The Kent News

CHESTERTOWN - SEPT. 22, 1888.

The Benefits of High Protection.

Mr. Blaine says the present generation must be taught the benefits of high protection. An excellent idea. The New York Herald seconds the motion thus:

If a young man buys a suit of clothes for $23, the amount of protection he pays is $9. The clothes without protection would cost $14.

If he buys a $1 hat he gets 40 cents worth of hat and 60 cents worth of protection.

If a young couple just beginning housekeeping buy a yard of Brussels carpet for $1, they receive 45 cents in carpet and 55 cents in protection—or say for a whole room, $12 worth of carpet and $18 worth of protection. With free wool $18 would be [illegible]

[illegible] young woman pays $9 for a shawl [illegible] worth of shawl only; the other [illegible] to the manufacturer to [illegible]

[illegible] dress for $18 she gets $12 [illegible] $6 worth of protection.

[illegible] wants a pair of shoes, [illegible] $4.50 to $5.50, she has [illegible] $1.50, according to quality [illegible] the "protection" has [illegible] from which the leather [illegible]

[illegible] for an iron pot or [illegible] goods and 20 cents [illegible]

[illegible] $3 she receives $2 [illegible] worth of protection.

[illegible] machine and pays [illegible] $11 worth of protection.

[illegible] a watch, $12 represents the other $4 goes to [illegible]

[illegible] up for $1 there is 55 cents [illegible] cents to "keep the pot boiling," "protection" individual.

[illegible] to buy a range or stove for $25 [illegible] $17 in goods and $8 worth of protection.

If she buys a dozen steel knives and forks for $3.50 she gets $2 in knives and $1.50 in protection.

If she buys a dozen glass tumblers for $1, she receives in glass 55 cents and 45 cents in tariff.

If a farmer buys $100 worth of implements to start out in farming he gets $65 in machines and $45 in tariff wind pudding. With the Mills bill passed he could get a horse and harness, as well as his implements, for his $100.

If the farmer purchases a barrel of salt for $1 he gets 64 cents in salt and 36 cents in protection to companies in Syracuse, Warsaw and Saginaw.

Mr. Blaine and Field Marshal Matt Quay are at liberty to use these facts in their new political catechism for the present and coming generations.

Look where you will, follow the whole tariff list now in force, down article by article, and you will find the hand of the public robber reaching for your pocket to steal from every man, woman and child in the country. Since each must consume something, so each must be robbed.

SOCIETY DAME.—"No, dear, there is no supper for you tonight, I am sorry to say. The cook left this morning." "Well, let me have a glass of ice water; I'm nearly dead." Just about the time the ice was delivered, the chambermaid who was in the kitchen taking the cook's place received a telegram calling her to the bedside of a sick relative, and had to hurry off. "I forgot about the ice and it all melted." "Humph! Well, I'll go upstairs and lay down." "All the bedding was taken out in the yard this morning to air, and as the nurse is away for a week, there has been no one to bring it in. We'll have to go to a hotel for awhile. Such a time I do have with servants. By the way, speaking of servants, the paper says a young man in Chicago killed himself yesterday because of servant-girls refused to marry him." "Well, to be refused by a girl who knows how to do her own housework is enough to make any man of sense commit suicide."

A FAT man was walking down the street the other day when the sun, directly in the south, was shooting his red-hot rays into both sides of the street. The clothes of the fat man, saturated with his perspiration, which ran down his legs and in to his shoes, causing a swashing sound every time he took a step, clung to his body like wet rags. A thin man, dressed in a cool seersucker suit, walking the opposite way, met the fat man and accosted him with: "Is this hot enough for you?" By way of reply the fat man shot out his right, knocked the thin man down jumped on his prostrate form a few times and then with a parting lick, shouted: "Sic semper tyrannus," and walked off amid the huzzas of a crowd which had witnessed the insult and its prompt and well merited punishment. Who says that patriotism, or the love of it, is dead?

