CHESTERTOWN - DEC. 10, 1887

PERSEVERANCE REWARDED.

He boarded the train at Rochester and came to the only seat in the car, beside a young lady.

"This seat taken, ma'am?"

"No."

"Well, then, I guess I'll sit down."

Two minutes' silence.

"Have some peanuts, ma'am?"

"No, I thank you."

"Jiminy, don't you like peanuts?" Just like my wife. My great holt is peanuts and bananers. Perhaps you'd like a bananer, ma'am?"

"No, nothing, thank you."

"Live in Buffalo, ma'am?"

"Yes."

"P'haps you know my friend Cap'n Jack Sloan, lives down in Elk street."

"No, I don't know where Elk street is?"

"By gol! and live in Buffalo. Why, I've sold butter on Elk street nigh onto twenty years ago. Your name ain't Jones, is it?"

"No."

"Tain't Williams or anything of that kind?"

"No."

"That's what I thought. I don't s'pose now it's Brown, or any o' them colors?"

"No."

"Been far?"

"Not far."

"Syracuse, mebbe; or Albany, eh?"

"No!"

"Hain't been to New York?"

"Yes."

"Jiminy, I've never been there, though I saw a pretty slick fellow from there once. Them New Yorks is regular goers, ain't they? Any relations there?"

"Few."

"Gosh! Wonder if they know my cousin Jake. He's getting $10 a week jest to walk around a store and look slick. Your folks ever speak of Jake?"

"No."

"Jake and me bought some land out West last year. Ever buy any?"

"No."

"Don't. Jake and me lost $500. It was way at the bottom of the rivers. Ever been out West?"

"Chicago."

"Jee, you hev traveled, ain't yo? Father and mother living?"

"Father."

"Live in Buffalo?"

"No."

Our folks live together down to Rochester. My father and mother have been dead this long time. My wife's mother lives with us. Her name's Martin. That ain't your name, eh?"

"No."

"I was just thinking you looked like a man I know in Buffalo named Waters. He ain't your brother?"

"No."

"Then your name ain't Robinson?"

"No."

"You must have a curious kind of name. Sure 'tain't Sanders?"

"Sure."

"Wal' here we be; can I help you gittin' off?"

"No, thank you?"

"Oh, is there a door plate on your house?"

"Yes."

"P'raps you wouldn't mind telling me what the name on the plate is?"

"Smith."

"Gol!"

A CUNNING EXPEDIENT.

There is a fable among the Hindoos that a thief, having been detected and condemned to die, happily hit upon an expedient which gave him hope of life. He sent for his jailer, and told him he had a secret of great importance which he desired to impart to the king, and when this had been done he would be prepared to die. After receiving this piece of intelligence the king at once ordered the culprit to be conducted into his presence, and demanded of him to know the secret. The thief replied that he knew the secret of causing a tree to grow that would bear fruit of pure gold.

The experiment might easily be tried, and his majesty would not lose the opportunity; so accompanied by his courtiers and his priests, he went with the thief to a spot selected near the city wall, where the latter performed a series of solemn incantations. This done the condemned man produced a piece of gold and declared that if it be planted it would produce a tree, every branch of which would bear gold.

"But," he added, this must be put into the ground by a hand that has never been stained by a dishonest act. My hand is not clean, therefore I pass it to your majesty."

The king took the piece of gold, but hesitated. Finally he said: "I remember in my younger days that I filched money from my father's treasury which was not mine. I have repented the sin; but I dare not say that my hand is clean. I pass it to my prime minister."

The latter after brief consideration, answered: "It were a pity to break the charm by a possible blunder. I received taxes from the people, and as I am exposed to many temptations how can I be sure that I have remained perfectly honest? I must give it to the the governor of the citadel."

"No, no," cried the governor, drawing back. "Remember that I have the serving out of pay and provisions to the soldiers. Let the high priest plant it."

And the high priest said, "you forget; I have the collecting of tithes and disbursements for sacrifice."

At length the thief exclaimed: "Your majesty, I think it were better for society that all five of us should be hanged, since not an honest man can be found among us."

In spite of the lamentable exposure the king laughed; and so pleased was he with the thief's cunning expedient that he granted him a pardon.

Silver Weddings in France.

Silver marriages are very pleasing festivals in France. When a couple have completed twenty-five years of married life the event is celebrated with all the show of joy and festivity possible. In the first place, there is a religious ceremony in church, which has a good deal of the outward form of a genuine wedding. The lady is again called the bride, and her toilet is superb, supposing her position in the world justifies it. The flowers which she is expected to wear are large white ox eyes—known in France as reins marguerites. The bridegroom wears a dress coat. The pair are surrounded by their children and grandchildren—if there are any. All relations are invited, for a grand family muster is considered essential. A dinner is given, followed by a ball, which is opened by the newly remarried couple, the lady dancing with her eldest son and her husband with her eldest daughter.—Boston Transcript.

It is related of the late Dr. Hodge, of Princeton Theological Seminary, that he once asked a student for a definition of eternity. The student, after some hesitation, replied that he used to know the definition, but had forgotten it. "Oh, my, my, my!" exclaimed Dr. Hodge, bringing his hand down forcibly upon the table, what a calamity! "The only man in the universe that ever knew what eternity is has forgotten."

