

SYNOPSIS Arrested for speeding for the fourth time. Betty Winslow, madcap society girl, is brought before Lieut. Knox, handsome head of the Traffic Department, at Police Headquarters. She is sentenced to sttend his traffic safety school. She brings her friends along and they treat the whole thing as a lark. One of the latter invites Knox to a barbecue at her home. Knox meets Betty on the way there. The car breaks down and they are forced to seek refuge at a "model home" along the road.

CHAPTER IV MODEL HOME COMPLETELY FURNISHED A STEAL! ASK MR. TWEETS

BETTER HURRY DETTY WINSLOW and Lieut. Knox were confronted h this sign as they walked around a bend in the seemingly endless road which led to Dodie Sloan's barbecue. The "Model Home" was situated under

They wandered back into the liv- | Knox. Then, as he saw her eyes filling room exclaiming over all the with tears, he softened. "Hurt yourgadgets they found until they be- self badly?" He crossed quickly to held what looked like a bird cage covered with elaborately embroidered silk which squatted on a side

"I'm sure I don't know."

"Shall I try kicking it and see ever. Gingerly he raised the object by a tuft of feathers attached to its top. Underneath was a telephone. "Evidently Mr. Tweets thinks there's something not quite nice about telephones," chortled Betty.

"If you had any sense you'd have left it the way it was in the first place," the lieutenant said bitterly.

an oak tree in a yard barren of grass | long distance." Knox started to do but surrounded by unpainted stakes | so but stopped with a groan when bearing small vari-colored pennants. he discovered that the wires from "'Better hurry.'" chuckled Knox | the telephone dangled free when as he surveyed the forlorn develop he lifted the instrument.

ment. cried Betty in mock alarm. Seizing | fully. Then, shrugging his shoulher escort's arm she dragged him | ders, he added: "Well, what do you through the wicket gate, up the | think? Shall we buy the place." front path and onto the veranda. knocker and hammered vigorously | "There's something wrong with this | respective corners. on the door. Whereupon the knocker | room. Wait a minute! I've got it.

came off in her hand. "Let's start all over again," table is." laughed Knox, hooking the knocker back into place and rapping with | room cock-eyed!"

his knuckles. "Not a tweet from Mr. Tweets," | She went to the table and took hold sighed Betty at last. Then as they of one end. "Come on—give me a turned away she paused and looked | hand." the place over. "Poor little house-here all by itself. . ." inside," suggested the policeman. struck it. Finally they became in- structions. "I need a little encour-"Let's find out." He turned the knob | volved in a ferocious argument as | agement." on the door and, when it opened, to the place the couch should occupeered inside. "No phone in sight," he reported.

"Why, it's adorable," cried Betty, peering over his shoulder into the | show you how much you know!" fast nook!"

get wedged in there with a full- | the two. "Ouch!" she cried, holding sized steak. You'd have to break the | the knuckles to her mouth. walls down to get out."

John Baylor, Attorney

Order Nisi

.John Baylor, Regional Attorney &c...

George P. Conkling, An Incompetent

In the Circuit Court for Cecil County.

In Equity, No. 4158

Auditor, mentioned in these proceed-

ORDERED, This 9th day of July, 1936

that the report of Henry L. Constable, True Copy-Test:

table near the fireplace. "What do you suppose that is?" whispered Knox.

what happens?" "Better be careful—there may be mice in it." Betty clung to his arm and tried to back away, ready to duck. Knox refused to budge, how-

"What's Dodie Sloan's number?"

if you said so." "Would you?" she asked demurely. For a moment he stared down into her tantalizing face, so provocatively close. Her eyes dropped be fore his; his arms were about to go around her-and before he could even kiss her a car screeched to a halt outside and footsteps crunched on the gravel path and stamped across the front porch. Then the her side. "Here, let me see it."

away from him.

"Go away." she cried, turning

"I'm sorry, Betty," he pleaded to her back. "I'll do anything you want.

I'd move the piano into the kitchen

"Hello, folks," this person beamed as the others disengaged themselves hurriedly. "I'm Mr. Tweets." Then he added incredulously: "You-uh -you folks didn't want to look at the house, did you?"

door swung open and a small, shab stood blinking at them in astonish

by man carrying a bulky parcel

"Well, not exactly," answered Knox uncomfortably. "You see, we got lost." "Oh-that explains it," sighed Mr Tweets as he started unwrapping his bundle. "I didn't figure you could have come out here deliber-The parcel turned out to be a bottle. Mr. Tweets took out a cork screw and methodically started to "Nice little place you've go: here." Knox said to bridge the awkward pause.