A WITNESS WITH GOOD EYES AND EARS.—Quite an amusing episode occurred in the trial of a case in the court at Ellicott City, Md., while a colored witness named Chas. Tydings was giving his testimony. Some doubt as to his correctness about seeing and hearing had been raised, when Col. George W. King, the opposite counsel, asked if he could see a fly a hundred yards off, to which he gave a positive answer in the affirmative. He was then asked if he could hear a bell at that distance, which he positively affirmed that he could. The judge and spectators enjoyed a laugh at the wonderful witness and declined to close his testimony.

[illegible]RIES—Debts and duties are synonymous words, were once thought to have associated the word with money as almost to [illegible] that alone. Every duty [illegible] a debt—that is, something we owe and ought to pay. It may be service; it may be [illegible]y; command, or obedience; friendship; reverence [illegible] it be that comes to us as [illegible] be met, a duty to be performed, a debt that is owed, which [illegible] conscience will not desire to [illegible]

[illegible]us of 1880 gives these cities as [illegible]lous in order: New York, Philadelphia, Brooklyn, Chicago, Boston, St. [illegible], Baltimore, Cincinnati, San Francisco and New Orleans.

GENTLEMEN—I have been having chills for about three (3) years, and have tried several remedies but to no avail. About three months ago, I was prevailed upon to try Celore. I used one package of that never-failing remedy for chills and to-day I feel no symptoms of their return.

Yours respectfully, WILLIS HOFLER.

SIRS—I have had rather a hard time to introduce Celore, as the people here thought that nothing would stop the chills but quinine. But since they have tried Celore they say it not only stops the chills but makes a complete cure. It is well started now, however, and as I am out of goods, please ship immediately. Yours truly, J. S.S.S. FOR THE BLOOD

PEEDS MILL, TEXAS, June 26, 1883—The Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: One of my children was troubled with rheumatism and boils for about two years. We gave her various kinds of medicine, but without profit, and began to despair of curing her at all. I was persuaded to try your Swift's Specific. After she had used several bottles the diseases all disappeared, and she is now a hale, hearty and healthy girl twelve years old. Another child has just become afflicted in the same way, and I am using the S. S. S. and anticipate a prompt and permanent cure. N. C. WAGGONER.

RICH HILL, MO., July 7, 1886—The Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: Our little girl when but three weeks old broke out with eczema. We tried the prescriptions from several good doctors, but without any special benefit. We tried S. S. S., and by the time one bottle was gone her head began to heal, and by the time she had taken six bottles she was completely cured. Now she has a full and heavy head of hair—a robust, hearty child. I feel it but my duty to make this statement. Respectfully, H. T. SMOKE.

CHANNAHON, TEX., Feb. 23, 1886—The Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: In 1865 I contracted blood poison, and at once sought a physician, who treated me for several months. By his advice I went to Crab Orchard Springs, Ky., where his course of treatment was carefully observed. I recovered, as I thought, but the next spring pimples began to appear on my face and body. These gradually increased to sores and running ulcers. I was advised to try S. S. S., and immediately after taking it I commenced to improve, slowly at first, but more rapidly afterwards, and soon nothing remained to tell of my trouble. My blood is now thoroughly cleansed, and my system free from taint, and I owe my present condition—a perfect cure—to your medicine. I cheerfully give this statement that others who have suffered as I have may reap the same benefit. HANNY M. BOYD, 24 West Ninth St.

HOMER, LA., May 25, 1886—The Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: About two years ago my general health gave way entirely. I was so debilitated that I almost despaired of ever feeling well again. All that the physicians done for me brought no permanent relief. Friends insisted that I should try S. S. S. I did so, fair trial, although I thought it would be throwing away money. After taking a thorough course, my health and strength returned, and I must say that S. S. S. alone cured me, as I discarded all others while using it. As a tonic I can most heartly recommend it; for general debility, it certainly is a specific. W. F. BAMOUN, J. P.

HOMER, LA.—I know Mr. W. F. Bridges, and will say that his statement is correct.
