"SING BABY SING" If Montague Love encounters another role as trying as this one in "Sing, Baby, Sing," the Twentieth Century-Fox triumph of comedy, melody and romance coming to the New Theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, he'll probably give up his screen career and return to his first love-painting.

Otherwise they would quit it for some more tranquil profession, such as hauling nitro-glycerine or airplane testing. There comes to the screen, at last, a star reporter who stays sober, a city Warren editor who doesn't shout and tear his hair, a girl cub who doesn't scoop the world and a city room that fails to suggest the inside of an animal cage.

"YELLOWSTONE"—"JAILBREAK" There are two ways to see Yellow- Representations stone National Park. One is to travel out there. The other is to see Universal's "Yellowstone," which opens at the New Theatre on Saturday, Nov. 14. Episcopal Church To Launch Mission At Cecilton

Rev. J. Randolph Field, Minister In Charge, Announces Six Day Nov. 6-7 Mission Of Prayer

Having for its objective the strengthening of the spiritual life of the Parish, a six-day mission of prayer will be launched at St. Stephen's Chapel, Cecilton, on the evening of November 15. The Mission will be carried on as a part of the Episcopal Church's Forward Movement, a nation-wide revival in which the Church is now engaged. The Mission at Cecilton will consist of special devotional services, with an address, at 7:30 each evening, beginning Sunday, November 15, and concluding Friday, November 20. Similar services are being held this month in all the parishes throughout the Episcopal Dio-Nov. 9-10 | cese of Easton.

The Rev. J. Warren Albinson, D.D., rector of Trinity Church here, will conduct the Mission, and will be assisted by the Rev. J. Randolph Field, minister in charge at St. Stephen's. Dr. Albinson recently completed parish missions at Trinity and at St. Mark's Church.

The Rev. Mr. Field, in discussing plans for the Mission in his Parish, said that he hopes to reach every Churchman in the community. At the same time he lauded the Forward Movement, and declared that "it is the finest thing the Episcopal Church has undertaken in many years."
