VOL. 67. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, AUGUST 12, 1905. NO. 10.

DOWN WE COME

Our half yearly reduction sale of Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing begins today.

In it we offer you a fairly good selection of thoroughly dependable merchandise—Suits that are made to fit, and put together, not for this special sale, but are goods left from our season's selling, made up in the most approved manner—best trimmings and best workmanship.

You will find them all marked in plain figures, and every penny reduction you receive from the original price, is that much taken from an honest and legitimate profit. No marking up and then marking down prices, but what's the use using all this ink to tell you that the word CLEARANCE SALE with our name beneath it ought to be sufficient, for they have been too well established in the past years for there to be any doubt as to the genuineness of our offers.

In this sale we have Men's Suits low as $2.50 the whole suit. Boys' Suits at prices calculated to interest any mother who has a boy to don them. Straw hats are also included in this sale. We're going to let 'em go.

Yours for business,

J. D. LUCAS.

Money In Peaches!

Mr. Alexander Bacon, of near Melitota, has five acres in peaches which paid him $500 in 1903, $700 in 1904, and this year he expects to get at least $500. He carried 100 baskets of fruit to Buck Neck wharf one day last week and brought home $100 The purchaser got $1.30 per basket!

Messrs. James S. Harris and son, James, of Still Pond Neck, have sold their fine crop of peaches for 90 cents per basket delivered on Betterton wharf. These gentlemen will have about six or seven thousand baskets!

J. G. Harrison & Sons, of Berlin, will accept our thanks for a beautiful sample of Ray peach which arrived in good condition through the mail.

The peach orchards of central Delaware, though damaged in many places, are proving veritable gold mines as the remains of the 1905 crop comes into bearing, says the State News.

"Give from $1.00 to $1.75 to $2.00 per basket for good peached" was a record-breaking telegram received by A. E. Jardine, of Smyrna, Tuesday and C. P. Gears and others of Smyrna growers hurried in their ripe fruit. Mr. Gears has nearly 2,000 baskets on two farms.

James Keith, the Dover farmer whose peach orchard on the Jackson farm seems to have been providentially protected from the April freeze, hauled his ripe fruit to Wyoming this week and received an average price of $1.32 per basket for the fruit as it came.

While his wagon contained some of the famous white peach known as the Champion, yet he also delivered a large number of Lodge peaches, a peach only meritorious in looks. Mr. Keith has 1,500 baskets. Fancy fruit at Wyoming Tuesday brought $1.90 per basket.

OFFICER GETCHALL created some excitement uptown Saturday night by firing a pistol after a colored prisoner. It seems that a negro named Barroll was being carried to jail by the officer and when near Dodd's shop he broke away and ran. The officer's bullet failed to stop him and he has since been at large. A number of girls were on the street and thought the negro was chasing them!

EXTENSIVE improvements are contemplated at Brown & Morris' Mill, near St. Paul's Church.

A PARTY under the care of Capt Wm. Hodges anchored in Chestertown harbor Saturday on a $10,000 gasoline yacht. It was the finest equipped craft that has visited this port this summer.

THOS. C STEVENS' 4-year-old son was drowned at Betterton Thursday.

WHEAT was quoted at 82 cents Friday.

MR. ALINDA SMITH is negotiating for the Jas. Hazell farm known as "Hicks Interest" of 224 acres, above Millington, belonging to Samuel Hurlock. The price is said to be $5,000.

THE largest yield of wheat in Kent county was doubtless that raised by Mr. Wilbur Eliason. He harvested over 33 bushels per acre off 48½ acres. Some parts of the field yielded forty bushels per acre. Mr. Eliason sowed Shanghai wheat in this field and is delighted at the result. He had a tremendous yield of straw.

THE store and dwelling on Court street owned by Percy A. Rawleigh has been sold by J. Waters Russell, agent, to William C. Sutton for $850.

JOHN N. DODD found his cow. He advertised for it in the NEWS.

