Organization of Connecticut Legislature—Message of Gov. English.

HARTFORD, May 1.—The Legislature organized to-day. Governor English in his message says the situation of public affairs is in every respect important. He urges that as citizens of a common country, we should strive to extinguish vindictive resentment, caused by the late civil war, waged to maintain the supremacy of the Federal Constitution and the integrity of the national honor. He says the great object is not yet attained—the Union is not restored. Ten States are denied participation in the National Government by the action of Congress. Such measures, if persisted in, will transform the Republic into a despotism. He deems the course of legislation pursued by Congress wholly unwarranted, and as fatal to the Union and the Constitution as the doctrine of secession.

The legislation of the Thirty-ninth Congress to a large extent was a series of usurpations and infractions of the Constitution. He argues that Congress has no more power under the Constitution to establish military government in the Southern States than to instruct the order of nobility in England, and claims that Congress assumed that power only for the purpose of more thoroughly accomplishing the subversion of State authority. If Congress can legislate for these States it is not difficult to force a like interference in other States, or the right of States to regulate their internal affairs in their own way, henceforth would be subject to the caprice of Congress.

THE NEW YORK LEGISLATURE.—If all that is said about the New York Legislature be true, Pennsylvania need blush no more. The Times says:

According to newspaper correspondents, who generally know at least as much as they say, our State legislators at Albany by no means confine themselves to bribery and other recognized modes of corruption, for the passage or defeat of particular measures. Theft, larceny and forgery are also now and then pressed into the service of the State. A correspondent of the Buffalo Commercial, for example, narrates that a bill was brought into the Senate, as having passed the Assembly, where, in fact, it had not been acted on at all. The Speaker's signature had been quietly affixed, without his participation or knowledge. The dodge was discovered and the bill returned. The bill punishing the sale of indecent pictures, &c., did not pass—not for lack of votes, but because some person who was opposed to its passage stole it from the Clerk's desk. These revelations open an edifying perspective into the kind of qualifications which are likely soon to be required of candidates for the Legislature.—Sing Sing and Blackwell's Island will soon be schools of instruction and the Police Gazette the court circular.

IMMIGRATION.—Advices from Ireland announce that a heavy tide of emigration has begun from that country to the United States, and it bids fair to increase in volume as the year advances. It is reported from Queenstown that it is impossible to give any adequate idea of the extent of this movement, or the anxiety of the Irish to get to America. During the week ending the 15th of April, nine steamers sailed from Queenstown for the United States, bearing nearly 5,000 emigrants. Nine steamers were also to be dispatched by the various transatlantic lines every week thereafter. From Germany the reports are that a great emigration to the United States has also begun. We have room for all the new comers, and extend them a hearty welcome. Their labor, their property, and their good wishes are of great advantage to the United States.

DEATH OF REAR ADMIRAL RINGGOLD, OF THE UNITED STATES NAVY.—Rear Admiral Cadwallader Ringgold, of the United States navy, died suddenly, in New York on Monday. The deceased was born in Maryland, in 1802, and first entered the service on the 4th of March, 1819. He was a brother of Major Ringgold, who fell in battle at the commencement of the Mexican war.

THE THREE GREAT WESTERN CITIES.—The Cincinnati Commercial, in an article claiming for Cincinnati the largest population of the great cities of the West, says that at the recent city elections, Cincinnati cast 23,000 votes, Chicago 19,000 and St. Louis 14,000.

DEATH OF A MARYLANDER.—W. R. McCullough, eldest son of Hon. Hiram McCullough, of Elkton, died suddenly a short time since at St. Domingo. He was engaged in business there, and fell a victim to the malarious fever in that clime.

STAMPS ON WRITS.—The commissioner of internal revenue has decided that the law of March 2, 1867, exempts from stamp duty all writs and other original process for the commencement of suits in any courts.

DORCHESTER AND DELAWARE RAILROAD.—The county commissioners of Dorchester, Md., have decided, by a vote of four to one, to issue bonds to the amount of $50,000 to aid in the completion of the Dorchester and Delaware railroad.

LARGE PROFIT FROM HEMP.—A gentleman in Scott county, Ky., purchased thirty acres of land at $100 per acre. He sowed it in hemp, and the first year's yield was $140 per acre.

OPERATIVE IN KENT COUNTY,

PASSED JANUARY SESSION, 1867.

AN ACT to authorize and empower the County Commissioners of Kent County to subscribe in behalf of said county to the capital stock of the Kent County Railroad Company, and to issue bonds for the same, and to provide for their redemption.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the County Commissioners of Kent county, or a majority of them, be and they are hereby authorized, empowered and required, as soon as they may receive notice from the Kent County Railroad Company, to subscribe in behalf of Kent county for four thousand shares of the stock of said Kent County Railroad Company, and in payment for said subscription to issue bonds in the name of the County Commissioners of said county in such sums as the President and Directors of the said Railroad Company may prescribe, redeemable in such time or times within twenty years as the said President and Directors may designate, (but not in less than fifteen years,) and which shall be stated on the face of said bonds; and to each of which said bonds shall be attached coupons for the interest thereon, at the rate of six per cent. per annum, payable half yearly; which said bonds shall be delivered to the said Railroad Company in payment for said stock, and which said bonds may be hypothecated or sold and assigned by the said Railroad Company.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said bonds shall be exempt from county, school, State and municipal taxation, and that the faith of Kent county is hereby pledged for the redemption thereof.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the said County Commissioners shall from time to time levy on all property subject to taxation for the ordinary expenses of the said county such sum or sums of money as shall be necessary for the prompt payment of the principal and interest of the said bonds, and shall provide for the mode and manner in which such payment shall be made, the said taxes to be levied and collected as other taxes in said county are levied and collected.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the said County Commissioners are hereby authorized at any time or times to sell or pledge the shares of stock which may be subscribed for under the provisions of this Act, or any part thereof, and to apply the proceeds of such sales or pledges, together with the dividends accruing on such shares, to the payment of such bonds or the interest thereon.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of protecting the interest of the said county in the said Railroad Company after such subscription of stock shall be made, and in lieu of the right to vote the said stock in the election of President and Directors of the said Railroad Company, the said county shall be represented by one Director, at the said Board of the President and Directors aforesaid; that William Lamb of said county, shall represent the county as such Director, for one year, and until his successor shall be appointed, and that the County Commissioners shall, in the month of June, in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, and annually at the same time thereafter appoint a Director to represent said county as aforesaid.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That the said bonds and coupons shall be receivable for taxes by the collectors of taxes; and when so received, on account of the same, shall be returned to the County Commissioners by the said collectors, who shall be entitled to an equal amount of the money levied to meet or liquidate their payment.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

DAILY'S VENTILATED TRUSS.

RUPTURE CURED.

I BELIEVE there never has been a Truss to compare with my improvement, not only for a perfect and radical cure but also for the comfort and convenience of the wearer; of the thousands on whom I have applied this Truss in Baltimore and vicinity, nearly all have been relieved. Where the rupture is not complicated with other disease any one wearing the Truss may be cured, some in the short space of three months, especially young persons, although many over fifty years of age have also been cured. THE CLEANLINESS OF THE PAD, not absorbing the sweat, but being ventilated, permitting the air to circulate around the injured part, makes it essential to the comfort of the wearer. It will be the only Truss worn in the world. Physicians and persons who have worn it say there is no room for further improvement. Call and see it.

ALSO ON HAND:

A large and varied assortment of Surgical Appliance of every description, or made to order. Elastic Stockings, Knee Caps and Anklets, for varicose veins, swelled or weak leg.
