NEW COUNTERFEITS ON NATIONAL BANKS.—The United States Counterfeit Detector gives the following list of new counterfeits that have appeared since the first of the present month:

Third National Bank of Chicago, Ill.—10s raised from 1s. Well done. 20s, raised from 1s. First National Bank of Springfield, Ill. See gen. 1s and 20s, sixth page. 5s, imit. Farmers National Bank of Reading, Pa., reported in circulation. Look out for all Farmers' National Banks, as the town and State can be easily changed and printed from the same counterfeit plate.

5s, Jewett City National Bank, Jewett City, Conn. In the imitation the date on the deck of the ship is 1292. It should be 1492. The date 1492, on right end of the genuine bill, under the Indian Princess is left off of the imitation. The word FEB. under the engraver's name in imitation, is FER.

2s, Jewett City National Bank, Conn. The coarsest part of the bill is on the left end. The female with the stars over her head. The genuine have 16 stars in two half circles. The imitation have 23, and very indistinct.

10s, Farmers' National Bank of Amsterdam, N. Y. The letter "A" in "Amsterdam," under the words National Bank of, in the above imitation, are smaller than the other letters, and the curved line under "UNITED" runs into the shading of the "UNITED." The genuine does not.

20s, Fourth National Bank, New York City. In the battle of Lexington, on the left end of the bill, the man lying on the ground, his right foot in genuine does not touch the lower border; the imitation touches both lower and left borders.

Mutual National Bank of Troy.—10s, Imitation. Dangerous; the first letter u in Mutual is out of proportion to all the other letters. The curved line under the word "United," in imitation, extends into the shading of "United."

Auburn City National Bank, N. Y.—10s, Imitation. The shading of the words "Auburn City" in the counterfeit is all blurred and heavy; the genuine is clear and distinct.

50s. imitation. Reported in circulation.

Third National Bank of Chicago, Ill.—10s raised from 1s.

A MATRIMONIAL ITEM.—The Smyrna Times says:—We occasionally read of noteworthy events in matrimonial matters in our exchanges, and we feel called upon to note one in our own midst. The happy couple are well known and respected citizens, the groom having at one time filled the office of sheriff of the county with credit to himself and the station he occupied. The bride, by the ruthless hand of death, has been compelled to follow five husbands to the grave (all former respected citizens of this community) and don the "widow's weeds," and now Cupid, without regard to past circumstances, has hurled another fatal dart, and at the age of about 55 years she again bows at Hymen's altar, to which she is led for the sixth time, to offer herself a willing sacrifice to the god of marriage by a gentleman who has entered his 81st year. She became his second wife. In every instance, save the first, the lady has married widowers, with children, while she has remained without issue. And now, while she is childless, she has married a husband who has founded a tribe. The number of his decendants, children, grand children and great grand children, was, when last counted, just one hundred and sixty-five, and there have been a number of accessions since—nearly enough to make the number seventy, he thinks. Notwithstanding his numerous progeny, he has had but one death in his family—his first wife. We may add, with pleasure, that he is remarkably hale and healthy (as is also the bride;) weighs 210 pounds, stands nearly six feet in height and stands even higher in the estimation of his fellow citizens than he does in his boots.—May "fortune favor the brave."

NOVEL ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE.—A half-witted convict, named George Watson, employed in one of the foundries at Sing Sing prison, extemporized a thoroughly original instrument of destruction, wherewith to end his existence last Friday.—This fellow's disordered mind led him to select a piece of ordinary gas pipe, about four inches in length, in one end of which he placed a large fixed cartridge, on the breach loading principle. Holding the opposite end of the pipe to his ear with one hand, Watson took a hammer with the other, and by a violent blow on the cap exploded the singular contrivance.—Fortunately for him the blow destroyed his aim, and the bullet sped on its harmless way, while the would-be suicide was thrown to the ground by the concussion. His hallucination will doubtless be attended to.

THE REPORTED OFFER OF A FOUR PER CENT. LOAN.—The Washington republican of Monday says:

"A good deal has been said in the public prints about the presence here of an agent of the Rothchilds to negotiate for the national debt at four per cent., and it has been further stated that the said agent, Mr. Frignet, had communicated directly with the President, and that he received assurances of a character that would lead to the success of his mission by and by. This statement is unfounded. There is the best authority for denying that the President has been in correspondence with any person upon the subject."

REMARKABLE WILL.—The Hon. Rufus Dwinel, of Bangor, Maine, who died last week, was one of its wealthiest citizens, and left a remarkable will. He gave, among other boquests, $10,000, divided in different sums, to trustees to be used "merely and solely for charitable purposes;" $1,000 each to the editors of the Bangor Whig, to show his "appreciation of their valuable services in the good cause in which they are engaged, politically," and $2,000 to a friend, in proof of his "appreciation of his friendship, and not because he needs it."

POINTED.—The London Times says, in reference to Mr. Sumner's late speech before the Massachusetts Republican Convention, in which he seemed to fall back from the extreme views of his former speech relative to the English recognition of Southern belligerency, that Mr. Sumner has always been his own solitary disciple, and now seems disposed to turn renegade.

THE HARVEST IN EUROPE.—By mail from Europe we have the following resume of the harvest prospects prevailing at the great food supply centres on the 1st of October, as reported in Paris:

The accounts of the harvest in Germany are very unequal, varying in different districts from good to far below the average yield. On the whole the grain harvest of middle Germany was below the average; that of the Southern States was far better. From Austria we hear that the yield of corn is considerably smaller than in the last two years; the same is true of Roumania. The Russian harvest is stated to have been good, and the crops have nowhere failed so completely as in some places last year. The fodder is everywhere poor,, with the exception of a few mountain districts.—There has been very little clover, and both the hay and surrogate have been much injured by the unfavorable weather. On the other hand, there has been a good deal of straw. Both potatoes and beets have suffered from the heat and drought of July and the rain of August. The disease has also appeared with more or less virulence in some parts. The hopes entertained for the potato harvest are not, therefore, high; but it is said that the beet is improving. The hops are said to be in a very bad condition, partly on account of the weather and partly from the insects and the disease, which have appeared in many gardens. Scarcely a quarter of the usual yield is expected.—But little fruit has been gathered, and even what was is poor in quality. This is particularly the case with the apples and plums. Nor will 1869 be numbered among the select vintages, as the quantity is small and their quality inferior.

THE total number of graves of Union soldiers now recorded in the printed forms published by the Department amounts to about 193,000. There yet remain to be printed the records of about 120,000 graves, making an aggregate of 300,000, of which the names of 100,000 occupants will probably never be known.

THE California wheat crop exceeds all expectations in its yield, and in the absence of the usual demand for export to the Eastern States and foreign ports the market there is glutted.

HON. HORACE GREELEY, in a letter to an editor in Arkansas, contends that long continued rebel disfranchisement is impossible. There is, he says, a more excellent way, and the republicans must pioneer it; nothing is safer than magnanimity.
