Speech of John Quincy Adams in Charleston.

John Quincy Adams, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Massachusetts, made a speech in Charleston, South Carolina, on the 16th instant, from which we make the following extracts:

Mr. Adams said he had come by invitation, and therefore felt at liberty to give that most unpleasant of commodities, good advice. He had been a freesoiler, then a republican and voted for Lincoln, was a supporter of the war, and an enemy of slavery. But when the Southern people had laid down their arms and were ready to come back, he was ready to take them by the hand and receive them. Many of the best men of the republican party held the same view. Then came the thirteenth amendment to the constitution abolishing slavery, which was ratified by all the Southern States; then the fourteenth amendment, containing a clause disfranchising the Southern leaders. He thought the Southern people were right in rejecting it; they could do no less. The North had always considered the people of the South who engaged in the war as rebels, and when conquered, as prisoners of war who had no rights.

The chief difficulty now between the Northern and Southern people is not difference of opinion. They think nearly alike, but unfortunately they do not seem to understand each other. The people of Massachusetts still retain the traditional idea of the Southern man, "dirk in one pocket—pistol in the other; cigar in one side of the mouth, and quid of tobacco in the other"—indolent and domineering, and intolerent of any difference of opinion.

Since coming down himself, he finds that the newspapers have not told the truth about the South. He had spent several days in intimate converse with General Wade Hampton, and had learned his views of the future, and he is now satisfied that Hampton is no more a rebel than himself. (Adams.)

He said that the people of the South must not expect much of any political party. If Grant is elected, it will not be as bad for the South as many here appear to think. They should remember, however, above all things, that whether they like it or not, they could do nothing; they could not again go to war. Where could they get munitions, or even banners? The policy of the South is peace. The North desires assurances that slavery will not be re-established, neither in its old form nor yet as a punishment for crime, and there will be perfect freedom of speech.

Then, but not until then, can there be perfect reconstruction, harmony and reunion. He spoke words of kindness to the negroes present in large numbers, assuring them that it was to their interest to stand by their friends, whom they had known longest, and not be carried away by the fair promises of carpet-baggers, who only want their votes. When the present questions are settled, as soon they must be, white would stand by white, and black would go down, unless the negroes abandoned their present course.

TOMB FOR EX PRESIDENT BUCHANAN.—The executors of Hon James Buchanan, deceased, have contracted with Major Charles M. Howell, of Lancaster, for the erection of a monument over the remains of the ex-President. From the design we learn that the tomb will consist of a solid block of Italian marble, five feet high, seven feet one inch long, and three feet seven inches wide. The top and bottom will have heavy mouldings, and the stone will be enriched with a wreath of oak leaves and acorns around the entire surface. The monument will be plain, rich and durable.—Lancaster Express

YOU ALL

HAVE HEARD OF

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or anything like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for Liver Complaint.

DYSPEPSIA,

Nervous Debility,

JAUNDICE,

Diseases of the Kidneys,

ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,

and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate disease of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

Hoofland's German Bitters

is entirely vegetable, and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

Hoofland's German Tonic

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in cases where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY,

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone, invigorate the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These Remedies are the best

Blood Purifiers

ever known, and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order; keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no disease will ever assail you. Do as many in this country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" to be an invigorating beverage, and to exert a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action, in the system.

Yours truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES THOMPSON,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1868.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in cases of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it.

Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates street.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The genuine have the signature of C. M. Jackson on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

Price of the Bitters, $1 00 per bottle;
Or, a half dozen for $5 00.
Price of the Tonic, $1 50 per bottle;
