A STRANGE ACCIDENT.

A HOUSE BLOWN TO PIECES BY AN EXPLOSION OF GAS.

The following account of a singular gas explosion is condensed from the Cleveland (Ohio) Herald:

About a year ago, Mr. L. M. Hubby, built in East Cleveland, at a cost of about $30,000, a two-story and basement brick house, and procured a patent gas machine and manufactured his own lights. The apparatus was placed outside the building so as to guard against accident.

Last Saturday evening Mr. Hubby discovered that the gas burned with only a fitful light. Procuring a light he descended to the cellar containing the main, and when about half way across the floor he set the candle down. In an instant an explosion took place, producing a noise equal to a loud peal of thunder. A sharp, stinging sensation in his hands and face told him that he was injured. Before him he saw a lurid glare, and behind him was darkness.

At the time of the explosion there were five people in the house besides Mr. Hubby. Ella Hubby, a young lady; Frank, Mr. Hubby's son, and Frank's wife, were all in the library, immediately over the main gas pipe. Mrs. Hubby was in a room near by, and Mr. Hubby's mother was in a back room on the second floor.

The force of the explosion doubled the floor of the library together, and it dropped into the cellar beneath. Frank found himself groping about in the ruins at the bottom of the basement, almost before he knew that anything had happened. His wife was soon after discovered near an opening in the building where, a few moments before, a window had been, calling for some one to take her out. How she got there she does not know, but supposes that she was blown there.

Miss Ella was first seen after the shock on the lawn in front of the house, her clothes all in a blaze, and in deadly peril. The grandmother was found standing by the hall door uninjured, and vainly trying some way to undo the fastening. She says the ceiling of her room began to fall upon her, she saw the walls rock and then heard a report mingled with the crashing of glass. She knew that something terrible had happened, and instinctively sought the back stairs, and so saved herself. For a time it was feared that the wife of Mr. Hubby had been buried in the ruins or killed outright by the explosion, but an extended search revealed her with her son-in-law's (Col. Doubleday) family, safe and uninjured, with the exception of a slight burn on one of her hands. How she got out upon the ground is a mystery to her. The first she remembered she was running to the Colonel's as fast as she could.

The walls of the house were rent asunder by the explosion. The whole northeast corner, where the greatest force of the explosion seemed to vent itself, was blown entirely out. The lower floors in the west part of the house rocked like a ship in a heavy sea, and then rolled together or parted and dropped into the basement. The windows, sashes, and blinds were burst from their places. The wood work in the front parlor was split up as fine as kindling wood, and some of it thrown into the street a hundred feet beyond.

Instantaneously with the report of the explosion the whole house from cellar to garret took fire. Ten thousand dollars' worth of useful, ornamental and valuable furniture was swept out of existence in less time than it takes to write it. Not an article was saved. The loss is estimated at $45,000. The cost of the house was between thirty and forty thousand dollars, and the furniture inside was estimated as worth $10,000. The whole is a total loss, as not an article was saved, and the house is utterly destroyed."

IMPORTANT CHURCH CASE DECIDED.—When the Southern separation from the Methodist Episcopal Church took place, the courts not only transferred all the church property in those States to the "M. E. Church South," but allotted to them a pro rata share of the enormous fund in the Book Concern. Since the rebellion a case has arisen in Virginia of some interest, Dr. Lanahan, now one of the book agents in New York, was in 1865 a presiding elder of Winchester (Va.) district, and, in pursuance of a regular appointment, was in the pulpit of the church at Winchester on Sunday morning. While waiting for the time to open the service, Rev. Norval Wilson, of the Church South, entered and took possession, and conducted the meeting, announcing that he would do so twice each Sunday thereafter. Dr. Lanahan stated to the congregation that, for the sake of order, he had submitted to the intrusion.

The church has since remained in possession of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and Mr. Wilson and his friends have prosecuted a suit for the recovery of the property, which had been in their hands from 1844 to the beginning of the rebellion.—The case was finally decided last week by Judge Parker, in favor of the present occupants. His decision is based upon the deed of conveyance, which recites that the property was conveyed to trustees for the benefit of "the congregation of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the town of Winchester and vicinity." The amount of property in dispute was about twenty-four thousand dollars. The judge decrees that the bill of the plaintiffs (Church South) be dismissed. This is one of several decisions of like import recently made in Virginia and Maryland, all of them in favor of the Methodist Episcopal Church.—N. Y. Post.

AFRICAN COLLEGE.—The bill introduced in the House of Representatives, on Monday, by Mr. Eliot, of Massachusetts, to incorporate the African College, provides for the establishment and support of a collegiate university for the education of African youth of both sexes. The stock of the institution is to be in shares of $100, and the number is unlimited. It is stated in the bill that "the African College will have all the advantages of a first-class university, embracing the arts and sciences, and the learned professions of law, theology and medicine. This will include an academy on the preparatory studies for the college, and will be connected with a farm and a manufacturing establishment."—The institution may be located anywhere within the United States.

THE other day thirteen head of cattle were killed by grazing in a corn field near Melrose Wisconsin, in which several smut ears had been left.

Heavy on the Washburnes.

A facetious correspondent of the New York Citizen gets off the following good thing in regard to the inevitable Washburne family:

I happen to know, on the authority of an intelligent contraband, reliable, Southern gentleman, refugee—the same individual, in fact, who brought us so much information during the war—not only precisely who are to constitute the new cabinet, but who are to fill all the Federal offices. They are as follow:

Secretary of State—E. B. Washburne, of Illinois.

Secretary of War—H. D. Washburne, of Indiana.

Secretary of the Navy—W. B. Washbuene, of Massachusetts.

Secretary of the Treasury—C. B. Washburne, of Wisconsin.

Secretary of the Interior—C. A. Washburne, of Paraguay.

Foreign Ministers and Consuls—Some more Washburnes.

Revenue Officers—The rest of the Washburnes.

All the other officers—The Relatives of the Wives of the Washburnes.

With such officers as these the Republic will be safe, and all dissensions between members of the Government out of the question. General Grant has a high opinion of the Washburne family, and it is a matter of congratulation to him that there are enough of them to fill every Federal office.

YOU ALL

HAVE HEARD OF

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1823.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or anything like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for Liver Complaint.

DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys.
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,
and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imagining of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate disease of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

Hoofland's German Bitters

is entirely vegetable and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

Hoofland's German Tonic

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in cases where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY,

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These Remedies are the best

Blood Purifiers

ever known, and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order; keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no disease will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.
Yours truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES THOMPSON,
Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in cases of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,
Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.
Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates street.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The genuine have the signature of C. M. Jackson on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

Price of the Bitters, $1 00 per bottle;
Or, a half dozen for $5 00.
Price of the Tonic, $1 50 per bottle;
Or, a half dozen for $7 50.

The tonic is put up in quart bottles.

Recollect that it is Dr. Hoofland's German Remedies that are so universally used, and so highly recommended; and do not allow the Druggists to induce you to take anything else that he may say is just as good, because he makes a large profit on it. These Remedies will be sent by express to any locality upon application to the
