Maryland Sc.t

At a Court of Appeals of the State of Maryland, one of the United States of America, begun and held for the Western Shore of the said State, at the City of Annapolis, on the second Monday in June, being the eleventh day of the said month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty one, and in the forty fifth year of the Independence of the said United States.

Present

The Honourable Jeremiah Townley Chase, Chief Judge,

The Honourable { John Buchanan, Richard Tilghman Earle, John Johnson, William Bond Martin & Walter Dorsey } Judges

Thomas Harris, Clerk.

On application of the Assistant Attorney General, Edward Hinkley, Stevenson Archer, Charles F. Mayer, William Price, John Law, James A. Smoot, William D. Merrick, Joseph M. Palmer, John G. Chapman, Julius Forrest, John Johnson Junior and Ezekiel F. Chambers Esquires are admitted attorneys of the Court here; and thereupon they repeat and subscribe a Declaration of their belief in the Christian Religion, and take the several oaths required by law.

The State of Maryland vs James A. Buchanan and others	Writs of Error to remove sundry criminal prosecutions to this Court from Judgments rendered in favour of the parties prosecuted in Harford County Court, the said writs of error being sued out on the part of the State.

On motion of the Assistant Attorney General, the Court here approve of the nomination made by him of Henry M. Murray Esquire, the District Attorney of the sixth Judicial District, as a substitute, to appear for and on behalf of the State to prosecute in these cases — the assistant attorney general having been counsel
