at the Relation aforesaid by his attornies aforesaid, said that in the Record of proceedings as also in rendering the Decree aforesaid, it was manifestly erred, in this, that is to say, that by the Record aforesaid it appeared that the Decree aforesaid in form aforesaid given, was given for the said Jesse Jarrett against the said Attorney General at the Relation aforesaid that the Bill of Complaint should be dismissed, when by the Law of the Land, and in Equity and good conscience that Decree ought to have been given for the said Attorney General at the Relation aforesaid against the said Jesse Jarrett, therefore in that it was manifestly erred, and he prayed that the Decree aforesaid for that and other errors being in the Record of proceedings aforesaid might be revoked, annulled and held for naught, and that the said David West, the said Relator, to all which he by occasion of the Decree aforesaid had lost might be restored &c. And the said Jesse Jarrett by his attorney aforesaid said that neither in the Record of proceedings aforesaid, nor in rendering or passing the Decree aforesaid it was in any wise erred, and therefore prayed that the said Decree might be in all things affirmed &c. and thereupon the said parties by their attornies aforesaid prayed that the said Court of appeals then there would proceed as well to the examination of the Record of proceedings aforesaid, as of the matters above for error assigned: But because the said Court of appeals were not then advised what Judgment to give of and upon the premises, a day was therefore given to the parties aforesaid before the said Court of appeals at the City of Annapolis aforesaid, until the second Tuesday of June then next, to hear their Judgment of and upon the premises, for that the said Court of appeals then there were not advised, &c.

And at this day, to wit, the third Monday in June being the sixteenth day of the said Month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and six, until which day the appeal and proceedings aforesaid, which had remained without day by the operation and effect of an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland passed at a Session of Assembly begun and held at the City of Annapolis, on Monday the fourth of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, entitled, "An Act to provide for the trial of facts in the several Counties of this State, and to alter, change and abolish all such parts of the constitution and form of Government as as relate to the General Court and Court of appeals," having been in virtue of an act passed at the same Session of assembly, entitled, "An act to provide for the organization and regulation of the Courts of common law in this State, and for the administration of Justice therein", revived and continued until the next Court of appeals to be holden for the Western Shore at the City of Annapolis, come into the Court of Appeals here as well the said Attorney General at the Relation aforesaid Arthur Shaaff, Aquila Hall and Thomas Buchanan his attornies, as the said Jesse Jarrett by John Johnson his attorney; Whereupon for that the Court of Appeals here are not advised what Judgment to give of and upon the premises, a day is therefore given to the parties aforesaid before the Court of appeals here until the third Monday in December next to hear their Judgment of and upon the premises; for that the Court of Appeals here are not advised, &c.

At which said third Monday in December being the fifteenth day of the said Month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and six, come again into the Court of Appeals here at the City of Annapolis aforesaid the parties aforesaid by their attornies aforesaid; Whereupon for that the Court of appeals here are not yet advised what Judgment to give of and upon the premises, a day is therefore given to the parties aforesaid with the consent of the said parties by their attornies aforesaid before the Court of appeals here until the third Monday in June next to hear their Judgment of and upon the premises, for that the Court of Appeals here as yet are not thereof advised &c.

At which said third Monday in June being the fifteenth day of the said Month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seven, come again into the Court of appeals here at the City of Annapolis aforesaid the parties aforesaid, by their attornies aforesaid: Whereupon, for that the Court of Appeals here are not yet advised what Judgment to give of and upon the premises, a day is therefore further given to the parties aforesaid, with the consent of the said parties by their attornies aforesaid, before the Court of Appeals here on the third Monday in December next, to hear the Judgment of the Court of appeals here of and upon the premises, for that the Court now here as yet are not &c.

At which said third Monday in December being the twenty first day of the said Month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seven, come again into the Court of appeals here the parties aforesaid by their attornies aforesaid: But because the Court of appeals here are not yet advised what