CANNON AVENUE, Chestertown, is the new street between Kent and College avenue. It has been graded, a sidewalk made, two new houses erected and plans made for two others.

THE Auditing Committee for Kent County comprising Messrs. Wilbur Eliason, James S. Harris and Harry C. Willis, began their labors in the county commissioners office Monday.

A CHESTERTOWN business man holds the record for fast driving. While employed in town he left his work at 12 10, ate his dinner and was at his desk at 12.50! He lives 2½ miles from town.

TEN dozen fine perch is the record of Messrs. Harry Clay Brown and Edward Wilkins who went fishing off Bookers wharf Tuesday. They report fine sport.

TEN young men took the examination for the two vacant scholarships at St. Johns and Charlotte Hall this week. They will be awarded in a few days There were no applicants for the Maryland Institute scholarship.

THE seine haulers along the Chester river are finding great difficulty in fishing on account of the great amount of grass. Many have been compelled to stop hauling their seines and take to the hook and line. Some fine fish are being caught in the lower Chester river and Lankford's bay by hand line.

THE Saturday excursions on the Emma Ford to Chestertown are proving a success. About 300 persons were on board last Saturday.

THE wedding of Miss Helen Augusta Magruder, neice of Augustus L. Warfield, of Baltimore, and Mr. Samuel Comegys Emory, of Centreville, took place Wednesday, August 9th at St. Paul's church.

GEO. H. BRINSFIELD, on Spry farm, exhibited in the NEWS office yesterday, an excellent collection of indian relics which he has found in various parts of Kent during the past twenty years. He has refused $25 for the novel collection.

THE Tournament at Tolchester next Friday promises to be a big success. Hon. Austin L. Crothers, of Elkton, will deliver the charge to the knights and a gentleman from Chestertown will deliver the coronation Address.

CAMPING IN KENT.

A Jolly Club of Dutchmen at "Staunton"—They Eat 150 Chickens at a Meal—"Cousin's Reunion" at Galena.

"Staunton," the beautiful bayside farm of Mr. Harry Price, is the camping ground of a club of 150 wealthy Dutchmen from Alleganey City, Pa. This club brought 130 kegs of beer and 100 tons of ice as a "starter" and for dinner the first day consumed 150 dressed chickens! Mr. Price finished threshing wheat a few days before their arrival and they nearly took all his straw to make beds!

This jolly club have a brass band and enjoy themselves dancing, fishing, bathing, boating, etc. The wives of many of them are at the hotels in Betterton and only visit the camp when especially invited. These gentlemen pride themselves on being Hollanders and do not want to be called Germans

The past week was one which will long be remembered by the young people who were present at the "Cousin's Reunion" at the home of Mr. Theo. Dempsey, of Galena. From the time the first guest arrived on Monday morning, July 24th, until the last farewells were waved on the following Monday, the Dempsey homestead was the scene of such a good time as only a crowd of young people can make. Two points on the Sassafras river were visited on Tuesday and Wednesday, and crabbing, fishing and bathing were indulged in to the delight of all. A strawride was Thursday evening's diversion; the party being delightfully entertained at the home of friends near Millington.

On Friday the "Cousins," with friends from Galena and Cecilton, gathered at a beautiful spot on the river's bank, where after a most pleasant afternoon they were ready to do ample justice to the supper which was spread on the grass by the lassies, aly assisted by the lads. When the "Cousins" were at home they enjoyed the swing, hammocks, croquet, and tennis on the shady lawn or whiled away the hours with music and merry chatter. The "Cousins" were: Misses Carrie and Gertrude Dempsey, of Galena; Minnie and Nellie Hicks, of Washington, D. C.; Sadie and Mary Dempsey, of Newark Elsie and Ethel DuHamell, of Earleville; Frances M. Dempsey, of Dover; Ethel B. McNamee, of Marshalton; George R. Dempsey, of Newark, and Harman C. Dempsey, of Dover.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Usilton, died at the home of its parents in Baltimore last Saturday.