"I think it smells." Tweets an swered bluntly and bitterly as he yanked at the cork. "We sort of-er-moved the furniture around a little bit." Betty apologized. "Just to see how would took." "Well-it looks a little better this way." Tweets admitted slowly as he wiped the top of the now open bottle with the heel of his hand. "But nothing could really help it much."

"You couldn't take us back to town, could you?" Knox hinted. "Sure. Take you anywhere you want. Have a drink. It's celery tonic. Good for the nerves." As they shook their heads in polite refusal Tweets shrugged and took a long swig. Then "I guess Mr. Tweets doesn't pay "Maybe we're too late already," | his telephone bills," he smiled rue | he made a wry face. "Even my favor ite drink tastes bad out here," he grumbled. "Let's start." They bundled into the real es-"I don't know." Betty cocked her | tate man's rumble seat and for a There the girl seized the shiny brass | head to one side and frowned. | time sat somewhat shyly in their

"What's the matter with you That couch ought to go where the two?" Tweets inquired at last, look ing over his shoulders in annoy-"No. no! It'll make the whole ance as the old Ford bounced along. "You act like you've been fighting. "Not at all. I'll prove it to you! or something."

"What gives you that idea?" "Well, if you ain't there's something wrong with you-sitting in a Then, like a young couple just | rumble seat with a pretty girl and I feel sort of sorry for it, sitting out | married, they engaged in an orgy | not having your arm around her." "Thank you, Mr. Tweets!" of furniture moving, until the living "I wonder if there's a telephone | room looked as if a cyclone had | laughed Knox as he obeyed in-

"It's been such a lovely, funny afternoon," said Betty wistfully as "If you had any sense you'd have | she nestled into the crook of his "But this little place isn't bad at | left it the way it was in the first | elbow. I wish we didn't have to go place," the lieutenant said bitterly. | to Dodie's party. But it's going to

"Is that so!" Betty flashed. "I'll look scandalous enough as it is!" "Well, if they're going to think the tiny kitchen. "Look at that break- She seized the recalcitrant article | worst anyway . . ." grinned Knox of furniture and gave it a push. The | He slipped his hand under her chin "They certainly didn't waste any | couch banged against a nearby | and turned her face toward him space," grinned Knox. "I'd hate to table, catching her fingers between Mr. Tweets fully appreciated that kiss as he watched them in his rear-view mirror.

(To be continued)

"See? That's what you get," began ings, be ratified and confirmed, unless cause to the contrary thereof be shown on or before the 31st day of July next,

A grade and quality

for every building

requirement

LUMBER

Buy your lumber

have the opportunity to select from the highest grade,

inspected steek

without obligation.

Expert

day of July next.

John Baylor, Attorney Order Nisi

provided a copy of this order be insert-.John Baylor, Regional Attorney &c.. ed in some newspaper printed and published in Cecil County once in each of Charles F. Smith, An Incompetent > ORDERED, This 9th day of July, 1936 that the report of Henry L. Constable. WALTER E. BUCK, Clerk. Auditor, mentioned in these proceedings, be ratified and confirmed, unless cause to the contrary thereof be shown on or before the 31st day of July next, provided a copy of this order be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in Cecil County once in each of two successive weeks before the 17th day of July next.

WALTER E. BUCK, Clerk. True Copy—Test:

The Estate of Hiram W. Shalleross,

In the Orphans' Court of Cecil County. ORDERED, this 24th day of June, 1936, that the sale of the Real Estate, mentioned in the above matter, made and reported by Rose Shallcross and Herbert E. Shallcross, Executors of the Estate of the said Hiram W. Shallcross, deceased, be ratified and confirmed unless cause to the contrary thereof be shown on or before the 27th day of August, next, provided a copy of this Order be inserted in some newspaper, printed and published in Cecil County, once a week for one month before the

The Report states the amount of sale

JESSE E. PIERSON, Register. True Copy—Test:

By BERTHA M. BALDERSTON Four Years Ago And Now

it would be kept in rigidly formal clothes and certainly it would be kept out of politics."

