MOODY & LUSBY | MOODY & LUSBY.

WE

have on exhibition at our establishment the largest, best selected and most economical line of Men's Suits ever displayed in Chestertown. This means considerable to all prospective buyers when you stop and think that we have always been recognized leaders when the question of LARGE ASSORTMENT and MINIMUM PRICES are considered. Now we modestly assert that we have outdone all our previous records, and in order to FULLY convince yourselves that our claims are correct—

Compare

our $8.50 Suits with the $10.00 ones you see; our $10.00 ones with the $12.00 some ask you; the $12.50 ones beside same we see sold for $15.00, &c., and the verdict we'll leave to you.

Boys and Children's

SUITS in like Proportion. Sold precisely the same way.

Hats AND Caps

and Furnishings all complete

Respectfully,

Moody & Lusby

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Brown returned from their wedding trip on Saturday and are now at home at Radcliffe Hall, near town.

Mr. Donald Stam passed a very successful examination before the State Pharmacy Board last week and has taken a position with the Stam Drug Co.

Mrs. Charles Colladay, of Baltimore, visited her parents in town this week.

The Baltimore Star, one of Baltimore's afternoon papers, in a recent issue, gives a complimentary description of the well-known piano and organ firm of Sanders & Stayman, represented in this section by Mr. Warren C. Hurlock, of Chestertown. The article pays a just compliment to Mr. G. Wright Nichols, of near town.

The promotions for the year in the battalion of cadets of Charlotte Hall Military Academy, St. Mary's county, were made by the faculty on the 19th. Mr. A. H. Stavely, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Stavely, of Lynch's, this county, was promoted to Captain of Company B.

Mr. Blackiston Wroth, a graduate of Washington College, is substituting as teacher of the Cliff City school during the absence of Miss M. A. Brown, who has been sick for several weeks.

Miss Edna R. Downey acted as bride's maid at the wedding of Miss E. Douise Foard, of Lydhurst, Catonsville, which took place at "The Christian Temple," Fulton avenue, Baltimore, on Thursday, November 12th.

Mrs. J. D. Burris, of Quaker Neck, who was operated on last Thursday at the Maryland University Hospital, Baltimore, by Prof. Randolph Winslow, is doing well. We hope she will soon be able to return to her home.

Miss Elsie M. Crew, of Baltimore, is visiting her cousin, Miss Bessie Burris, of Quaker Neck.

Mr. James Wood, of Wilmington, Del., was a welcome caller at the NEWS office last week. He is 87 years of age and is well and hearty.
