MOODY & LUSBY | MOODY & LUSBY.

WE have on exhibition at our establishment the largest, best selected and most economical line of Men's Suits ever displayed n Chestertown. This means considerable to all prospective buyers when you stop and think that we have always been recognized leaders when the question of LARGE ASSORTMENT and MINIMUM PRICES are considered. Now we modestly assert that we have outdone all our previous records, and in order to FULLY convince yourselves that our claims are correct—

Compare

our $8.50 Suits with the $10.00 ones you see; our $10.00 ones with the $12.00 some ask you; the $12.50 ones beside same we see sold for $15.00, &c., and the verdict we'll leave to you.

Boys and Children's

SUITS in like Proportion. Sold precisely the same way.

Hats AND Caps

and Furnishings all complete

Respectfully,

WEDDING NOTES.

FORD—HALL.

A pretty wedding took place at noon Wednesday when Miss Frances Weale Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hall, were married to Mr. Stephen Hyland Ford at St. Michael and All Angels' Protestant Episcopal Church, Baltimore. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Gardiner Murray, assisted by Rev. D. P. Allison. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father. by whom she was given in marriage, and was met by the groom, attended by his best man, Mr. Garnet Wood Denmead. She wore a handsome gown of white ivory satin, trimmed with duchess and point lace, her only ornament being an amethyst necklace, the gift of her mother. Her tulle veil was caught with a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley. She was attended by Miss Helen Yakel, as maid of honor, who wore a white net gown, hand-embroidered, with a white picture hat, and carried a bouquet of white roses and maiden-hair fern. The bridesmaids, Misses Beatrice Yakel and Ethel Shriner, wore white broadcloth gowns, with large white hats, and carried large bouquets of maiden-hair fern. The ushers were Messrs. John H. Elliott and Dr. John Roberts Caulk.

The ceremony was followed by a breakfast at the home of the bride, 14 East Twenty-second street. The parlor was prettily decorated with palms and white dahlias, and in the dining room the center piece was of white lilies and smilax. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Ford left for a trip, and upon their return will spend the winter at 14 West Twenty-second street. The bride is related to some of the most prominent Maryland families. Through her mother, she is a direct descendant of Mrs. Franklin Chase, who was arrested as a spy during the Mexican war, and who waved the flag, from a house top, which gave the Americans possession of the city. The groom is a direct descendant of Sir Charles Ford, of Abeysford, England, and of Col. Stephen Hyland, of Revolutionary fame. Among the out-of-town guests present at the wedding were: Fords Landing, Md.—Mrs. Stephen H. Ford and Miss Susie S. Ford. Massey, Md.—Mrs. Herman Biddle Massey.

KERR—BLACKISTON.

The wedding of Miss Edith H. Blackiston and Capt. Edw. F. Kerr, of Baltimore, took place in Baltimore on Wednesday, October 7th, 1908. They will be at home after Oct. 21 at 2510 Woodbrook Ave., Baltimore.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Washington College students have settled down to the regular curriculum and are doing good work. They are a fine body of Collegians.

The Adelphia Literary Society has organized with the following officers:

President—Albert DeW. Mackey.
Vice-President—Edward C. Crouch.
Recording Secretary—J. Leo Brown.
Corresponding Secretary—James M. Cain.
Chaplain—James W. Johns.
Sergeant-at-Arms—Underwood R. Kelly.
Critic—Albert H. Porter.
Historian—Fred. B. Sylvester.
Treasurer—William A. Holt.

The debate last Saturday night was on the Tariff and proved quite interesting.

The Mt. Vernon Society has captured most of the new students up-to-date and has the following corp of excellent officers:

President—W. Raymond Moody.
Vice-President—L. Robert Langsdale.
Recording Secretary—Rusken B. Warren.
Corresponding Secretary—Ben. A. Johnson.
Treasurer—Purnell J. Johnson.
Sergeant-at-Arms—Leon H. Jones.
Critic—J. Roy Baden.
Historian—E. Franklin Maddox.

The Christian Association met in Smith Hall Sunday and elected the following officers:

President—Roy Baden.
Vice-President—F. R. Davis.
Secretary—Roland Crew.
Treasurer—Martin Voss.
Chorister—Miss Chappe.

The following new students were enrolled last week:

Sallie Elizabeth Dashiell, Princess Anne, Md.
Norman Elmer Smith, Salisbury, Md.
John Newell Graham, Pocomoke City, Md.
Isaac Newell Morton, Easton, Md.

Miss Chappel, the teacher of music, is proving a success. She expects to drill the Glee Club in a few weeks and the outlook is for a fine chorus.

The Baltimore City College football team will play our boys this Saturday afternoon. A shake-up in the backs are contemplated and some faster runners put in.

The first Track events were held Thursday afternoon in charge of Coach Thompson and Mr. Breeding, resulting as follows: one-quarter mile run, won by Jump in 58 seconds; one mile by Krantz in 5 minutes 8 seconds; one-half mile by Simmonds, 2.45; 220 yards and 100 yards each by Buckley in 24 and 10 seconds, respectively; high jump, won by Carle Bordley, 4 feet 8 inches.

Shipping Corn.—Mr. William Archibald, agent for W. G. Hill, has bought and shipped five cars of corn on the cob this week.

Mr. A. S Crawford, agent for A. S. Turner, is loading several cars with new corn at Chestertown, for which he paid 60 cents per bushel.

President's Day Reception.—Last Saturday, being the first Saturday in October, the Womans Literary Club of Chestertown held its fourth annual President's Day reception. The invitations this year were limited to fiftysix each member sending four, with her card enclosed. The officers of the club received the guests, dainty refreshments were served and a pleasant time spent by all.

Announcements.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Nina Virginia, to Mr. Fred Alfred Burt on Wednesday, Oct. 21, at high noon, in Bond M. E. Church Pomona. They will be at home after Dec. 1st., at Mannington, W. Va.

THE erection of a building for use of the Chestertown Fire Company has become an imperative necessity and we are sure every citizen will respond heartily to the request for help in building same. If these young men are willing to give their time and labor to the cause, certainly the owners of property which they protect, should aid in furnishing them a place of meeting, &c.
