Maryland Day at Jamestown Exposition

SEPT. 12 IS ALSO DEFENDERS' DAY AND "STAR SPANGLED BANNER" DAY—HISTORIC ANNIVERSARIES.

Author of "Maryland, My Maryland," to Be a Guest at the State Building—Reproduction of Charles Carroll's Famous Home Is Maryland's Edifice at the Fair. Rich Collection of Historical Paintings and Photographs Attractively Displayed.

MARYLAND DAY at the Jamestown exposition, Sept. 12, is also Defenders' day, the ninety-third anniversary of the bombardment of Fort McHenry, Sept. 12, 1814. It was on Sunday, Sept. 11, that the British fleet of seventy ships entered the Patapsco river and the next morning landed 7,000 soldiers at North Point to attack Baltimore. The story of their defeat and the death of their commander, General Ross, are matters of history, as is also the recital of their later attempt by water and subsequent repulse by the gallant patriots of Maryland. It was while temporarily detained by the British on a vessel in the river that Francis Scott Key wrote "The Star Spangled Banner." Thus Maryland day is "Star Spangled Banner" day as well as Defenders' day.

Maryland Day Programme.

The officials of the exposition and the Maryland commission have arranged a most elaborate programme to include addresses by distinguished men and the participation of the army and navy. The details were completed by Major Mallory and Lieutenant Bagby, in charge of military affairs at the exposition; Lynn R. Meekins and J. William Baughman of the Maryland commission and R. H. Sexton, director of special events.

On Maryland day, in connection with the celebration, exercises will be held in the Auditorium, at which time there will be addresses by Governor Warfield, James R. Randall of New Orleans, author of "Maryland, My Maryland;" Governor Swanson of Virginia, President Tucker and Director General Barr of the exposition and Captain Frederick M. Colton, who will also be the presiding officer.

Senator William Pinkney Whyte and Attorney General Bonaparte are also expected to be present to make short addresses. Senator Whyte will make the speech introducing Mr. Randall.

An effort is being made with some assurance of success to secure the presence on that day of Admiral Winfield Scott Schley, hero of the battle of Santiago. His old flagship, the Brooklyn, now lies at anchor off the exposition grounds.

The programme will include a number of special events for the day, including the presence of a larger number of bands than usual, a magnificent fireworks display in the evening and several free attractions on the War Path.

The railroad and steamship authorities are co-operating in arranging special rates and making preparations to handle the increased traffic.

Sept. 12 will be the biggest day at the exposition thus far.

Maryland may well be proud of having given to the nation the splendid "Star Spangled Banner," but her laurels as a song producing state do not rest upon this one grand national air alone. One of the sweetest carols of the present or past is "Maryland, My Maryland," and the whole world warbles it.

"Maryland, My Maryland."

Dear mother, burst thy tyrant's chain,
Maryland! My Maryland!
Virginia should not call in vain,
Maryland! My Maryland!
She meets her sisters on the plain.
"Sic semper!" 'tis the proud refrain
That baffles minions back amain,
Maryland! My Maryland!

The author, James R. Randall, who now lives in New Orleans, is to be the guest of the state of Maryland at the exposition for several weeks, including Old Home week and Maryland day, Sept. 12. At the exposition he will be the guest of honor, and all may have an opportunity to meet and greet him. He occupies a sure place in the affection of the people of Maryland, and they hope to persuade him to leave his New Orleans home and make his abode in "Maryland, My Maryland."

The Maryland Commission.

The fact that Maryland has made such a splendid showing at the Jamestown exposition is due to the energy and public spiritedness of the gentlemen composing the Maryland commission to the exposition and the excellent judgment of the governor in appointing these gentlemen. Each has labored faithfully in the discharge of the duty intrusted to him.

The following are the officers of the commission: Frederick M. Colston of Baltimore, chairman; Carter Lee Bowie of Baltimore, vice chairman; Douglas H. Thomas of Baltimore, treasurer; Lynn R. Meekins of Baltimore, secretary.

The executive committee is composed of the officers and Reuben Foster of Baltimore and David G. McIntosh of Towson.

Commissioner J. William Baughman of Frederick is the host of the building.

The commission as a whole is composed of the following gentlemen: Hope H. Barroll, Chestertown; Carter Lee Bowie, Collington; Oliver D. Collins, Snow Hill; Frederick M. Colston, Baltimore; Charles A. Councilman, Glyndon; S. Frank Dashiell, Dames Quarter; Richard S. Dodson, St. Michaels; Allan Farquahar, Sandy Springs; Reuben Foster, Baltimore; William W. Goldsborough, Greensboro; John H. Jamar, Elkton; David G. McIntosh, Towson; J. Martin McNabb, Macton; Seymour Mandelbaum, Baltimore; Lynn R. Meekins, Baltimore; James W. Owens, Annapolis; W. J. Price, Jr., Centerville; Jacob Rohrback, Frederick; John B. Shannon, Frostburg; John K. Shaw, Jr., Baltimore; T. Herbert Shriver, Union Mills; Palmer Tennant, Hagerstown; Douglas H. Thomas, Baltimore; George M. Thomas, Charlotte Hall; John Warfield, Baltimore; J. William Baughman, Frederick.

This list includes the names of men following the various pursuits of life, agriculture, business and the professions, and all are representative citizens of this great state.

There is an auxiliary committee of the Maryland commission composed of leading women of the state, some of them wives of former chief executives, and they have taken a deep and active interest in their state's participation at the exposition.

Mrs. John Ridgely of "Hampton," Towson, is the chairman; Mrs. Henry W. Rogers of 1416 Park avenue, Baltimore, is the secretary; Mrs. Jesse Tyson of Baltimore is the treasurer, and Mrs. Lloyd Lowndes and Mrs. E. E. Jackson complete the list.

Charles Carroll's Mansion.

After Virginia no state plays a more important part at the exposition than Maryland, and no state building can surpass hers in the plentiful and accurate reminders contained therein of her history and traditions. Contrary to the general impression, it is not Doughoregan Manor, the home of the first Lord Baltimore, which is still in a splendid state of preservation near Ellicott City, that is reproduced, but Homewood, the stately residence of Charles Carroll of Carrollton, built in 1803 on what is now Charles street, Baltimore, and belonging at present to Johns Hopkins university.

A two-year-old colt that will weigh 1,500 pounds and is well and sound is a pretty good looking proposition from the view of the fellow who has him for sale.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood.

If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghampton, N. Y., on every bottle.

IT'S UP TO YOU

Wouldn't you rather deal with a wise buyer than a shrewd seller? We have bought wisely. Our 1907 line of vehicles proves it. We can sell you a better buggy for less money than any one else. We say this without restriction or qualification. We are right here to demonstrate it. Compare our vehicles with anything offered by anyone, anywhere, any time.

Cortland Wagon Co. Vehicles

are the "Old, Original and Only" vehicles. They have been famous the world over for thirty-five years. They come nearer our idea of what high-grade vehicles should be than any line we know of. That is why we have selected them as our leaders in the high-grade line. You will be interested in looking them over. Come to us first or come to us last. We are sure that on a fair and square comparison you will come to us in the end. We make no extravagant claims—that's a catalogue house trick. We have no $75.00 buggies at $32.48. All we have to say is that we have an immense line, all new, all grades, all prices; that we can suit you in style, quality and price. That's what you are interested in. That's business.
