VOL. 69. CHESTERTOWN MD., SATURDAY, AUGUST 31, 1907 NO. 13

A Reasonable Proposition.

The season is well advanced and we have more goods than we will carry over, and there is but one way for us to bring about the desired result; that is to fix prices at such tempting smallness as to attract the purchasing public. Hence our on all remaining summer goods. Men's, Boys', Children's weareables all go alike at our wind-up-of-the season price.

It is needless for us to mention figures on clothing as you are well acquainted with our clearance sales of the past and know the positive genuineness of them. We never indulged in that flim-flam method of marking prices up and then reducing them to a point where there is still left a great big profit. You've only to see the values offered in this sale to appreciate them.

In this sale is included the best one dollar neglige shirt in the world, full cut and guaranteed fit, 79c and so on throughout our entire store you will find the greatest bargains. STRAW HATS half price—our loss your gain.

Yours for business,

J. D. Lucas

(Opposite Stam's Hall.)

HAVE YOU EVER HEARD OF THE Ferro Engine?

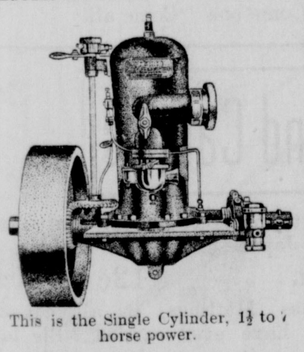
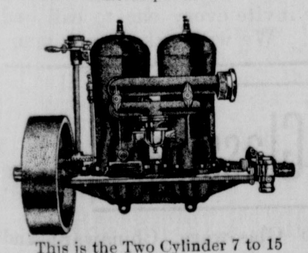
Of course you have, but probably you have never seen it work. It works. Yes, it works over time—all the time. We are putting out a number of these machines and everyone is a wonder.

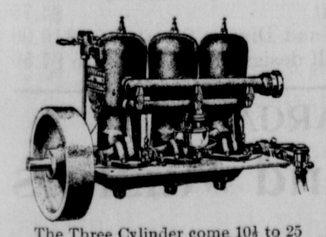
This machine oils itself automatically and runs like a clock.



This is the Single Cylinder, 1½ to 7 horse power.



This is the Two Cylinder 7 to 15 horse power.



The Three Cylinder come 10½ to 25 horse power.

This is the greatest motor yet produced. Come see it work. Get my prices. Installing done right here and all machines and work guaranteed for one year. Write for catalogue and prices.

Fire In Town.—The stable carriage house of the Chestertown ice plant, belonging to Mr. J. Arthur Bradley, in "Lynchburg," took fire last Sunday morning about 7 o'clock and was totally consumed together with several tons of hay. The implements housed therein were all saved. When first discovered the fire was in the loft and is supposed to have been caused by tramps using the loft for sleeping quarters and smoking. The building being of such an inflamable character was quickly consumed, and betore the hose could be made of service. The buckets, however, and abundant water were effective in saving the ice plant and surrounding property. The stable was insured in Mr. James G. Beck's agency for $250.

TOLCHESTER FAIR A BIG SUCCESS!

List of Premiums Awarded—Fast Racing—Big Crowds—Lovely Weather—Fine Exhibits.

20,000 PEOPLE PRESENT.

The Tolchester Fair the past week was one of the most successful in its history. Supt. Noland and Capt. Eliason handled th big crowds in a masterly manner. The weather could not have been finer and everybody had a glorious time.

On Thursday it is estimated that 20,000 persons were on the grounds it being one of the largest crowds ever at Tolchester on one day. The Louise, Emma Giles, Annapolis, Love Point, Susquehanna, Tred Avon, Maggie and Kitty Knight came loaded and hundreds were left on the wharves up the bay. There were also forty launches and yachts anchored off the resort. Besides the thousands who came by water other thousands came in vehicles of all kinds and not an accident nor disturbance has been reported.

The presence of the popular Judge Crothers and the other Democratic candidates was the feature of Wednesday.

Mrs. Thomas W. Skirven, of Fairlee, was superintendent of the household department exhibits.

Real Estate Sales.—William W. Beck and S. Scott Beck, Esqs., trustees, on Saturday sold the Henry Pipes property in Millington on Saturday for $315 to Samuel Hines. The Grover Greenwood property in Chestertown was offered for sale by J. D. Urie, Esq., attorney, and held up at a bid of $255.

THE County Commissioners of Kent and Queen Anne's have had erected, two large tubular lanterns, on Chester bridge, one on either side of the draw. This will prove a great convenience to the traveling public in crossing the bridge on dark nights.

THE Tolchester Company have decided to run their boats and to keep the noted resort open until Sept. 8th. The Louise will make her last trips to Tolchester this season on Sunday, Sept. 8th.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE.

At a special meeting of the Visitors and Governors of Washington College this week the following appointments were made:

Mr. M. J. Thompson, Waterbury, Conn., as assistant instructor in science and mathematics and instructor in the gymnasium.

Miss Florence Evelyn Monk, Albion Michigan, instructor in vocal music, drawing, piano and physical culture for Normal Department.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Lesmond Fitzgerald, of Baltimore, as steward and stewardess. It was decided to increase the mess rate charges from $2.25 tc $3. This increase is rendered absolutely necessary by the great increase in the cost of living.

The 126th session of the college will begin on September 18th, and the outlook for a prosperous term is very promising.

Miss Burchinal's resignation to take the chair in German at the Women's College, Baltimore, was accepted.

The three scholarships to Washington College, Chestertown, were awarded to Misses Bessie E. Freeny, of Hepbron, Wicomico county; Rebekah McFeely, of Chestertown, and Lois M. Leary, of Rock Hall, by the State Board of Education.

SALES WELL ATTENDED.

The present season is witnessing a large number of personalty sales and so far the attendance and prices have been fine.

The E. B. Coleman sale advertised exclusively in the NEWS was attended by a big crowd and Auctioneer Hurlock obtained fine prices. Cows sold for $25 to $40; horses $75 to $150; sheep $5.90 to $6; hogs 5 cents alive.

The public sale of Mr. John Anderson, executor of the late Patrick Anderson, at Cecilton, Md., advertised in NEWS, was very largely attended, the crowd being "simply immense," and good prices were realized. The stock in fact everything, was in excellent condition, and bidding was spirited and lively. Horses brought from $129 to $167 and colts from $36 to $100, and the cattle, which was of excellent quality and breeding brought most satisfactory prices, some of them fancy prices. It was a large public sale.

In other columns of the NEWS will be found sales of personalty and some fine stock will be sold to the public.
