Wright, Commissioner of the Department of Labor.

"A Talk with American Boys." By P. T. Barnum, of Bridgeport, Conn., the great American showman, temperance lecturer, traveler and writer.

"Examples in the History of our own Country. By Gen. A. S. Webb, the gallant soldier of Gettysburg and Spottsylvania and College president.

"Importance of Good Manners." The views of Ward McAllister.

"A College Education good for all; what is best for those who cannot get it." By President William Pepper, University of Pennsylvania.

The Tribune will print from week to week, well-considered answers to any questions which young men or women, in any part of the country, may ask.

Vital Topics of the Day.

"Present Needs and Future Scope of American Agriculture." By the Hon. Jeremiah Rusk.

"Proper Function of the Minority in Legislation," By the Hon. James C. Burrows, Kalamazoo.

"Village Improvement Associations, their practicability in Rural Districts, with the story of certain Model Villages." By the Hon. R. G. Northrop, of Clinton, Conn.

"Principle in Politics and the Virtue of Courage." By the Hon. James S. Clarkson, of Iowa.

"Influences of the Labor Movement upon Human Progress." By Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor.

"America's Suburban and Rural Homes." By George Palmer, of New York.

"Warehouses for Farm Products." By L. L. Polk, President of the National Farmers' Alliance.

"Glaciers of the United States." By Professor Israel C. Russell, of the United States Geological Survey and explorer of Alaska.

Other Features.

During 1891 The Tribune will print a valuable series of articles, written by its own traveling correspondent, on the agriculture of the United States, with explanation of a large number of model farms.

A special correspondent, a practical farmer, is now in France, visiting the farms and farm-buildings of that thriftiest of the agricultural nations of the world. He will report upon the dairy, grain, stock and other branches of French farming in illustrated articles.

Mrs. Annie Wittenmeyer, President of the Woman's Relief Corps, will contribute a column of notes and news to The Tribune's G. A. R. page, every week.

Admirable letters of travel in the Southern States, illustrated with pictures, will be printed, describing the South as it exists to-day.

All the regular features will be continued.

The Home Circle columns will be varied by practical illustrated articles on home decoration, fashions and other objects of intense interest to women. Written principally for people with little money.

Mrs. Bayard Taylor, the widow of Bayard Taylor, will write articles on Cookery. She is a remarkable housekeeper, with a scientific as well as practical knowledge of her subject.

Steinitz, the great chess champion of the world, will supply a column a week on the game and secret of all the games of the home.

Foreign letters, good stories, the news of the day, the best of market reports, book reviews and literary news, witty jokes, etc., etc.

The Tribune is printed in large type and broad columns, and is the easiest paper to read in the country.

Premiums.

Premium List for 1891, containing many new and useful articles, will be sent to any applicant, free.

Prizes for Large Clubs.

Club raisers are invited to write to this office for The Tribune's new Terms to agents.

The Tribune, New York.

A Great American Magazine.

THE SUCCESS OF "THE CENTURY" AND ITS PLANS FOR 1891.

The Century Magazine is now so well-known that to tell of its past success seems almost an old story. The N. Y. Tribune has said that it and its companion, St. Nicholas for Young Folks, issued by the same house, "are read by every one person in thirty of the country's population," and large editions of both are sent beyond the seas. It is an interesting fact that a few years ago it was found that seven thousand copies of The Century went to Scotland—quite a respectable edition in itself. The question in England is no longer "Who reads an American book?" but "Who does not see the American magazines?

A few years ago The Century about doubled its circulation with the famous War Papers, by Gen. Grant and others, adding many more readers later with the Lincoln History and Kennan's thrilling articles on the Siberian Exile System. One great feature of 1891 is to be describing that remarkable movement to the gold fields in '49, in a series of richly illustrated articles written by survivors, including the narratives of men who went to California by the different routes, accounts of the gold discoveries, life in the mines, the work of vigilance committees (by the chairman of the committee) etc., etc. General Fremont's last writing was done for this series. In November appears the opening article, "The First Emigrant Train to California"—crossing the Rockies in '41-by Gen. Bidwell, a pioneer of pioneers. Thousands of American families who had some relative or friend among "The Argonauts of '49" will be interested in these papers.

"THE GOLD HUNTERS OF CALIFORNIA,"

MANY OTHER GOOD THINGS ARE COMING,—

the narrative of an American's travels through that unknown land Tibet (for 200 miles over ground never before trod by a white man); the experiences of escaping War-Prisoners; American Newspapers described by well-known journalists; accounts of the great Indians Fighters, Custer and others; personal anecdotes of Lincoln, by his private secretaries; "The Faith Doctor," a novel by Edward Eggleston, with a wonderfully rich program of novelettes and stories by most of the leading writers, etc., etc.

It is also announced that The Century has purchased the right to print, before its appearance in France or any other country, extracts from advance sheets of the famous Talleyrand Memoirs, which have been secretly preserved for a century—to be first given to the world through the pages of an American magazine. All Europe is eagerly awaiting the publication of this personal history of Talleyrand—greatest of intriguers and diplomats.

The November Century begins the volume, and new subscribers should commence with that issue. The subscription price ($4.00) may be remitted directly to the publishers, The Century Co., 33 East 17th St., New York, or single copies may be purchased of any newsdealer. The publishers offer to send a free sample copy—a recent back number—to any one desiring it.
