Arrival of Ex-President Johnson in Washington.

His Opinions of President Grant and the Administration—Bitter Comments upon Gen. Grant—Gloomy View of Affairs, &c.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Ex-President Johnson arrived in this city to-night, accompanied by Col. John Williams, of Tennessee. The object of his visit is to attend to private business, and to be present at the commencement of Georgetown College on Thursday, his son being a pupil at that institution.

Your correspondent sought an interview with the ex-President and found him in good health and spirits, and ready and willing as usual to converse upon political and other topics. He still feels very bitterly towards President Grant. When asked his opinion of the President and the administration he replied very frankly and freely. "You know what my opinion was in the past and I have seen nothing in the conduct of the administration to induce me to change that opinion." He then spoke of the President in the most contemptuous terms, characterizing him as a nonentity, as wanting in physical and intellectual power, and declared that he was a man without a creed or a policy, and therefore not fit to be trusted.

He reviewed some of the past acts of his own administration, especially those with which Gen. Grant, as a cabinet officer, was connected. He said he knew Grant thoroughly, and had on more than one occasion read him through and through and was satisfied that he was without substance or opinions of his own. He also spoke of cabinet members from whom the President had recived presents.

He thought it a most humiliating spectacle that a President of the United States should permit himself to be placed under such obligations to his constitutional advisers. He then rehearsed at length the controversy between himself and Gen. Grant, and reiterated the charge of prevarication on the part of the latter. Upon this subject Mr. Johnson became very warm and showed a great deal of ill temper and bitterness of spirit. He had no favors to ask of this administration, he said, and no ends to accomplish. He had reached the summit of his ambition, and his race was almost run. All that he desired was to see the government fixed upon a solid, constitutional foundation; but he had no hope of that under the present administration. He took a most discouraging view of public affairs generally, and entertained the most serious apprehensions of the result.

The country was drifting he knew not whither. It was fast tending to the control of a boudholding aristocracy. Before the war the slaveholders controlled the power of this government; they occupied the same attitude toward the government then that the bondholders do now, the only difference being that the power has been transferred from the South to the North. The one power came in contact with the government and it was put down by force of arms. The other power is rapidly coming in contact with the government, and it or the government must go down.

After discoursing in this vein for a short time, Mr. Johnson returned to President Grant, and referring to the war, declared that in his opinion General Grant had no military ability; he was a mere incident of the train as a baggage wagon or an ammunition train would be. Whole columns of men were massed and thrown upon the rebellion, and they crushed it out, but he denied that General Grant possessed that master spirit with which he is credited when his friends claim that he terminated the war.

Referring again to the general condition of the country, he thought the only way in which the government could be re-established on a constitutional basis was by making the Southern States a nucleus about which to form it. Power would soon develop itself in the South, and the Northwest would come in and strike hands with it as against the East and protective tariffs and kindred subjects.

He had no hope from the North, and, in his estimation, there was much more in what is called the imperialist movement than appeared upon the surface. Unless there was a speedy change, the republic would be gone; we would have either an imperialism, based upon a bonded aristocracy, or what would be worse, anarchy, and then despotism. He viewed with horror the increasing idea that all the power of this government should be centered in Congress, and especially as the present occupant of the Executive chair had not force of character to resist congressional encroachments upon the constitution. He thought, too, that danger was to be apprehended from the fact that issues of no real importance to the country were now the main topics of discussion upon the stump and elsewhere. In the district, for instance, that he represented for ten years, they formerly discussed the tariff and similar subjects; now it was nothing but Brownlowism and radicalism, nor wat it of any use to talk about constitutional requirements or constitutional obligations. In his contest with Congress he would reach for the views of the best minds of the republic upon any given subject, and present them only to be laughed at. Arguments that were conclusive to the great intellects of the country were sneered at and treated lightly by the last and preceding Congress.

Mr. Johnson continued in this strain at some length, and also had much to say of the financial condition of the country, which he thought deplorable. With regard to the election in Tennessee, he confidently expects that Senter will be elected, and he predicts a complete overturning of the present political condition of that State. Brownlow, he says, is acting with him; he says he has no confidence whatever in Brownlow; but the latter was shrewd enough to see the coming change of sentiment in Tennessee, and he has taken advantage of it.

