SPIRITUAL WAR ON AMUSEMENTS.

Worldly Pleasures Scored In Methodists' International Conference —Applause Greets Recommendation.

By recommending to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, which is meeting at the Lyric, that amusements be combated by spiritual rather than legislative means, and that the words "Dancing, playing at games of chance, attending theatres, horse races, circuses, dancing parties or dancing schools" be stricken from Paragraph 248 of the Book of Discipline, the board of bishops caused a sensation Friday morning. The recommendation was greeted with great applause, and caused one of the two great outbreaks of the day.

The first and greatest was caused by the appeal of the bishops for the delegates to pledge "everlasting enmity to the liquor traffic." Both the appeal and the recommendation were contained in the quadrennial report of the board to the Conference, which was read by Bishop D. A. Goodsell, of Boston.

The bishops made it plain that they do not approve of these amusements, but believe that the number and kind of amusements have grown so great that the question should be left to the conscience of the people themselves, and that the opposition of the Church to amusements it regards as unwholesome may best be stated in the terms of general principles. They recommended that Paragraph 248 be changed back to its original wording, as it was in 1872, when the certain kinds of amusements were specified.

With shouts and cheers the 787 delegates pledged themselves to support the bishops in an onslaught on the saloon and liquor traffic. Every man, woman and child in the hall jumped to their feet and cheered wildly in response to the appeal of the bishops for help in the fight against the saloons contained in the report of the Bishops to the Conference. Bishop D. A. Goodsell made the appeal in a most effective manner.

As the enthusiasm grew, men and women waved their handkerchiefs, giving the hall the appearance of a sea of white.

Started To Sing "America."

Suddenly one of the delegates started to sing "America." In an instant the great crowd caught up the hymn, and it was sung with a heartiness and will that made people passing along down Mount Royal and Maryland avenues stop and gaze in amusement. As the last refrains ceased some one began the hymn "Glory, Glory, Hallelujah." The new outlet for the enthusiasm, which seemed to be growing, was eagerly seized, and to the tune of "John Brown's Body" verse after verse was sung, until the singers were tired out.

Severely Condemned.

The outbreak came after a particularly severe condemnation of the liquor interests. The report said:

"There ought not to be—nay, there must not be—any reaction from the wrath with which all good and Christian citizens pursue this sneaking, law-breaking and murderous traffic. It deserves neither charity nor mercy. There is no law it will obey, no pledge it will honor, no child it will not taint, no woman it will not defile, no man it will not degrade. It feeds upon dishonesties of conduct and on the shame of brothels. It stimulates all revenge and makes the murderer dance upon the body he has killed. It falsely claims to be a great public interest, because it employs thousands and pays heavy taxes. But no money in the pockets of the employees and no taxes in the treasury of the city, county, State or nation can balance the monetary losses of the nation through this traffic. No profits, however real imagined, can compensate for the corruption of our politics, the emptiness of the drunkard's home or the fullness of the prisons and graves. Will you rise here, and now, with the bishops, pledge eternal enmity to this foe of man and God?"

Another feature of the morning was the offering of a resolution calling on Congress to prohibit the shipment of intoxicating liquors into prohibition territory by Gov. J. Frank Hanly of Indiana. It was seconded by Gov. E. W. Hoch, of Kansas. Both men used strong terms in condemning the demon rum.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving rememberance of our dear father, William Darrell, who departed this life March 14th, 1908.

We watched his breathing through the night,
His breathing soft and low,
As in his breast the wave of life
Kept beating to and fro.
Daughter Rosa.

Through suffering he breathed not a murmur,
For the Comforter stood by his side,
And said, "Fear Not, I am with thee,
With Me thou shalt ever abide."
Son William.

Our very hopes belied our fears,
Our fears our hopes belied,
We thought him dying when he slept,
And sleeping when he died.
Daughter Elsie.

Rest on dear father, thy labors o'er,
Thy willing hands will toil no more,
O faithful father, both true and kind,
A truer father you could not find.
Daughter Veda.

Dear father you will never be forgotten,
Never shall your memory fade,
Sweetest thoughts will ever linger,
Around the grave where you are laid.
Son Norman.

Dearest father we have laid thee,
In the peaceful grave's embrace,
But the memory will be cherished,
Till we see thy heavenly face.
Daughter Susie.

Tis hard to break the tender cord,
When love has bound the heart,
Tis hard, so hard to speak the words,
Must we forever part?
Son Boyd.

Order of Publication.

Carolene L. Hynson, surviving Executrix of Richard Hynson, deceased, versus
Joel C. Slaughter, Mary Slaughter

In The Circuit Court for Kent County in Equity. No. 1662.

THE OBJECT of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain mortgaged property in Kent county, in the State of Maryland, which was on the 16th day of February, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-six mortgaged by the defendant, Joel C. Slaughter and Mary Slaughter, his wife, to Richard Hynson, since deceased, of whom the complainant is the surviving executrix.

The bill states that on or about the 16th day of February in the year 1886, the said Joel C. Slaughter and wife conveyed certain real estate which is described in the mortgage of conveyance and referred to in the bill, unto the said Richard Hynson in his life time, to secure the payment of the sum of one thousand dollars with interest thereon from the 30th day of January, in the year 1886, which was then due and owing from the said Joel C. Slaughter and Mary Slaughter his wife, to the said Richard Hynson, in one year from the date thereof.

That said Richard Hynson departed this life about the month of October in the year 1889, leaving a last will and testament in which he appointed the complainant and his son, Richard D. Hynson, the executors, who have proved the same and obtained letters testamentary thereon;

That the said Richard D. Hynson has since died leaving the complainant sole executrix of said last will and testament of the said Richard Hynson.

That the legal estate in said mortgaged premises (which with all other real and personal estate of the said Richard Hynson was devised by said last will and testament to your complainant, Carolene L. Hynson, who is the widow of the said Richard Hynson) is nevertheless charged with and liable to be sold for the payment of the aforesaid debt and interest; and the said Joel C. Slaughter and Mary Slaughter both reside out of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County in Equity this 1st day of May, 1908, that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county, once in each of four successive weeks before the 1st day or June, 1908, giving notice to the said non-resident defendants of the object and substance of this bill, and warn them to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 13th day of June next to answer the premises and show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.
