Trimmed Hats At $5 and $10

Charming: Distinctive: Exclusive:

One feature, above all others, forever distinguishes our Five and Ten Dollar Trimmed Hats from those you see in other stores—every hat is of our own design. Every hat has character, individuality—and there are no duplicates, nor will we make any. Exclusiveness, in a five or ten dollar hat, is something out of the ordinary, but these hats are exclusive. Every hat is intrinsically worth more than we ask for the finished product. Felt shapes are of French felt; silk shapes are of costly silk; velvet shapes are of silk velvet. Wings and other feather trimmings represent a full half of the price of the hat. It's a matter of pride, not of profit. There are on display, at this writing, over a hundred styles in trimmed hats at $10.00, and at least two hundred and fifty at $5.00—and all different, as we have said. The full extent of the season's millinery fashions is represented—well represented, you'll say when you see them,

ROCK HALL ITEMS

The oyster business here is still at a very low ebb. There are hardly sales enough to justify the tongers to attempt to sell their catch. The price for what are sold is 25 cents a bushel. A number of tongers are endeavoring to form a co-operative scheme and negotiate for a vessel to run their stock to market on freight. Several of the buyers struck it rich for a trip or two late last week but have been fearful to pay more than a quarter on the bars since. There are a few more buy boats here now, this will be a help to the tongers at least. Capt. Jackson Davis is trying to secure a freighting run at eight cents per bushel, the tongers no doubt will meet him.

The harvest is passing, the summer is ended, and many there be who are not saved into the ranks of the Sunday school and now that the snares and pit falls and other tendencies to evil are lessened with the passing of summer, a grand rally for an ingathering is being made by the management of the Rock Hall Sunday school. Officers and teachers are stirring themselves this week for recruits and hope to show up a grand result tomorrow evening when the Rally Day Services will be held. An interesting program, "The Coming Hosts," prepared by the M. E. Book Concern, will be rendered.

Mr. John McCloskey while at work on the shore one day last week struck his right knee against a cedar stump which for the instant was quite painful, he paid little attention to it, however, and now, the wound is assuming a serious aspect.

Capt. J. B. Willson suffered an attack of vertigo while at work in the field on Thursday of last week and has since been laid up, but is on the improve. The Captain seems to have a fine corn crop, a sample of which is at Durding's drug store, it measures 13 inches in length, has 18 rows of kernals and 51 kernals to the row. Let's hear from you Charley. Biscuits to dough-nuts you can't match it.

Butcher Casey has installed in his store a pair of angle lamps which for brilliancy of light without so much generation of heat are the boss lamps.

Odd Fellowship here will be enlivened by an initiation next Tuesday evening. It has been some time since the goat has had a bout with a stranger, no doubt he will be quite frisky on this occasion.

Prof. O. H. Saunders visited his mother, sister and friends at Rock Hall from Thursday until Monday when he returned to continue his teaching at the National Junior Republic, Baltimore.

Mr. Carl Norris and Miss Mary Capps, of Still Pond, spent Sunday and Monday with their friend Miss Elizabeth Saunders, Rock Hall.

Little Miss Ethel Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Johnston, of near Golts, is quite sick with typhoid fever.

Mr. Alexander T. Laws was called to Philadelphia on Saturday night last by phone that his sister, Mrs. Macomb Clayton, was seriously hurt in a trolley accident. He left on the first train on Sunday morning. He found his sister in a comatose condition and it was feared she was hurt internally, but at this writing she is greatly improved and hopes are entertained that she will soon be well.

In Memory of W. Lusby Nicholson.

At a meeting of the students of Washington College on Monday, Sept. 30, 1907, formal action was taken upon the death of Mr. Walter Lusby Nicholson, '07, and the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, Almighty God, in His infinite wisdom, deemed it best to take from us an Alumnus whose life deserves our emulation and respect, a graduate of the class of '07, who was ever zealous to advance the moral and christian character of his fellow students, was ever ready to extend a helping hand or speak a kind word to his friends and in truth was a representative man, and

WHEREAS, We feel deeply the great loss we have sustained in the death of our fellow schoolmate and friend whose life was filled with noble actions according to the principles of honesty and truth. Therefore be it

Resolved, That we extend our most sincere sympathy to the family of the deceased in their bereavement and the earnest hope that they may find consolation in their knowledge of his upright Christian life and in the fact that God is just. Furthermore, be it

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, a copy to the county papers and the Collegian.
