WOMEN VOTE IN KENT

Three of Them Take Part in Election at Still Pond.

FOURTEEN WERE REGISTERED

Some of Those Who Didn't go to The Polls Explain Why They Let a Glorious Opportunity Pass.

An act was passed by the recent Legislature of Maryland incorporating the town of Still Pond. This act, in Section 3, provides that the legal voters of Still Pond, female included, who pay taxes and who have resided within its corporate limits six months, of the age of 21 years and upward, shall elect by ballot on the first Saturday in May, 1908, three commissioners. Accordingly, on Saturday at 2 P. M. a voting place was opened in the public school room and Dr. W. S. Maxwell, Dr. J. H. Kelley and C. B. Krusen acted as judges and Wm. Medders and Wm. Krusen clerks.

There were 75 voters registered, 12 of whom were white women and two colored. There were three ladies who availed themselves of the unusual privilege of casting a ballot. These were Mrs. Mary Jane Howard, one of the best known residents of the town; Mrs. W. S. Maxwell and Mrs. J. H. Kelley, wives of physicians and leaders of thought in the community. These ladies voted early, but two of them voted a losing ticket. Mrs. Howard was the exception as one of her candidates out of the three for whom she voted was elected. It is said that some of the men offered to write the tickets for these voters, but they refused to be influenced and voted "independently."

Mrs. Howard stated to the NEWS man that she felt very foolish going to the polls, but wanted to avail herself of the rare privilege to ascertain if there was really as much in it as the men seemed to believe.

Still Pond is the only town in Maryland where the women have the right to vote in a municipal election. Only three voted, but perhaps many were prevented from voting by a rainstorm which came up about 4 o'clock. One lady said she didn't vote because she didn't want to get her new hat spoiled. Another said she wanted te go about the time it rained and after that she had to prepare supper for the men folks. Another said that after the rain baby awoke and she was compelled to remain with him.

The election resulted in the selection of Thomas Bradley for three years, John B. Parrott for two years, and C. B. Krusen for 1 year, as commissioners. These men will make efficient officers. The board named in the bill were Chas. W. Hague, John G. Schofield and Wm. Medders.

The Baltimore Sun gave unusual prominence to this election and commented editorially in the following interesting manner:

"The election at Still Pond which occurred yesterday illustrates the difficulties in the way of female suffrage. Under a recent act of Assembly women are qualified to vote at the municipal elections in this attractive town of Kent county. It is reported that at the registration no less than a dozen women qualified as voters. But when the time came to vote only three went to the polls. One was kept away by the appearance of rain. She had recently procured her spring hat, and she could not assume the risk of getting it wet. Another found that to go to vote would interfere with the preparation of her husband's supper. But the reason which kept the third on the list from voting was the most significant of all. Just as this good woman was about to start for the polling place, the rain having ceased, the baby woke up and began to cry. That put the idea of voting out of the mother's head. The town of Still Pond might be able to get along comfortably without a woman's vote; but the baby could not get along comfortably while its mother was voting and talking politics at the polls. So, the good lady, like a good mother as she doubtless is, let the election go and took up the baby and comforted it. And that is just the reason why women suffragists do not make better headway. The women—most of them—have something far more important to occupy their time than politics. Men can attend to the voting, but they cannot attend to the baby and other duties which require the greater ability of women. It is stated in our dispatch from Still Pond, as something worth nothing, that the three ladies who voted declined masculine aid in fixing their tickets, and two of the three who voted cast their ballots on the losing side. The Still Pond election is something for the curious to study and explain.

COURT NOTES.

The Circuit Court for Kent County adjourned Friday night after the jury in the railroad case brought in a verdict of $1000 for the plaintiff. It was the case of Green vs. P. B. & W. Railroad Company suit for damages for false arrest and imprisonment, removed from Cecil county. Case consumed four days. Jury trial, William S. Evans, Omar D. Crothers, of Elkton, and Hope H. Barroll, of Chestertown, for plaintiff; L. Marshall Haines, of Elkton, and Marion deK. Smith, of Chestertown, represented the company. There were 36 witnesses in this case, 22 for the plaintiff and 14 for the defendant.

In the case Mrs. Annie T. Hayes vs. Dr. S. E. Ford it has been stated that Dr. Ford put in bath room fixtures with understanding that same be taken from rent owing Mrs. Baker, then owner of house. It seems that although this statement was made, it was not proven and Mrs. Baker had no understanding or contract about allowing for fixtures.

A commendable and pleasant feature of the adjournment of the Grand Jury has just come to light. In appreciation of the kind services and efficiency of the bailiff, Mr. Wm. H. Blakeney, he was called before the jury and presented a purse by Foreman S. Vannort in behalf of jury. Mr. Blakeney replied in a most impressive manner. The little incident will long linger in the minds and hearts of all present.

Carolene L. Hynson, surviving Executrix of Richard Hynson, deceased,
Joel C. Slaughter, Mary Slaughter

In The Circuit Court for Kent County in Equity. No. 1662.

THE OBJECT of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain mortgaged property in Kent county, in the State of Maryland, which was on the 16th day of February, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-six mortgaged by the defendant, Joel C. Slaughter and Mary Slaughter, his wife, to Richard Hynson, since deceased, of whom the complainant is the surviving executrix.

The bill states that on or about the 16th day of February in the year 1886, the said Joel C. Slaughter and wife conveyed certain real estate which is described in the mortgage of conveyance and referred to in the bill, unto the said Richard Hynson in his life time, to secure the payment of the sum of one thousand dollars with interest thereon from the 30th day of January, in the year 1886, which was then due and owing from the said Joel C. Slaughter and Mary Slaughter his wife, to the said Richard Hynson, in one year from the date thereof.

That said Richard Hynson departed this life about the month of October in the year 1899, leaving a last will and testament in which he appointed the complainant and his son, Richard D. Hynson, the executors, who have proved the same and obtained letters testamentary thereon:

That the said Richard D. Hynson has since died leaving the complainant sole executrix of said last will and testament of the said Richard Hynson.

That the legal estate in said mortgaged premises (which with all other real and personal estate of the said Richard Hynson was devised by said last will and testament to your complainant, Carolene L. Hynson, who is the widow of the said Richard Hynson) is nevertheless charged with and liable to be sold for the payment of the aforesaid debt and interest; and the said Joel C. Slaughter and Mary Slaughter both reside out of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County in Equity this 1st day of May, 1908, that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county, once in each of four successive weeks before the 1st day or June, 1908, giving notice to the said non-resident defendants of the object and substance of this bill, and warn them to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 18th day of June next to answer the premises and show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.
