MOODY & LUSBY | MOODY & LUSBY

DO YOU SEE THIS FELLOW?

LOOKS SURPRISED, DON'T HE?

Well, this is about the expression of those visiting our Regular Semi-Annual Reduction Sales.

We now propose to clear up all Summer goods at very much reduced prices.

Now we mean reductions from our already low quotations and every article of merchandise in our establishment is marked in plain figures. You can well see the significance and realize the difference in prices asked for similar qualities by city houses.

Come early while we have a fair assortment in Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing, Straw Hats, Summer Underwear, Separate Trowsers and all Summer Merchandise will now be cleaned up.

MOODY & LUSBY

Directly Opposite Court House, CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Work is being rapidly pushed on the new homes of Mr. W. J. Tolson and Miss Fannie Hurtt. Contractar John Dulin and corps of workmen will soon begin the new Tonkin building on the same site as before. This will be quite a large fine building and will add very greatly to the appearance of the street.

Millington defeated Marydel last Saturday in one of the finest exhibitions of baseball witnessed here this season by the score of 3 to 1. Griffith was in the box for Millington against Gartside, and showed the local fans how to pitch. This afternoon the Wilmington Athletic Club, one of the strongest independent teams of Wilmington, Del., will play here. This should be the greatest game of the season.

During the severe thunder storm last Wednesday afternoon lightning struck the fine new dwelling of Mrs. Florence Dukehart and almost wrecked the interior nearly every partition was loosened and broken. Mrs. Dukehart and two children in all probability owe their lives to the fact that they were lying on a bed at the time, the room in which they were looks as though a bomb-shell had exploded.
