Local Notes.

Sale of Boat.—Capt. Thos. Moore, of Centerton, has sold to Capt. Harry Pfeffer the fine schooner "Cecilia" which was built at Turner's yard in Chestertown.

Engagement.—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Ford, of Galena, announce the engagement of their daughter, Hattie Estelle, to Mr. G. Herbert Moore, of Baltimore, formerly of Cetterton. The wedding will take place early in the fall.

Heavy Firing.—The report of guns at target practice at Fort Howard, near Baltimore, Tuesday, was plainly heard in Chestertown. Some of the discharges shook the houses here and in one case even knocked the plaster off a ceiling of a house on High street!

Farm And Dwelling Trade.—Mrs. Rolph Stoops, nee Mrs. John Vernon, has purchased of Mr. L. B. Russell the Thomas farm situated on Lankford Bay in Broad Neck and, with her husband, will remove thereon at once. Mr. Milton Crew is the present tenant. In exchange for this farm of 130 acres Mrs. Stoops gives her store and dwelling located on Cannon and Cross streets and a money consideration reported to amount to nearly $2,000.

Postol Matters.—The postal receipts of the Chestertown postoffice for the month of April was $895.55, exclusive of money orders and box rents. During April the corriers on the rural routes from this office delivered and collected 18,255 pieces of mail matter, apportioned as follows: Route 1, David Kendal, 2982 pieces; route 2, Thomas Willis, 7161 pieces; route 3, Charles E. Woods, 2989 pieces; route 4, Fred S. Russel, 5123 pieces.

Well Represented—Kent County is well represented at Charlotte Hall Military Academy. The successful baseball team which has not lost a game this year, can boast of having two of Kent's young men on the team. Hanson Horsey is the crack pitcher of this team and is also Captain. H. G. Sutton holds position of short stop and has the honor of being manager of the team for the second time. Sutton also was Capt. of last years foot ball team and is to deliver the Valadictory of this year's class. Horsey also held the position of quarter back on last year's foot ball team, and has the honor of being at the head of his class.

Lightning's Work.—The severe storms of the past week have done some damage in Kent. Mr. Thos. H. Bryan, near Melitota, had a horse out in the field struck and killed by lightning on Monday night. A fence in one of Mr. Harry Deputy's fields was struck and burned also by a bolt of lightning. Lightning came near striking the stable of Mr. W. Edw. Loud, near Fairlee, splintering and barking a peach tree within a few feet of it. A mule of Mr. Wm. Hendricks, near Lynch's, was killed by lightning.

Lightning struck the brick barn on Mrs. Jos. Rasin's place on Paca Island last Sunday and knocked one end out!

Baseball Notes.—Washington College defeated Western Maryland College last Friday by score 16 to 4. This was a grand victory and duly celebrated.

The Lynch's Athletic Club defeated the Betterton second team, last Saturday at Betterton. Score 7 to 5.

Remedy for Cut Worm.—The Currant worms have again put in their appearance and are eating the leaves from the Gooseberry bushes. They are the easiest of all insects to control. The remedy is right at hand on, perhaps every farm in the county; and if applied promptly you also get rid of them for many years to come as you destroy the next year's brood. Dig up some polk root put in a large vessel and boil them, use the water or rather the polk root tea in either a sprayer or a water pot, spray your bushes well and you will have no more trouble with the currant worm. The gooseberry crop is such a valuable one to the ones who are lucky enough to have the bushes, that promptness is absolutely necessary.

Not Much Hope For Peaches.—Col. Theodore Townsend, of Milford, who is considered an authority on the subject of peaches, is of the opinion that there will not be a quarter of a crop in Delaware this year. He had made a tour of the bay shore and examined several orchards, but found very few peaches.

"There may be enough for home use," he says, "but I shall be surprised if more than a carload a day goes out of Milford, when we have been shipping 30 cars a day in some years. I predict that all peaches at Milford station will be worth at least $1 a basket."

Farm Sold.—The "Shadewrech" farm near Millington, tenanted by Mr. John W. Martin, owned by James Lake, of Baltimore, has been sold to Dr. Gowman, of Millington. The price is said to be $4,000; it contains 150 acres.

Wool buyers paid 30 cents for wool this week.

Wheat for July and August is quoted at 87 and 85 cents.

Queen Anne's strawberries were plentiful in town this week.

The two canneries at Chestertown will be run this season. Contracts for tomatoes have been made at $6 per ton.

The new college building will require nearly a million brick and has about one hundred and fifty windows! The contract is to be awarded next week.

Wm T. Brown, of Quaker Neck, has purchased a well-matched pair of 4-year old Chantilly bay mares of Treasurer Albert Story for $300.

It is said that the present postoffice quarters in Chestertown are too small and that a move has been started to erect a building that will be in keeping with the needs of the town.

Two prominent citizens of Kent have lost pocket-books during the past ten days traveling between Chestertown and Philadelphia. In one, owned by a lady, there was about $12, and in the other, owned by a gentleman, there was $30

The address delivered by Rev. Robert Watt, D. D., in Chestertown M. E. Church Thursday evening was eloquent, instructive and interesting. A large audience greeted him and enjoyed the anniversary exercises. Specially good music was rendered by the choir under Dr. Hall's direction.

At a meeting of the Alumni Association of Washington College on Saturday night in Chestertown, presided over by Harry J. Hopkins, Esq., of Annapolis, action was taken toward the holding of a reunion and banquet on Tuesday evening, June 20, '05. It is proposed to make this one of the most successful ever held by the association.

A meeting of the disaffected element of the Democratic party of Queen Anne's county, or those opposing the present management, was held at Centreville Tuesday to determine the question as to whether they shall make a primary fight on May 27. A. J. Gadd, of the First district, was called to the chair. All the districts of the county were represented.

It was decided impracticable to make a primary fight at this time. Another convention is to be called in the near future, represented by fifteen delegates from each district, for the purpose of formulating an independent ticket.

Experts figure that the total amount of boodle turned loose in Albany at the session of the Legislature just ended was considerably above the $1,000,000 mark.

A large delegation from each of these lodges will be present.

Mr. John Merritt, of Balt., who has been sick at the home of his sister, Mrs. Dr. Chas. R. Twilley, of Chestertown, we are sorry to report, is no better and his condition is serious. His sister, Mrs. Dr. Lowe, of Baltimore, is at his bedside.

Crumpton Wedding.—On Tuesday evening of last week a pretty wedding was solemnized at the Crumpton M. E. parsonage, the contracting parties being Miss Margaret Logan, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Logan, and Mr. Tilden Story, the nephew of Treasurer Albert Story. Miss Ida V. Wallen rendered Lohengrin's march and Rev. Mr. Baynard performed the ceremony. The bride was charming in a dress of white silk mulle. A reception followed at home of bride's parents.
