Blue Hens To Play Last Home Game Sat.

University of Delaware football team will play the last game of the 1936 season on the home grounds, Newark, on Saturday of this week. Drexel will be their opponents. In view of the great victory over P. M. C. at Atlantic City SURGEON DENTIST last Saturday night, it is anticipated that one of the largest crowds that has ever attended a football on Frazer Field will be present.

The season ends on Saturday of next week when the Blue Hens play Washington College at Chestertown, Md.

Fred Jacoby, professional outboard driver from North Bergen, N. J., has been awarded the Townsend and Ferguson medals for the second year in a row as the result of his racing victories during the year.

He won the Townsend high point trophy for having amassed 18,992 pionts, as compared with 17,290 for Andy Laird, of Tracy, Cal., the runner-up, and 12,-125 for Clinton Ferguson, Waban, Mass., third-place winner.

"Nothing approaching Jacoby's performance for the past two years has ever been seen before in the racing world," said George W. Sutton, Jr., chief scoring statistican for the National Outboard Racing Commission. "He is the greatest outboard racing driver of all 30W JOHN M. SENTMAN, S. Bridge St. time."

TO THE VICTORS

Last Friday evening a group celebrating the Democratic victory, apparently led by Mayor "Juthy" Matthews, with Jemal Jackson leading a donkey, astride of which was "what a man Babe" Johnson, paraded Perryville's numerous streets, greeted with cheers by Republicans and Democrats alike. The animal was borrowed from Mr. John Stump, who has only been a loyal Democrat for ninety-three years. So joyous was the throng that at times one could distinguish the donkey only after a long. difficult search, but it mattered little as he probably voted for Roosevelt, too. "Jack" England, sporting the sign "I Lost," was hitched to a wheelbarrow. in which rode "Handsome Bill" Stimox. proudly displaying the sign "The Victor," much after the manner of a Roman home-coming of a successful Caesar. Our "Jack" the former was dressed to resemble Al Smith falling overboard on a rainy afternoon, the way he must have looked after election. while the latter, with his high silk hat, cigar and beaming features, so resembled Jim Farley that people pestered him for postoffice appointments.

The entire show was clothed in a heavy cloak of good feeling and this is the garment we all should wear, for the Democrats have a right to gloat, make merry and celebrate, for was it not they who in former years took it on the chin and came back for more? Now it is our turn as Republicans to do the same, for if our country is ever controlled by one party without opposition it will only be a little matter of "kitty. bar the door." Even now one has to get a card from a Democratic leader to acquire a job with a pick and shovel on works sponsored by taxpayers' money and Jim Farley is still wondering how he lost those other two states.
