DIRECTLY OPP. COURT HOUSE

Chestertown, - - Maryland

THE Kent County Teachers' Institute will be held in Chestertown beginning Sept. 7th. Dr. T. H. Lewis will lecture in Stam's Hall Monday night, September 7th. Mrs. J. H. Shuster will direct the singing now being rehearsed by a large chorus. The full program will appear in the NEWS next week. Prof. Melvin has a treat in store for the teachers and visitors.

Centreville Wins At Bowling.—A Chestertown bowling club consisting of Messrs. Thomas Kibler, Raymond Noland, Walter Carson, Dave Connelly and Frank Clay went to Centreville Tuesday and played a match game of ten and duck pins. Centreville won on the number of pins knocked down, but Chestertown won the majority of games. The Centreville team will come to Chestertown next Tuesday night to play a return game.

At the thirteenth annual session of the Maryland State Camp, P. O. S. of A., W. J. B. Lofland of Warwick, Md., was elected State Conductor to serve for the ensuing year.

Weddings.—Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Rachel E. Copper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Copper, of Lynch's, to Mr. Edward F. Crowding, of Still Pond, Md.

Mrs. Mary E. Cannon, a well-known resident of Quaker Neck, and Mr. T. Eugene L. Neal, equally as well known, were married at Centreville M. P. parsonage on Thursday, August 6th, by Rev. E. D. Stone. They will reside in Quaker Neck.

Word has been received of the marriage of Miss Mary Galbraith, of Philadelphia, to Mr. Crawford Jones. The bride and groom are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Jones, Sr., Earleville.

AMUSEA opened Saturday. The room has been improved and chairs added so that visitors can more thoroughly enjoy the interesting pictures. Mr. L. B. Russell is manager of the Amusea.

THE TOLCHESTER FAIR

Rain Spoils Races on Two Days But Superintendent Noland Bunches the Sport Thursday and Friday—Exhibits Larger and Better Than Ever Before.

The Kent, Queen Anne's and Cecil County Fair began at Tolchester Beach Tuesday and at the same time the rain began to pour and the races had to be postponed until Thursday.

Superintendent G. E. Noland made a valiant effort to have the horse racing Tuesday. It was scheduled to start at 2 p. m., but at that hour a steady rain was falling. It was then announced by Presiding Judge H. W. Burress that the hour for starting would be postponed until 4 p. m. At 2 p. m. the track was safe, but by 4 p. m. sufficient rain had fallen to make the going too deep for racing. The races were then declared postponed.

The tricounty fair this season was larger, better, more complete in every detail and the exhibits of more excellent quality and more attractively displayed than in any previous season.

Those who visited the household department found much to interest and entertain them, and as the rain put a damper on the outdoor attractions, visitors spent plenty of time in the indoor departments.

The attendance during the unfair weather has been remarkable and only proved that the Fair this year would have been a record-breaker.

A most interesting exhibit, which is for exhibition, but not for competition, is that made by the Chestertown High School. It is one of the best displays in the main exhibition hall. Mr. Owen C. Blades, the instructor, has charge of the display.

The exhibit consists of oak chairs in Colonial pattern, mission footstools, tea tables, a center table in the mission style, a hall chair, tabourettes, burned and decorated; scrap baskets and stands. These have a background of well executed drawings and paintings.

Stieff pianos and self-players furnish music in the main hall. Flowers and plants, exhibited by Mrs. R. Barnes and Mrs. W. Skirven, of Chestertown, make a most pleasing effect at the main entrance of the hall. This is flanked by a creditable exhibit of woodwork, made at Rock Hall School.
