Mr. and Mrs. Quack. The latter were slowly moving along in that direction VV pond of Paddy, the Beaver, the this. If he remained right where he Reddy Fox crouched behind Paddy's dam and waited.

Watching Reddy and the ducks, the hunter almost forgot Lightfoot, the Deer. Mr. and Mrs. Quack were getting very near to where Reddy was waiting for them. The hunter was tempted to get up and frighten those Ducks. He didn't want Reddy Fox to have them because he hoped some day to get them himself.

"I suppose," thought he, "I was foolish not to shoot them when I had the chance. They are too far away now and it looks very much as if that red rascal will get one of them. I believe I'll spoil that red scamp's plans by frightening them away. I don't believe that deer will be back here today, anyway, so I may as well save

But the hunter did nothing of the kind. You see, just as he was getting ready to step out from his hiding place, stopped as suddenly as if he had been | Sammy Jay arrived. He perched in a turned to stone. He stopped with one | tree close to the end of Paddy's dam. and at once he spied Reddy Fox. It didn't take him a second to discover what Reddy was hiding there for. "Thief! Thief! Thief!" sharp eyes. There is nothing Sammy Jay delights in more than in upsetting Reddy stood motionless until both Mr. and Mrs. Quack had their heads of Sammy's voice, Mr. and Mrs. Quack under water as they searched for food the pond. They knew exactly what swam hurriedly towards the middle of that warning meant. QUESTION BOX By ED WYNN . . . The Perfect Fool

Dear Mr. Wynn:: Is it true that everything that goes up must come down?

Sincerely, D. POSITOR. Answer: Everything that goes up does come down excepting a bank.

Dear Mr. Wynn: I have a very dear friend, a Scotchman, who has just gone back to Scotland. I happen to know that he would never spend his own money to go back, yet he has gone. How do you think he got back?

Yours truly, TOM KATT. Answer: Your friend most likely heard some one sing "The Blue-bells of Scotland" and it carried him back.

Dear Mr. Wynn: I know a lady who never got married and she is now 42 years old. I asked her why she hadn't married and she said: "Why should I get married as long as I have a parrot and a monkey?" What did she mean by that? Sincerely. KOME E. OHE. Answer: Probably her parrot swears and her monkey chews tobacco and she figures therefore she doesn't need a husband. Dear Mr. Wynn: My husband was saying that he knows a man who uses "s.nokeless" tobacco. I've known of horseless carriages, wireless telegraphy, seedless oranges, but what in the world is "smokeless Yours truly, IMA YAPP.

Answer: Chewing tobacco. Dear Mr. Wynn:

tobacco"?

My father says he washes his eyes out every night before going to bed. If this is true how does he get them back in again?

L LIDD. Answer: He probably wears glasses.

Dear Mr. Wynn: An Englishman quite boastfully told me that the English took the flag away from us at Bunker Hill and says it is now in a British museum. Is it true the English have the flag? Sincerely, MIN ITMAN. Answer: Yes, but we have the hill