Ington Evening Star in speaking of the National Conventions of 1932 and 1936. Haslup, President of Maryland. parties, reveals this correspondent, are Simpers, Mrs. Voshell, of North East, to give conspicuous space to advertisements of leading liquor firms in the and your correspondent were also prescountry. The solemn meetings at which ent. are to be chosen the two candidates for national leadership for the next four years at this, a most critical point in people's affairs, are to be financed largely by vigorous efforts to promote the sale of intoxicants, to increase the number of drinking citizens.

Some of the advertisers in the Democratic book, to be sold at $2.50 per copy. are Schenley Products, at $7,500, Frankfort Distillers, $7,500, Calvert Distillers, $2,500, Sengram Distillers, $2,500, Anheuser Busch, $6,000, and Schlitz Brewing Company, $2,500. "If the amounts ! paid for space are correctly reported, it would seem that liquor ads are to ise have the inside covers of both front and 3 back of the magazine, and also the coveted back page."

When confronted with this elaborate 35 advertising program the amazed reader 2 recalls the published pledge of the two national parties at the conventions of 1932, to "rightly and morally prevent | the return of the saloon," "the saloon is and attendant abuses," "the enactment of such measures as will promote temperance," "to bring the liquor traffic ! under complete supervision and con-

Upon two occasions after his election Mr. Roosevelt publicly pledged his word that while the Eighteenth Amendment was doomed the saloon should not be allowed to return. To quote his words, "By no possibility, at any time or under any conditions at any place or under any circumstances, shall that institution. the saloon, or its equivalent, be allowed to return to American life."

Perhaps this explains why at the recent Democratic Convention neither the platform nor any one of the fifty three speakers so much as mentioned the subject of repeal of the prohibition amendment, though that was one of the promises in the 1932 platform which was carried out.

The Newly Organized Third Party recognized that the temperance cause is not a dead issue and seems willing to conclude it in the program for social

The Prohibition Party is also still active in many states and has as its Candidate Dr. D. Leigh Colvin, for president, Mrs. Colvin and their daughter.

the fight against Liquor. Both took con- ! WWW. spicuous part in the Five State Conference recently held at Ocean Grove, N. J. Mrs. Colvin is President of the New "This time four years ago the wets in York State W. C. T. U. and seated with soth parties were solemnly promising her on the platform through the sesof Pennsylvania, Mrs. Nodocker, president, of New Jersey, Mrs. Waller, Presi-So says a correspondent of the Wash- dent of Delaware, and Mrs. Mary R.

The artistic convention books of both Miss Bertha M. Tyson, Mrs. Robert

> SURGEON DENTIST 162 WEST MAIN ST ELKTON MO.

HOUSE Desirably located in

Phone Elkton 116 For Particulars

Elkton

Bill Crawford PIANO TUNING

$2.50

Call or Write WDEL

WILMINGTON, DEL.

7268 or 2-9681

idewater

Daily Motor Freight Service From BALTIMORE, MD. to PERRYVILLE, NORTH EAST, ELKTON

And All Points Along U. S. Route 40

All Shipments Received At Baltimore Before 12 o'clock Noon will be Delivered The Same Afternoon.

We will also operate Daily Service from Elkton, North East and Perryville to Baltimore, Washington, Frederick, Harrisburg, York, Lancaster and Intermediate Points, and connections to the South.

Authorized Agents for Steamship Lines and Carloading Companies PHONE—ELKTON 144

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The County Commissioners at their meeting on July 7, 1936, passed the resolution that all delinquent taxes in my hands must be collected or the properties advertised at public sale before

Owners of Town Properties having taxes in arrears are also warned to pay their arrearages before August 15 otherwise the properties will be advertised for public sale.

EUGENE RACINE

Sheriff of Cecil County.

SURGEON DENTIST 162 WEST MAIN ST.

Notice To Trespassers ..

Having reason to believe that certain parties are in the habit of trespassing upon the property of this company, and removing firewood and other timber, we hereby warn all persons to refrain from trespassing in any manner, and from removing wood of any kind, from the Company's property or snores. A reward of twenty-five ($25) dollars will . be paid in each and every instance for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of parties trespassing on any of the property of this Company within Cecil county.

