ROCK HALL ITEMS

Mr. Thomas D. Glenn, one of our most respectable and highly esteemed Island citizens died on Friday 15th after a long siege of ill health and feebleness. A well ripened sheaf has been garnered in its 78th year. To know him was to love him and he was known far beyond his island home. The funeral, conducted by Rev. J. W. Parris, took place Sunday morning in Wesleyan M. P. Church before a large assembly.

Last week was to the oystermen's liking, they put in six days work on the bars, prices, however, were low, and ower still they go.

The Wrapper factory here has resumed operations and the operatives are in high glee.

Rev. Warren Burr, closed his fourth year's pastorate here on Sunday and it seems a foregone conclusion that he will be returned for another year. During his absence at Conference Rev. J. M. Downey will do the preaching in the church here.

The fine weather of from Friday of last week to Monday of this week put many here about in the garden humor and preparations were in rapid progress for an early planting but old jup. would not have it that way, so on Tuesday he gave us all a knock out, and now we are in the wind.

One of the largest stocks of spring goods ever shown in this section is that of M. Kramer, our up-to-date merchant. He has everything in the way of clothing, shoes, hats, millinery, &c. Try him before going to the city. Buy at home, you'll not regret it.

SASSAFRAS ITEMS.

ADBERT, 35508.

RECORD 2.26¼.

This stallion will make the season in Kent and Queen Anne's counties this Spring, 1907. His pedigree shows him to be one of the finest bred horses in the East. Last year he worked a mile in 2.22, last half 1.19, last quarter in 32. He shows plenty of speed and good finishing qualities.

Any one wishing to breed for speed, high-class roadsters or general purpose horses will find it to their best interests to use this stallion. He is a beautiful seal brown, 15½ hands high, weighs about 1000 lbs., well built, sound limbs. His colts are always of fine size, well colored and fine limbed. Many of these which have been handled for speed have showed plenty of it. All are good gaited trotters, none of them have ever paced.

TERMS—$15.00 single mare; $25.00 for two with privilege of returning until a living foal as long as Adbert is owned by me.

Anyone wishing services of this horse can obtain same by writing me.
