To The Democratic Voters of Kent County.

Pursuant to the action of the Democratic County Executive Committee on Tuesday, May 16, 1905, notice is hereby given to the Democratic voters of Kent county, that the delegates elected at said primaries are empowered to select six delegates, with half a vote each, at the county convention which meets in Chestertown on TUESDAY, JUNE 13, to represent Kent county in the Democratic State Cenvention to be held at such time and place hereafter as shall be named by the Democratic State Central Committee, to nominate one person for the office of Comptroller of the Treasury of Maryland.

ADAM F. HUEY,
JOHN M. COMEGYS,
SAMUEL J. WICKES,
State Central Committee for Kent Co., Md.

THE Talbot commissioners have declared a tax rate of 85 cents on a basis of $9,000,000. The Kent rate will be struck in a few weeks.

THE action of the convention in Chestertown Tuesday of last week is without precedent in the history of the Democratic party and every voter should enter a vigorous protest against such outrageous and undemocratic action.

JOURNALISTIC NOTES.

The stockholders of the Baltimore County Democrat met at the office of the newspaper in Towson and decided to consolidate the Democrat with the old Maryland Journal, which they recently purchased for $3600 under the name of the Baltimore County Democrat and Journal. Col. Charles G. McClean is president of the publishing company and Mr. John B. Perkins secretary.

Editor W. M. Abbott is one of the "Old Guard" in journalism his Annapolis Evening Capital being just 21 years old. The paper and owner are hale and hearty and have a bright future. May the genial editor live to see the Capital grow and flourish still more abundantly. He deserves success.

The Baltimore Sun celebrates its 68th birthday. It is an ideal paper and holds the highest place in the newspaper ranks. Its new building and modern equipment will be far ahead of any rival.

The Greensboro Free Press, published by Mr. L. Irving Jones, has been bought by a stock company, which will be known as the Greensboro Publishing Company. Mr. William H. Deweese, attorney, of Denton, is president and general manager; Mr. T. Clayton Horsey, treasurer, and Mr. O. H. Smith, assistant manager.

Mr. Jones will retire from the journalistic field, with which he has so long and successfully been identified.

IT is time that the Chestertown sprinkler was at work. It has become a necessity and our town fathers will be doing a great wrong to delay this important matter. The merchants demand it, the housekeepers need it, the visitor looks for it and in fact everybody appreciates it and requests that it be put to work. Do it now.

THE indications now point to a big victory for the organization in the coming Democratic primaries. The First and Seventh districts have been conceded to the organization without a fight, while the Third has been left open to the Barroll wing. The Fourth, or Chestertown District, is safely with the organization while the Fifth, Sixth and Second are scenes of warm contests, with the chances in the two latter in favor of anti-bossism and for the organization. The contest has ceased to be one of men but is simply one of bossism versus Democracy.

MAYOR DAVIDSON of Baltimore during the term 1889-1891, has severed many, if not all, of his business connections there and left the city. Miss Laura B. Noyes, a trained nurse, whose home was recently at Port Deposit, Cecil County, and with whom the ex-mayor has often been seen in public recently, has also left Baltimore.

Mrs. Davidson, wife of the ex-Mayor, said that her husband and Miss Noyes had left the city together and had sailed together for Europe. She stated that she had no expectation of his returning; that he had taken with him all of his clothes, personal belongings and funds amounting to $175,000; that he had made no provision for her and had not acquainted her with his plans.

THE fight against the proposed lease of the Philadelphia gas works to the United Gas Improvement Company for 75 years took a sensational turn when Mayor Weaver demanded the resignations of his director of public safety and director of public works because, as he said, he wished advisers who were in consonance with him. The resignations have been given, but both officials said they would remain until their successors qualified. The Mayor, however, demanded that the techinicality be waived and removed them at once. Elihu Root, of New York, has been engaged as one of the Mayor's counsel and it is war to the hilt. The Mayor has struck back at them the heaviest blow they have received since they become banded together for the control of the city government.

THE "ONE MAN" PARTY.

How It Looks to a Voter in the Fifth District.

Rock Hall, May 24, 1905.

MESSRS. EDITORS:

After carefully reading the reports of the Democratic meeting in Chestertown on Tuesday last, and we read the report in both papers, our mind went back to last spring, or late winter, when we saw in one paper an article setting forth the facts that the "People's Party" (Hope H. Barroll) had selected one man only for the different offices to be filled this coming fall; while the "Old Organization" were said to have as many as two and in some instances three, from the same District for the same office. Now we would like to know when the "People's Party" (Hope H. Barroll) held their convention and nominated the "People's Party" (Hope H. Barroll's) ticket. But looking at it from a broad view and eyes not biased, it does not take a deep thinker, to steadily see the "hand at the helm," a hand acting from the instructions of the brain that composes the thoughts wherein first originated the desire "to rule or ruin." The "Old Organization" should feel proud to think they are leaving the field open for all comers, every man has a fair chance, and no one man shall say "get out of the way." In very truth this new wing of the party has robbed the old wing of the party of its name for surely it should be the "Old Organization—the "People's Party." We in the old Fifth well understand circumstances and conditions and the results will be somewhat surprising when the tally sheet is read.

There is no man among us that can say one harmful word about Mr. Charles D. Wood as a man. We all appreciate him as a man, neighbor and citizen. His character is beyond reproach, but he represents the "People's Party"—Hope H. Barroll) and a vote for his delegation means a vote for him to dictate with a "big stick." Our experience with Barroll men for the last two years have not, to say the least, been very pleasant. We do not think it necessary to take up space printing these experiences as they are so well known it would be a waste of ink.

Who C. D. Wood's opponent will be we know not, but the "Old organization" has pledged us a good, business man. One every way qualified to fill the office with credit to himself, the party and the tax payers of good old Kent. We have heard that Mr. William Wagoner would make the fight; we hope he may. He has never been identified with any particular wing of the party; owes no old political debts he may have to pay off; and is too much of a business man to make any new debts; a man that started life with nothing but his brains and muscle and today is well rated.

Mr. Wood is what you might call a successful farmer but the high handed manner that the "Type written convention" was run on Tuesday, May 16th, shows what we may expect if the "People's Party" (Hope H. Barroll) gets full control of Kent and we know that there are a great many people who would like to support Mr. C. D. Wood, that if they knew a vote for him meant a vote for the whole Barroll ticket would not touch him with a forty foot pole.

Again the ousting of Mr. Russell as chairman, was, or rather, is, an exhibiton of small politics. In Mr. Russell we have a man every way qualified to fill the bill; a man of education, experience, a parliamentarian, generous and liberal in his views, and willing to deal justly with all.

There is plenty of time to rectify any mistake the voters of old Kent have already made and to do so is the duty of every good Democrat at the coming primaries.