Lawton Tomlinson, the fourteen months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Pippin died Sunday evening at the home of its parents, Washington avenue, of toxæmia. Funeral service were held Tuesday afternoon, Tuesday, conducted by Rev. W. L. White; interment at Chester cemetery, undertaker J. E. Ferguson in charge.

Mrs. Marie Antonette Blackiston, widow of John T. Blackiston and daughter of George Copper, of Kent County, died July 22, 1905, at San de Fuca, Island County, in the state of Washington, aged 80 years. She leaves two sisters Amalia and Harriott Davis, living in Rock Hall, Kent County, Md. Mrs. Blackiston left 4 children Wm. T. who lives at San de Fuca, Wash., John A., at Piedmont, W. Va., Thomas Copper, at Los Angeles, Cal., and Emma Daddysman, at Washington, D. C. The widow at the time of her death owned the farm known as the Burgess Farm in the lower part of Kent County.

Mrs. Mary T. Gawthrop died at her home, Church Hill, Tuesday morning, in the seventy-eighth year of her age. She was a daughter of the late Dr. Geo. C. Trenchard, a native of New Jersey. Her husband, Thomas Gawthrop, was a native of Baltimore county. He died at Church Hill about 27 years ago. She was a sister to the late George O. Trenchard and Thomas W. Trenchard, both of Church Hill. Mrs. Gawthrop was in the mercantile business for about 25 years at Church Hill, and in 1900 sold her business to M. Walls. She was considered one of the best business women in Queen Anne's county. She leaves an estate valued at $15,000, consisting of property at Church Hill and the Trenchard farm, near Southeast.

The reaper of death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hackett at Still Pond for the first time last Sunday afternoon at half past three and claimed for its own their pet, their baby Mary Elwood, aged 4 months and 3 days. Her oldest sister Alice, a popular and loved young lady of Still Pond was a second mother to it, as the best part of her time was spent with it. The only consolation that can be excepted by the family is that she is safe in the arms of Jesus.

Mr. J. Wesley Hadaway one of the most highly respected and well-known citizens of Quaker Neck died at his home Saturday last of cancer, aged 61 years. Mr. Hadaway had been an intense sufferer from the dread disease which made its appearance last November. In February he went to Johns Hopkins and had an operation performed by Prof. Theobold, the eminent specialist in that line and it was thought successful, but the malady had made such an inrode on his constitution that he soon became worse. He bore his affliction with christian fortitude. All that loving hands could do was done by his faithful and loving wife and children and kind friends. He was a man loved and respected by all who knew him and his home was one where love and sunshine always dwelled and he was happiest when he could minister to the needs of others or have his friends around him. He leaves a widow and four daughters, viz. Mrs. Whittier C. Copper, of Chestertown, Mrs. W. R. Startt and Misses Lillie M. and Anna E. Hadaway, of near Pomona. Funeral services were held on Monday morning at ten o'clock from Mowbray M. E. Church, conducted by his pastor, Rev. E. B. Taylor, interment in Chester cemetery. The following acted as pall bearers: Bartus Trew, Henry Brown, Chas. T. Stratton, W. F. Woodmender, Samuel Cranor and David Ford. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements.

V. Heath Watts, for many years a teacher in Cecil schools, died on July 30 at his home in Oakwood, of acute gangrene. He was sixty-seven years of age and is survived by his widow, who was Miss Mary Armstrong, of Baltimore, and seven children—Prof. Rowland Watts, formerly of Western Maryland College, Philip, Frank B. and Harry A. Watts; Mrs. Charles E. Kirk, Mrs. J. M. Atkinson and Miss Gertrude B. Watts.

LOOK for Owen C. Crow's new ad. next week. He has a watermelon that weighs 37 pounds, grown by Jas. T. Anthony.

James Matthews has rented the Dr. J. B. Merritt farm in Worton tenated by Mr. Silcox.