TO THE PUBLIC GENERALLY:

Having been well patronized by the people of Chestertown and vicinity for the last seventeen years we tender our most sincere thanks for same and will in the future as in the past do our utmost to please all. We have and intend to keep in stock a full line of all of which will be sold at close figures. We have now a Ladies Button or Lace Shoe at $1; a man's Solid (or no sale) Plow Shoe at $1 a pair; a man's Dress Shoe at $1.25, $1.50, $2 and $2.50; and the best Glove Kid Top, kid front, worked buttonhole Shoe for Ladies and Misses at $1.75 that we ever saw—Having sold 600 pairs of them in two (2) years without one just complaint. We also have a Kid-top Shoe for Ladies at $1.25 a pair, but please bear in mind that when you buy a pair of $1.25 kid-top shoes of us you will not get our $1.75 shoe, as we only advertise what we can and will do and nothing more.

Groceries, Provisions, Boots and Shoes, Notions, Domestic Dry Goods, Tinware, Queensware, &c., &c.,

LIME, HAIR, WHITEWASH BRUSHES, &c. We are selling the W. J. Lime, which is said by both carpenters and masons to slack at least one-fourth more than other lime, and having made a special contract for same would like builder as well as whitewasher to call and get prices.

We also have Wm. Lea & Sons, C. A. Gambrill's, and other brands of FLOUR, which we are selling by the Pound, Bag or Barrel as cheap as it can be bought in the city for the cash, as we sell Flour by the barrel for the CASH ONLY.

☞We aim to keep a little of everything and by buying our goods close for cash and discounting all our bills we are enabled to meet all and any competition. Again thanking you for past favors we ask a continuance of same. Respectfully,

RICHARD HYNSON
versus
Ellen Conyer, Annie Conyer alias Annie Kelley, William Conyer, Jas. F. Wheatley and Mary E. Wheatley, his wife, formerly Mary E. Conyer, Joshua T. Twilley, executor of William Conyer, dec'd.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for a sale of the real estate of William Conyer, late of Kent county, State of Maryland, deceased, or so much thereof as may be necessary to aid his personal estate in the payment of said decedent's just debts.

The Bill states that the said William Conyer in his lifetime was indebted unto plaintiff in the full sum of one hundred and seventy-one dollars and fifty-one cents on his certain promissory note, dated July 9, 1885, payable on demand to the order of the plaintiff, and unto divers others persons.

That said debtor died on the 9th day of August, 1887, seized and possessed of real and personal property in the county a State aforesaid, and possibly elsewhere in said State, leaving Sarah A. Conyer his widow and the defendants Ellen, Annie, Mary and William his only children, and also a last will and testament and a codicil thereto; that by the terms of said will his real estate passed to his said wife for life and the remainder in fee to his aforesaid four children, share and share alike, and by the codicil appointed the defendant, Joshua T. Twilley, sole executor of said will, who has proved the same and obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters testamentary thereon, and possessed himself of the personal estate, which is of little value, not sufficient to pay in full the just debts of his said testator.

That by the death of the said Sarah A. Conyer on the 10th day of September, 1887, the aforesaid four children of said testator became seized and possessed in fee simple of his real estate so as aforesaid devised and that the said Annie Conyer, alias Annie Kelley, is a non-resident.

It is thereupon this 11th day of November, 1887, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, in Equity, that the plaintiff, Richard Hynson, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent county, once in each of four successive weeks before the 12th day of December, 1887, give notice to the said absent defendant, Annie Conyer, alias Annie Kelley, of the object and substance of this Bill, warning her to appear in this court in person or by solicitor on or before the 12th day of April next, to show cause, if any she has why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

A REMEDY FOUND AT LAST TO CURE

HOG CHOLERA!

LIEBERMAN'S

Hog Cholera Remedy

WILL POSITIVELY CURE AND PREVENT HOG CHOLERA!

IT is not a new remedy, but has been tried and experimented with for two years and found that if used when the hogs are first attacked that it will cure the Diseased Hogs and prevent the contagion from spreading to the others in the same pen.

SYMPTOMS OF HOG CHOLERA:

It is essentially a malarial fever. The animal however fierce and obstinate formerly is found more gentle and tractable; it shows decided signs of fever, elevated temperature alternating with cold shivers; the ears are more or less loped; hindquarters weak and the hog shows a strong tendency to lie down on the least provocation and hide in the litter, rising only when wanting to drink; no appetite but great thirst. It often stands drawn together, with arched back and tucked-up abdomen. Its gait is staggering and its grunt weak. Its cough is weak and has a peculiar hollow sound, not easy to describe. It breathes hard, with pumping flanks and soon loses flesh. The skin is harsh and scaly and soon becomes discolored with purplish patches around the snout, between the forelegs and inside the thighs.

PRICE 50 CENTS, BY MAIL 75 CENTS

YOU CAN FIND

OUR STORE

Without a Map.

