W. C. T. U. MEETING.

The twenty-first annual meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, of Kent County, was held at Millington on Wednesday of last week, in behalf of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, which had invited the Union to Millington, Rev. C. W. Moore, pastor of Asbury M. E. Church, extended an earnest and hearty welcome.

"Purity in Press Work" was the first topic considered. A paper entitled "Elevate the Standards of Journalism" which was sent by Mrs. W. B. Copper was read by Miss Emma C. Shafer. The paper was a plea for the promotion of purity in literature for the suppression of sensationalism and immoral details in the reports of vice and crime, and uttered a remonstrance against newspapers that carry advertisements of alcoholic liquors and pictures which should not be allowed to enter the homes. The discussion was participated in by Mesdames Clarke and Shafer.

Mrs. Emma Shafer at the Mother's Conference spoke of the rearing and training of children, taking as her subjects "The Law of the Home" and "The Discipline of the Child." A request was made that this paper be sent to the county press with the request that it be published. The paper bearing upon the Curfew Law, read by Mrs. Gertrude Moore, was heartily endorsed by the organization and others present and the paper was requested for publication.

A paper, prepared by Mrs. S. A. Hurlock, telling what the W. C. T. U. has done along the line of co-operation of parents with teachers, was read by Mrs. W. L. White. It spoke of the prizes offered Washington College and the High Schools for essays upon temperance subjects and stated than an essay written by one of the students of Washington College had won hundreds of medals and that last fall had figured in a diamond contest in far off California. Mrs. M. E. Bryan gave report of flower mission. After noontide prayer, offered by Rev. C. J. Burdelle, of Crumpton, the meeting adjourned to partake of the excellent luncheon prepared by the Home Missionary Society.

The Minister's Conference in the afternoon opened with an earnest and forceful address by Rev. C. W. Moore, followed by Rev. C. J. Burdette. Both ministers spoke hopefully of the progress of Christianity the advancement of temperance sentiment.

The subject of medical temperance was taken up by Mrs. M. S. Clarke, of Baltimore, who showed the effects of alcohol upon the body and also gave an instructive demonstration of alcohol in patent medicines and in flavoring extracts.

An inspiring feature of the session was the marching in of the pupils of the Millington school. Professor G. B. Taylor, principal of the school, gave an excellent black-board talk upon seven Bible rules, explaining the sad results of their violation. He also demonstrated the force of habit. A song and chorus by two of the pupils were well rendered. Mrs. J. C. Hackett read two touching selections. The music throughout the day was excellent.

The feature of the evening was an oratorical contest, participated in by Misses Mildred Gillespie, Esther Green, Susie Hall and Ada Hurlock. The judges were Mrs. M. S. Clarke, of Baltimore, Miss Elsie Duhamel, of Cecilton, and Mr. Harry Booker, of Sudlersville. They awarded the medal to Miss Esther Green. It was presented by Prof. Taylor in an instructive little speech to the audience and to the contestants and a few personal remarks to the happy little winner. The music during the evening was beautifully rendered.
