SATURDAY, - - - APRIL 22, 1905

CONGRESSMAN SMITH is making an effort to have the "Corn Special" visit Kent county next fall.

THE Citizens' Party has been formed in Delaware to fight the liquor interests.

NEGROES have been denied representation on county grand juries in Greensboro, Alabama.

ALL HAIL the glorious Easter! Let the beautiful flowers and anthems of praise fill the churches, and all hearts rejoice. Christ is risen!

STATE'S ATTORNEY BECK is to be congratulated upon the result of his cases at this term of court. In nearly every case he secured a conviction.

IF Mr. "Robafeller" wants to dispose of some of his tainted money let him move over into Delaware and he will be given the opportunity.

MR JOHN HENRY KEENE advocates the policing of the bay to save the Maryland oyster and says "it would mean more for Maryland commerce than if the whole State was a solid gold mine!".

IT is difficult to understand how any citizen can vote against the Improvement Loans at the election in Baltimore. It will mean a blackeye for the city's future if these loans are defeated.

HAS the Court adopted Dr. Osler's theory? Most of the men on Kent's juries are young men and Mr. Philip G. Wilmer, the excellent foreman of the Grand Jury is said to be one of the youngest men ever chosen for this responsible position.

THE Court in selecting Messrs. J. F. M. Woodall, Wilbur Eliason and Harry C. Willis for auditors of Kent County showed wisdom. The former two have proven their special fitness and in Mr. Willis is to be found a representative citizen fully capable of the arduous duties. The county is fortunate in their selection.

THE Baltimore "Reform League" condemns the suffrage amendment. Who would ever expect it to do anything else with Mr. Charles J. Bonaparte as its sponsor? Mr. B. is without a doubt the leading Republican "manager" in Maryland and the "Reform League" is literally his own child.

THE qualified voters of Chestertown will be called upon next Monday to elect a town Commissioner to succeed Col. W. J. Vannort, whose term expires. The Colonel has served eight years and is a candidate to succeed himself. Mr. Wm. S. Carroll is also a candidate and a large vote is expected to be polled, though there are no recognized "issues" of importance. By common consent the place is to be filled by a Republican as the two hold-overs are Democrats.

CONGRESSMAN (?) Jackson gave a dinner in Baltimore this week to discuss "oil," &c. It is not thought that Mr. Smith's counsel will take any more testimony. They have secured enough to prove the election to have been fair, and will rest upon that. The time limit for securing evidence expired this week. In view of the unsatisfactory character of the testimony adduced it will not surprise the republicans if the contest is abandoned. It all depends upon Mr. Jackson.

THE refusal of Mr. Rockefeller's money for the Missionary cause on the ground that it is tainted gives rise to the question as to how other contributions are earned. If churches and benevolent institutions refuse contributions because of the methods used in earning same it would mean poor collections and poor work. It is not the money that is bad but it is the men and their methods that need reforming.

DR. E. B. PRETTYMAN, who has been principal of the State Normal School for 15 years, will probably step aside because of impaired health at an early date. The selection of his successor will be considered at the May meeting of the State Board of Education, in which is lodged authority to choose the principal of the school. The salary is $2500 and house rent free. Already four applicants for the prospective vacancy are in the field. They are: Prof. George W. Ward, of the Western Maryland College at Westminster. Prof. Roland Watts, formerly an instructor in the Western Maryland College, now a resident of Baltimore, Richard A. Alvey, Jr., of Hagerstown, John Montgomery Gambrill, assistant state superintendent of public education and author of a history of Maryland. President J. W. Cain, of Washington College, Chestertown, has also been mentioned as a probable successor, but we are authorized to say that he is not a candidate nor has any idea of leaving the grand work he has undertaken at this College.

PERSONAL TIDINGS....

About You and Your Friends—The Going and Coming of Persons You Know.

Senator Clarence W. Perkins, of Baltimore, was the guest of his mother in Chestertown this week. Senator Perkins says the "Loans" will go through by a big majority.