YES, you can find our mammoth store without the aid of a map or diagram. Our grand establishment ranks among the most attractive and imposing mercantile buildings of the Monumental City, and its location, like the name of Mabley & Carew, is thoroughly familiar to the people of Maryland and the South.

Now for a practical, common-sense business chat with everbody. We put aside all unnecessary formalities, we don't like what is commercially known as "red tape." A man's a man and a woman's a woman, that's all there is about it. Every one enters our store is greeted with civility and business-like courtesy. If you merely wish to "look around," all right. You're welcome. There's a competant and courteous salesman, he'll show you everything. Don't carry your baggage and bundles all over town. Step right up to our first floor bundle counter and have your parcels checked, subject to delivery on demand. Just make up your mind when you come to Mabley & Carew's that you're an invited and welcome guest. These privileges cost you nothing, but will add greatly to your comfort and convenience.

Here you are on the first floor. Look at that $10 suit, there's a whole counter full of 'em at the same price and it's a genuine all-wool Scotch Cheviot, well made and correctly trimmed. You'll see suits exactly like it displayed in clothing store windows about town marked $15. Here's a grand assortment of Taylor-Made suits in English CHEVIOTS, PLAIDS, WORSTEDS, CORKSCREWS, &c., at $15 each. Quite sure you couldn't match them in Baltimore for less than $20. Try it and let us know the result. There's our Pantaloons' Department to the right as you enter the door. Never saw so many pants and such a variety of patterns in one store, did you? Guess not, for our general stock is just about three times larger than that of any other clothing house in all the South. Pantaloons from $1 up to the very finest made. Take a glance at our Furnishing Goods Department. Shelves, cases and tables filled to repletion with everything seasonable in the line of Furnishings. Shirts, Collars, Cuffs, Underwear, Hoisery, Cloves, Neckwear, Handkerchiefs, Cardigan Jackets, Umbrellas, Mufflers, &c. Prices always 25 per cent less than are charged at exclusive stores.

Second Floor--Our Children's Department. Headquarters for Juvenile Clothing, Shirt Waists, Hats, Caps and Furnishings. Truly a magnificent stock, matchless and enormous in its variety of styles and patterns. CUTE and PRETTY KILTS, stylish NORFOLK SUITS, handsome THREE-PIECE SUITS -- in fact, Suits of every description for Young Folks. Prices surprisingly low--much lower than are charged at any other store in the city. Our Overcoat Department offers decidedly the largest and most elegant variety of Overcoats your eyes ever gazed upon. We'll sell a reliable garment for $4 or $5. You can select any grade and style you desire, for our assortment includes OVERCOATS of all qualities, from ordinarily good up to the finest Satin-Lined garments, all at very lowest prices.

MABLEY & CAREW,

S. W. Corner Baltimore and Light Streets.

Send your name and address and we will mail you free our Fall and Winter Fasnion Review, containing rules for self-measurement and description of all the latest fashions. Also Furnishing Goods price list and set of handsomely colored cards.

A Card of Explanation to the People of Kent County—The Credit System a Great Humbug in Every Respect.

I DESIRE through the columns of this paper to say that on and after SEPTEMBER 1st my business will be conducted on the CASH SYSTEM, and in order to sell Clothing and Underwear cheaper than it has ever been offered in this market I must have the cash for everything purchased from my store. If I were to continue the credit business, I would be compelled to add largely to my capital, carry a much larger stock of goods, which would mean heavier taxes and insurance, besides paying out many dollars for postage and stationery to send bills and statements, and occasionally trust a party who would never pay, and the account would be lost. By doing a cash business all this is saved and I will be better able to give better goods and better styles than I otherwise could for the same money.

I have studied the question carefully and fail to find a single advantage in the credit system, either to my customers or myself. You run no risk when you pay the cash, as the money in every case will be refunded where goods are unsatisfactory. In conclusion I would say to the CASH CUSTOMERS of this county I want your trade, and in exchange for your cash I will give you Clothing and Underwear this fall and winter cheaper than you ever bought it before. My old books will be closed up at once and never again will I credit any one from my store. The price will be the same to all, as the cash must accompany every purchase.

Respectfully, &c.,

THE SEASON IS NOW HERE when the farmer should begin to turn "mother earth." The saving of labor of both man and beast is necessary to compete with the low price of agricultural products. To do this we would recommend first, the

Economist Chilled Plow

as the "friend of the farmer," as the points and shares can be turned three or four times, thereby saving the expense of buying new ones. Next to the above is the Stations marked (*) have no agents.

Freight for Bingham, Flatland and Nicholson's must be prepaid.

The Morning Trains make close connection at Clayton with Trains on the Delaware Railroad going north, or south. Passengers to and from Baltimore change at Porter's.

Freight carried at low rates to all points, and must be at Stations Thirty (30) Minutes before starting time, in order to insure dispatch.

Excursion Tickets issued at reduced rates.

The above arrangements will give passengers four and a half hours in Philadelphia, three hours and twenty minutes in Baltimore and return home the same day.

d3-tf. FRED GERKER, Lessee.

Phila., Wilmington & Baltimore R. R.

DELAWARE DIVISION.

On and after Nov. 13th, 1887, (Sundays excepted), trains will run as follows:
