Die Lunæ 5° Aprilis

Thomas Wharton of Charles County Gent [illegible] late of the said County deceased [illegible] his life time made his last will & testament & of the same Constituted no Executor but divers legacyes to him & said Wharton Wherefore prayes that Action of Call and singular the goods chattelles & debts of said deceased may unto him be committed Whereupon the Judge Decreed that Action of Call & singular the goods chattelles and debts of the said deceased be to the said Wharton committed & that Commission issue to John Manning of the same County gent impowering him to take bond of the said Wharton with two able & sufficient sureties in double the value of the goods chattelles & debts of the said deceased & also to minister unto him the oath of a true his proceedings therein to return into the office with all convenient speed & further Decreed that Maj. John Nicholas & John Hobbs be appointed Appraisers of the Comon with warrant to to Juradis them & the same Immediately

Die Lunæ 5° Aprilis

Anthony Mayle of Talbot County gent: returned as follows viz

This to certify into the office for probate of Testaments that whereas the Honble Philip Calvert Esq Chancellor of Maryland directed to me a Comon to call before me Mary De Rumple the adm: of singular the goods & chattels of John Clements deceased that she might prove her acct that she returned into the office which accordingly this present today of March & did but cannot find the receipts for any such summes as the acct amounteth two for the first summe of 12 0 0 84 of tob. & cask tob but only few receipts but a great deal of tob Edw. Blizard acct in a book which the said Mary De Rumple saith Edw. Blizard paid out of the estate of John Clements deceased as for the other particulars I have been most of the receipts she the said Mary is not free to swear to the payment of the whole particulars nor does I know how she was cann she not paying the particulars heretofore Dis his wife sic est at the last County Court the 16 of this instant March that if any person did lay any claime to any debt due out of the estate of John Clements deceased that they should come to James