MOODY & LUSBY MOODY & LUSBY

DO YOU SEE THIS FELLOW?

LOOKS SURPRISED, DON'T HE?

Well, this is about the expression of those visiting our Regular Semi-Annual Reduction Sales.

We now propose to clear up all Summer goods at very much reduced prices.

Now we mean reductions from our already low quotations and every article of merchandise in our establishment is marked in plain figures. You can well see the significance and realize the difference in prices asked for similar qualities by city houses.

Come early while we have a fair assortment in Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing, Straw Hats, Summer Underwear, Separate Trowsers and all Summer Merchandise will now be cleaned up.

MOODY & LUSBY

Directly Opposite Court House, CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Mr. Howard Shuster, of Centreville, who has been for the past several years associated with Mr. Cookman Orrell in the blacksmith and wheelwright business, left last Monday morning to accept a lucrative position with W. H. Kelly, Locust Grove.

Sixtieth Season.—In another column will be found W. W. Hubbard's adv., announcing his 60th season. The plant near Chestertown is being enlarged to nearly double its size so that they will be prepared to better serve the public. Mr. Hubbard says the goods for 1905 are the best ever put out.

Oysters Grow on Rudder.—Mr. John M. Hersch, of Rock Hall, Kent county, sent to THE SUN office Saturday an old boat rudder covered with well developed little oysters. The rudder was lost overboard about five months ago and the oysters are therefore from this season's spawn, which literally cover blade and handle. It was found by a crabber in Swan creek, a small stream near Rock Hall.

"Do not let Brother Haman see the rudder," writes Mr. Hersch, "else he will want to plant boat rudders instead of shells in the oyster beds."

SPORT AT BETTERTON.

The eleventh annual summer trap-shooting tournament, under the captaincy of James R. Malone, began on Wednesday at Betterton. The traps were set in the baseball field and the shooting was done over a cornfield.

A large tent has been erected in the rear of the scores and there shooters, spectators and visitors to Betterton congregated to watch the sport. Captain Malone and his able corps of assistants had perfected every arrangement, and the sport started off in as frictionless a way as if the tournament had been in progress for several days.

Preparations have been made to shoot as many thousands of targets as the sportsmen may care to have thrown, and the program has been so arranged that those who are able to break but a small percentage will be able to enjoy the sport at the least expense.

Mr. Louis S. Mordecai has a tent erected near the big public tent, where he entertains his friends. The Betterton tourney is not a selfish affair for men alone, for many of the shooters had members of their families down for an outing, and rooms have been engaged at the hotels for families of others who are to arrive later.

The folk around Betterton are all more or less good field and duck shots, and they took great interest in seeing the boys smash targets. When such good shots as Lester German, James R. Malone, Dr. H. E. Larpus and others were in the squads the interest was a high tension.

Freight Rates.—Messrs. Ozman & Kendall and C. H. Clash, owners of schooners, advertise freight rates as follows:

Grain by weight	4c. per bushel
Coal, per ton	60 cents
Phosphate, per ton	$1.00
Lumber, per 1,000 feet	$1.00
Bricks, per 1,000	$2.00

THE Board of Governors of Washington College have decided not to award the contract for the erection of the proposed new administration building until next year. An effort will be made to get an appropriation from the legislature next winter. The contractors stated that it would be impossible to get the building under roof before winter, therefore it was thought best not to begin same until later.

JAMES DAVIS, a well-known farmer near Ridgely, met with a serious accident on Tuesday, of last week. Crows have been playing havoc with his cantaloupes, and he determined to break up their nests and kill their young ones. He climbed to the top of a 50 foot pine tree, and in an endeavor to reach out for a nest which was thought to have several young ones in it, his foot slipped and he fell to the ground. He is 70 years of age.

WALTER SCOTT'S special train from Los Angeles to Chicago made the run in four minutes short of forty-five hours, beating all previous records. It was a marvelous run of 2265 miles, and if continued to New York would make the trip from ocean to ocean in sixty-three hours. And there are men now living who made the journey from ocean to ocean in six weeks and considered that they were doing well.