A DIVORCE SUIT EXTRAORDINARY.—The Troy Press says that a divorce suit is about to be commenced in that city, based on most extraordinary grounds.—It seems that for several months past a young man in that city has been a boarder in the family of a man living in the lower part of the city. There was a girl living in the family—a daughter—to whom the young man paid some attentions, escorting her to the theatre and to church on one or two occasions. There had, however, been no lovemaking on either part. Some two weeks ago the father of the young lady came suddenly into the room where she and her mother were sitting, and said to her. "Go and get ready, you are going to get married in an hour." The mother confirmed the statement, and told her to go and get a lady friend of hers, living near, to stand up with her.—The girl asked to whom she was to be married. The father answered. "To Henry" (the boarder before mentioned.) The girl took it as a joke and went and got her friend. When she came back a minister was present, and in less than ten minutes she was a wife. She now seeks relief from the marital bonds. She alleges that she was so confused and surprised this on finding that her parents were in earnest that she did not know what she was about, and that she was married to the young man without her consent.

A NATIONAL TEMPERANCE PARTY.—A National Temperance Convention has been called to meet in Chicago on Wednesday, September 1st. The call, which has been circulated among the temperance societies of the different States, and extensively signed, says:

"The moral, social and political evils of intemperance, and the non enforcement of the liquor laws, are so fearful and prominent, and the causes thereof are intrenched and protected by governmental authority and party interest, that the suppression of these evils calls upon the friends of temperance; and the duties connected with home, religion and public peace, demand that old political ties and associations shall be sundered, and a distinct political party, with prohibition of the traffic in intoxicating drinks as the most prominent feature, should be organized.

"The distinctive political issues that have for years past interested the American people are now comparatively unimportant or fully settled, and in this aspect the time is auspicious for a decided and practical effort to overcome the dread power of the liquor trade.

"The undersigned do therefore earnestly invite all friends of temperance and the enforcement of law, and favorable to distinct political action for the promotion of the same, to meet in general mass convention in the city of Chicago, on Wednesday, the 1st day of September, 1869, at 11 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of organizing for distinct political action for temperance.

"All churches, Sunday schools, and temperance societies of all names, are requested to send delegates, and all persons favorable to this movement are invited to meet at the time and place above stated."

INTERNAL REVENUE DECISION.—Deputy Commissioner Douglass decides that any person who shall sell, give away or otherwise dispose of any empty cigar box or boxes which have been stamped, without first defacing or destroying the stamps, is liable to both fine and imprisonment.—The simple breaking of the stamp in opening the box is not such a destruction as the law requires. It must be effectually destroyed.

The Morning Star Bitters Co.,

HAVE determined to present their Bitters to the public, knowing that they will sustain the merits claimed for them. This is no novelty in the market, having been before the public for the last ten years, and has everywhere stood the test of the most searching scrutiny. This Medicine is accurately compounded from the purest ingredients by experienced chemists. Neither is it claimed that the ingredients were hitherto unknown to the medical profession, on the contrary the various component parts have for a long time (some for centuries) been used by the most skeptical and experienced Physicians as a Specific in cases of Dyspepsia, Poverty of the Blood, Nervous and Bilious Headache, and many diseases arising from derangement of the Digestive Apparatus. It is not claimed for this article that it will cure all diseases. In BILIOUS FEVER and CHILLS AND FEVER, its value not only as a relief, but as an actual cure, has been fully proved. It is especially recommended in all diseases resulting from an impoverished state of the Liver, such as Hepatic Congestion, Biliary Obstruction, excess of Bile, &c.

It is recommended by prominent Medical men, who though opposed in principle to all patent or proprietary Medicines, have been forced by the result of their experience with the M. S. BITTERS, to recommend its use to their patients and the general public. We append a few of their certificates:

CHURCH CREEK, Aug. 15, 1866.

Having been made acquainted with the composition of the "Morning Star Bitters," I have no hesitation in stating that they are well adapted to cases of debility of the digestive organs, in which a purely vegetable tonic is required. THOS. KING CARROLL, M. D.

NO. 230 BARRE ST., BALT., MD.

I hereby certify that for a number of years I was afflicted with Dyspepsia, it resisted all treatment and finally became so bad that I was compelled to abandon my business, regarding the case as hopeless. A persevering use of the M. S. Bitters completely removed the troubles.

