SATURDAY, - - - JULY 22, 1905

WHEAT was quoted at 88c. in Baltimore yesterday.

THE Westminster Advocate observes: "The proposed amendment to the Constitution is designed to cut off from voting the ignorant and shiftless and vicious negroes, and to stop further immigration to Maryland of more of that class of people." That is the issue succinctly and fairly stated.

THE receivership of the St. Louis People's Bank has been dismissed upon the ground that no notice had been served on Lewis or any of the stockholders.

Land Sales.—J. Waters Russell, real estate broker, has sold the Thos. Ellis farm near Edesville, to Mr. W. T. Wilkins, of Rock Hall. Price $3,000. It contains 110 acres.

Mrs. Wm. Benton, of Baltimore, purchased at public sale Tuesday the Geo. Stevens farm, Swan Creek, for $1,235. This farm contains 36 acres and was sold at mortgagee sale for R. D. Hynson, Esq., attorney.

Mr. Thos. G. Wroth has sold his handsome residence on Washington Avenue to Dr. S. E. Ford for $4,000 Mr. Wroth has a large lot on Water street on which he will erect a modern building for a residence. Possession will be given Jan. 1, '06. The sale was made through Mr. J. Waters Russell, real estate broker.

School Notes.—Miss Minnie Watson, of Wicomico county, succeeds Miss Grace Whaland at the "Oaks."

Miss Anna W. Melvin succeeds Mrs. Brockson at Lambson's.

Miss Lola O. Crew succeeds Miss Louise Carroll as assistant at Betterton.

Turner & Son supply coal for Betterton, Still Pond and near-by schools. J. D. Bacchus the remainder of the county.

The following ladies were examined in all of the studies and given second grade certificates. Misses Etta Croswell, Baltimore; Ethel Duhamell, Cecilton; Gertrude Kramer, Emma Joiner and Mattie Maslin, Rock Hall.

Misses Helen Strong and Edna Durding passed the examinations, but being under 18 years of age were prevented from receiving certificates.

Misses Clara H. Bryan, Fannie E. Stuart and Ada M. Middleton also received a renewal of second grade certificates.

Miss Alice Hepbron has resigned as teacher of Lynch's public school.

Purse Nets Confiscated.—The State police schooner May Brown, with Assistant Game Warden Oregon M. Dennis, of Baltimore, on board, made two arrests on Wednesday. They discovered the schooners Rebecca and Mary E. Crockett using purse nets off Worton Point, about seven miles above Poole's Island. The captain, Frank Davis, and his crew were arrested as follows: Lawrence and Carroll Davis, Clarence Culley, Price Ore, Nelson Williams and William Cullison.

The crew had a purse net of 130 fathoms and two 24-foot yawlboats. A little farther on the schooner Mary Crockett, Capt. G. E. Sewell, and his men were arrested for using a large net of 165 fathoms, which, with two yawls, was confiscated. The crew of the Crockett is composed of Elwood Kendall, Frank Hartman, Thomas Burde, William Sewell and Frank Pippin. The captains of both vessels admitted that they were violating the law, but added, "You would not have caught us had there been any amount of wind." There were five boats in all in the fleet, but the other three were not caught operating the nets. Mr. Dennis decided to parole the captains, crews and vessels and they were therefore allowed to return to their home port, Rock Hall, under instructions to appear in Baltimore before court, at such time as they should be notified, to answer to the charges.

DON'T WORRY—SMILE!

Postmaster M. W. Thomas, of Chestertown, and his genial deputy, W. H. Lambert, have certainly placed some good advice before the eyes of all patrons of the Chestertown office. Right in front of the general delivery window they have a card which reads, "DON'T WORRY—SMILE."

Now if all persons would try to live up to this principle we would all be better off, live longer and be happier. So let us all try to join the "Don't Worry" Club and smile through thick and thin.

YES—IT IS HOT ENOUGH!

Summer heat enveloped Kent county this week and for three days at least it was hot enough for the anti-blizzard man or for the ice man. The thermometer registered 92° Monday; 98° Tuesday and 93° on Wednesday.

Read this and put on your coats: "The cog road up Pike's Peak is now open within a half mile of the summit. The road is usually opened between March 20 and April 10, and this season is the latest in its history. Unusual difficulties have been encountered in clearing the track of snow, which was piled thirty feet high in many places. It requires from two to six weeks every spring to get the road in condition for running trains, and this spring more snow has been removed from the track than ever before since the road was built. Many millions of cubic feet of snow and ice have been cleared from the track."

Mr. Raymond Voshell, of near St. Paul's Church will discontinue farming after this year. His sale of personalty appears in to-day's NEWS.