> WHITAKER IRON CO. Henry A. Warburton, Solicitor

Order of Publication

Lester A. Richardson, Plaintiff

Kathryn M. Richardson, Defendant In The Circuit Court For Cecil County. In Equity No. 5104

The object of this suit is to procure a decree for a divorce a vinculo matrimonii by the plaintiff, Lester A. Richardson, from the defendant, Kathryn M. Richardson.

The Bill states that the parties hereto were married on the 11th day of February, 1918, in Elkton, Maryland, and that the defendant has, without any just cause or reason, abandoned and deserted the plaintiff, and has declared her intention to live with him no longer, and that such abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for at least three years, is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties is beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation. That the conduct of the plaintiff towards his wife has always been kind, affectionate and above reproach. That no children were born of said marriage. The Bill further states that the Plaintiff has been a resident of the State of Maryland for more than two years past, and that the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Maryland, and her last known address was 5542 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The bill prays for a divorce a vinculo matrimonii and for general relief.

It is thereupon this 1st day of July, 1936, ordered by the Circuit Court for Cecil County, in Equity, that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Cecil County, once in each of four successive weeks, before the 1st day of August, give notice to the said absent defendant of the object and substance of this Bill, warning her to appear in this Court, in person or Virginia are also well known figures in Appropriate the 17th day of August, 1936, to show cause if any she has why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

> WALTER E. BUCK, Clerk. True Copy-Test:

WALTER E. BUCK, Clerk. STATEMENT OF ESTIMATE OF EXPENSES OF CECIL COUNTY FOR FISCAL YEAR JULY 1, 1986

TO JULY 1, 1937 In compliance with Section 3, Chapter 141 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland the undersigned Board of Estimates of Cecil County herewith submit the following list of moneys, expenditures, disbursements or estimates showing for what purposes and in what amounts the moneys so appropriated is to be expended for the ensuing fiscal year, July 1, 1936 to July 1, 1987. Co. Commissioners Court $10,500.00 8,000.00 County Buildings 4,800.00 County Health Dept. 9,000.00 Elections Incidentals 4,500.00 Circuit Court urors 950.00 Circuit Court Witnesses Sheriff 7,000.00 Bailiff & Crier 5,000.00 Poor and Insane Outside Insane 13,000.00 1,400.00 Printing Circuit Court Counsel Fees 2,400.00 790.00 Circuit Court Stenographer Circuit Court Miscellaneous 2,000.00 Constables 600.00 1,800.00 Orphans' Court 650.00 Paupers Public Schools 174,223.30 1,335.00 State Tax Supervisor Agricultural Extension Service New Assessments 700.00 Interest on Bonds 7,750.00 Justice of the Peace 2,000.00 Inquisitions 1,000.00 Reductions & Insolvencies 12,000.00 Cattle Testing 2,000.00 Union Hospital 5,300.00 1,500.00 Auditor 2,080.21 Contingent Fund Redemption of School Bonds Childrens' Welfare Society 3,500.00 Redemption Lat. Rd. Bonds 2,000.00 Insurance on Buildings 1,200.00 Reserve for Emergencies 8,000.00 Supplies for Court House 1,300.00 Supplies for Jail 3,500.00 Lighting of Towns 2,000.00 Local Fire Companies 2,800.00 Old Age Pension 7,509.00 Reserve for Colored School Aid for Dependent Children Cecil County Welfare Board Purchase of Forest Land for C. C. C. Camp 3,600.00 $337,735.73 For County Purposes the Levy will bring in the following revenue: Real and Personal

Real and Personal $36,672,210 @ .78 286,043.24 Securities 2,352,496 @ .30 7,057.49 Bank Stock 625,000 @ .50 3,125.00 Corporation Stock 450,000 @ .76 3,510.00 Surplus for Year 1965 38,000.90

$387,785.73 Published by order of the County Commisisoners of Ceril County:

> Read The Star For All Sports News

MAULDIN LUM.

MARYLAND ELKTON Phone 59

Keys & Miller

Lumber Co.

two successive weeks before the 17th In the Circuit Court for Cecil County. In Equity, No. 4131 WALTER E. BUCK, Clerk.

WALTER E. BUCK, Clerk.

Order Nisi

27th day of July, next.

to be $845.00.

JESSE E. PIERSON, Register.