PUMPKIN PIE-TRUE CAUSE FOR THANKSGIVING

efficiency in the household.

L'VERY good homemaker aspires to the title of chef par excellence. She earns it if she "turns out" a pumpkin pie that disappears to the last flaky morsel! This hot water pastry will earn a reputation for you; it will crown you with new honors. Place 1/2 cup shortening in warm bowl, pour ¼ cup boiling water over it. Cream thoroughly with fork Place 11/2 cups bread flour (sifted), 1 teaspoon salt, and 1/4 teaspoon baking powder in flour sieve and sift gradually into bowl Mix thoroughly. Make up into a dough ball. Chill thoroughly. Roll out and arrange in a pie tin. Fill with pumpkin filling, and bake. This recipe makes one pastry shell. You may wish to increase it and store the dough you don't use. If you have a modern ice refrigerator you'll find it will keep sweet and moist indefinitely, for the air-conditioning feature of the new development in refrigeration eliminates mingling of food odors and provides moisture to keep your pastry from drying out.