SHRINER'S BALSAMIC COUGH SYRUP

Will cure the ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, BLOOD SPITTING, DIFFICULTY OF BREATHING, PAIN and WEAKNESS IN THE CHEST, TROUBLESOME COUGHING AT NIGHT, &c. It will effectually remove the Cough that frequently follows Measles, and any affection of the respiratory organs, no matter of how long standing, or whatever the age of the person. It acts as a specific, is purely vegetable, and is pleasant to the taste. Its effect is soothing, allaying the violence of the cough, facilitating expectoration, quieting the nerves and exhilirating the system.

Mothers, Save Your Children!

No child need die of CROUP, if this Syrup is used in time; this is a fact demonstrated by experience. No family should be without this Syrup, as that fatal disease, CROUP, comes like a thief in the night, to steal away your little ones, when regular medical aid cannot be obtained.

WILLIAM TREGO, Manufact'g Chemist.

LAWRENCE SANGSTON, Pres't.

This Company, incorporated by the Legislature of Maryland for the Manufacture and Sale of Fertilizers, are now prepared to furnish the agricultural community with their products.

Deriving their supply of material from the richest of the recently discovered deposits of Bone Phosphates in South Carolina, they have established, and will inflexibly maintain, a higher standard of Fertilizing value than any similar productions hitherto in the market.

While the material they use contains 60 per cent. of Bone Phosphate of Lime, it is guaranteed to contain a larger percentage of Soluble Phosphate than any heretofore used.

Fine Ground Bone Phosphates,

Price $30 per Ton in Bags.

Containing by the average of the Analysis of Professors Piggot, Leibig and Poplein, 60.20 per cent. of Bone Phosphate of Lime.

The unusual per centage of Soluble Phosphate will make this form very desirable to Farmers who prefer to use it in its natural state or to manipulate for themselves.

ALKALINE SUPER PHOSPHATE

Price $50 per Ton in Bags.

This Preparation has special reference to the growth and development of the Seed or Grain, and is intended for the soils that produce large crops of Straw, and small crops of Grain.

Ammoniated Super Phosphate,

Price $55 per Ton in Bags.

Adapted to Lands that require a full development of the crop, both Straw and Grain.

The superiority of the South Carolina Phosphate is fully demonstrated by the fact that most of the leading Manufacturers of Artificial Fertilizers are now using, or making arrangements to use it, as the Phosphatic base of their Preparations, and large quantities are being shipped to Europe.

The various preparations of the Maryland Fertilizing and Manufacturing Company are made under the personal supervision of a Manufacturing Chemist of thirty Years' experience, and are confidently recommended to the Agricultural Community.

MARY E. CUMBERFORD, versus
JOHN V. CUMBERFORD.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, June 17th, 1869.

THE object of this Bill is to procure a Divorce a vinculo matrimonii of the complainant from the defendant.

The Bill states that the complainant was lawfully united in marriage to the defendant on the fourth day of September, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, that they cohabited and lived together as man and wife from that period until the 31st of May, 1866, when the defendant abandoned the Petitioner without any sufficient cause, and that since his desertion he has in no wise contributed to the support of the Petitioner, who has not known the whereabouts of the defendant since his said desertion. The bill further states that at the time of the abandonment of the petitioner by the defendant, they lived in Kent county, Maryland, as man and wife, and since the said defendant left her house he has been guilty of adultery with other women, and has married another woman unknown to complainant.

It is thereupon by me, Jesse K. Hines, clerk of the Circuit Court for Kent County, adjudged and ordered, that complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, once in each week for four successive weeks before the 25th day of July next, give notice to said absent defendant of the object and substance of this bill; and warn him to appear in this Court by person or solicitor on or before the 26th day of December next, to answer the premises and show cause if any he hath why a Decree ought not to pass as prayed.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or anything like one; but good, honest, reliable medicine. They are

The greatest known remedies for Liver Complaint.

DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys.
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,

and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate disease of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

Hoofland's German Bitters

is entirely vegetable, and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

Hoofland's German Tonic

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in cases where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These Remedies are the best

Blood Purifiers

ever known, and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order; keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no disease will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action, in the system.

Yours truly,

GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES THOMPSON,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1868.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect,

JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD,

Eighth, below Coates street.
