WE

have on exhibition at our establishment the largest, best selected and most economical line of Men's Suits ever displayed in Chestertown. This means considerable to all prospective buyers when you stop and think that we have always been recognized leaders when the question of LARGE ASSORTMENT and MINIMUM PRICES are considered. Now we modestly assert that we have outdone all our previous records, and in order to FULLY convince yourselves that our claims are correct—our $8.50 Suits with the $10.00 ones you see; our $10.00 ones with the $12.00 some ask you; the $12.50 ones beside same we see sold for $15.00, &c., and the verdict we'll leave to you.

Compare

Boys and Children's

SUITS in like Proportion. Sold precisely the same way.

Hats AND Caps

and Furnishings all complete

Respectfully,

Mrs. Rachel B. Taggart, (nee Ringgold), of Kent county, Md., having recently returned from a two years sojourn in Raton, New Mexico, had the pleasure of entertaining a number of friends on her eighty-fourth birthday at the residence of her daughter Mrs. Rosalie M. Schuyler, Betterton, on October 5th.

Messrs. Samuel Vannort, Dr. G. A. Jarman and Hynson Rogers, were elected delegates to the Convention of Democratic Clubs to meet in Baltimore, on Tuesday, Oct. 27, from the Chestertown club but the meeting is recalled to give place of more important meetings.

Mrs. W. C. Peregoy, who with Mrs. H. H. Klinefelter, Mrs. W. L. White and Miss Eunice Lambert attended the Woman's Foreign Missionary Convention in Baltimore, returned home last Saturday and has since made a very enjoyable visit to the Rev. and Mrs. Fooks, of Kennedyville, the latter being a niece of Mrs. Peregoy.

Miss Mary A. Brown, teacher of Cliff City public school, has been quite sick for two weeks.

Mr. John Hudson, of Galena, was a visitor to Chestertown this week for the first time in 33 years. Mr. Hudson is the man who was arrested in Galena charged with hoisting a Confederate flag and during the eighteen days of his imprisonment friends sent him at least $1,000! He says it was more money than he has made since. After his 18 days he was drafted and it took nearly all he had to buy a substitute. The flag he hoisted was made by ladies of Galena, all of whom are dead but one.

Miss Minnie E. Hicks, of Chestertown, has accepted a position as literary teacher in the Maryland School for the Blind, in Baltimore. This is the institution in which this lady graduated. She assumes her new position on Monday next.

Cupid Disrupting Schools.—Blaming the scarcity of school teachers upon the many marriages that have taken place among them in Delaware the last year, many school boards are vainly searching for instructors with which to continue their winter terms. Last week the Lewes Board decided to enlarge the school, divide certain grades and engage another teacher. But this week they found that they could not find a teacher in the county who was open to an engagement. Several were approached, but all declined with embarassing smiles, hinting that they would not be at liberty to [illegible] a month or so from now, and that [illegible] the place only to [illegible] was

Live Local Notes.

THE Japanese Tea and Flower Show at the home of Mrs. H. H. Barroll was a grand success yesterday. It will be concluded today. All are welcome. The proceeds are for benefit of Chestertown Improvement Association.

Contract Awarded.—The County Commissioners Tuesday awarded the contract for a new bridge over the stream near Swan Creek school to W. T. Pippin for $715. The other bidders were J. A. Myers, 775; Marion Coleman, $800.

Telephone Changes.—Mr. J. H. Nichols, of Port Deposit, has been recalled to Chestertown as superintendent of the Telephone Company here, and Mr. Earle Latham will have charge of the cable department with headquarters at Dover. All new contracts will be made at the rate of $24 for house phones and $36 for office phones.

Tomato Yields.—A fine crop of tomatoes averaging 10 tons to the acre, was raised on the farm of John I. Lockwood, Jr. near Chesterville. Some of the shippers from Gale's and Buck Neck averaged about 15 tons to the acre on six and ten acres! Broad Neck farmers also picked ten and twelve tons to the acre. Mr. Jacob Shriley says he had to leave at least five tons unpicked because of no market.

Appointed to Position.—Marion Dawson, a Cheswold farmer, has arisen to sudden fame for a Delaware farmer. Mr. Dawson, during the last year, has devoted much of his time to organizing granges of the Patrons of Husbandry, chiefly because he became attached to the order since joining the Rural Grange at Cheswold. He kept at it during the past year, until he had set up twenty-six granges of most desirable membership and in thrifty farming communities on the Delaware-Maryland peninsula. Mr. Dawson was surprised on returning to his home to take up his regular duties, to find a telegram from the National Master appointing him a Deputy National Master, assigning him to permanent work as an organizer throughout the United States, beginning in Wisconsin on Monday, and at a fine salary.

Announcements.—Mrs. Mollie F. Crew, of Betterton, has issued invitations to the wedding of her son, Leonard M. Crew, to Miss Emma M. Simpler, of Baltimore, to take place on Wednesday, Nov. 4, at the home of Mrs. Crew.

The engagement was announced Saturday of Miss Edna Dick, daughter of ex-State Auditor George H. Dick, and Robt. D. Hoffecker, editor and publisher of the Smyrna Times. The date for the wedding is not given.

The marriage of Miss Anne H. Stam, daughter of Mrs. A. H. Stam, of Chestertown, and Dr. R. S. Hooker, of Philadelphia, is announced to take place Nov. 14, 1908. No cards in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Lawton gave a beautifully arranged luncheon Wednesday afternoon at their home, 1605 Park Place, Baltimore, to announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Henrietta T. Lawton, to Mr. John Thomas Morris, formerly of Kent. Mr. Morris is the son of Mrs. Lydia Morris, of St. Inigoes, St. Mary's county, and belongs to a well-known family. He was graduated from the law school of the University of Maryland in 1901 and was later admitted to the bar. He is now a practicing attorney in Baltimore.

The Jamestown Morning Post, New York, says:

"Mrs. William F. Endress and Mrs. Thomas C. Peterson entertained yesterday afternoon from 3 to 6 P. M., at the Endress residence, 500 Pine Street, in honor of Mrs. Peterson's sister, Miss Abby Van Buren Wright, of Chestertown, Md. The reception was attended by a large number of ladies. The handsome residence was further beautified for the occasion with sunflowers, autumn foliage, gladioli, asters and ferns, in great profusion and artistic arrangement.

"During the afternoon, the engagement of Miss Wright, the daughter of Samuel L. Wright, of Chestertown, Md., to Lieutenant William Fitzhugh Endress, son of Colonel and Mrs. William F. Endres, was announced. A pleasant feature of the reception was music by Bratt's Orchestra. A dainty luncheon was served in the serving room, which was trimmed in green and white.

"Among the guests were Mrs. W. H. Lowry and daughter, of Buffalo, who were also members of the receiving party."
