SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1909.

BRIDGING the Bay is regarded as "mill-pond work" by the engineers who have been looking into the matter. They say the whole scheme is entirely feasible. Then, let it be done, and all of this section will be several hours nearer Baltimore.

SINCE the issue of last week's NEWS advocating that the coming legislature extend the term of Chief Judge Pearce, many of our best citizens have assured us that this should be done by all means as Kent county, the Judicial Circuit and the whole State cannot afford to lose the services of such a judge.

THE appointment of Hon. J. Frank Turner as State's Attorney for Talbot county to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Congressman Covington is a proper recognition of Mr. Turner's ability as a lawyer and tireless energy as a good citizen. He has filled many official positions in State and county and always with great credit.

THE Fleet is coming home! With the bands on board playing "Home, Sweet Home "the fleet of 16 battleships under Rear-Admiral Sperry left Gibraltar last Saturday for Hampton Roads on the last lap of its famous around-the-world cruise of 45,000 miles. They will follow the southern route to Hampton Roads, a distance of 3,600 miles, and about 1,000 miles off the American coast they will be met and escorted home by the third squadron of the Atlantic fleet under Rear-Admiral Arnold, arriving here February 22nd. There'll be a big time at old Point on that day.

WHAT a sad home-coming it will be for Capt. Edw. F. Qualtrough, of the battleship Georgia! And all because of that cursed stuff—rum. He has been found guilty by court martial of being intoxicated while on duty and has been suspended from duty for six months, with an additional punishment of the loss of 10 numbers in rank.

Captain Qualtrough has been detached from the fleet and ordered home. He goes as a passenger on the Georgia. Lieut.-Com. George W. Kline, who was placed in command of the Georgia, will continue in command on the homeward journey.

WHERE'S THE HARM?—Three thousand people attended a performance at the Lyric in Baltimore last Sunday. The people paid the admission and enjoyed the fun and now they want to know where's the harm? In the first place it was a plain violation of law. And if the Lyric can be allowed to do business on the Sabbath then every other business house may just as reasonably ask to do the same. There is neither more sense or right in the Lyric keeping open house on Sunday than for Ford's or Kernan's or Holliday street. It is the elephant's foot creeping into the people's sacred rest day; allow that dirty paw to remain and its whole body will soon be in and the Sabbath destroyed.

BALTIMORE CITY is greatly concerned about her legislative representation—and justly so. There is no trouble about it. The counties will be fair to the city in this as they have always been. But it is a little tiresome to hear so much of what the city does and the counties do not. How much better would it be if our great city would rejoice more in her exceeding wealth and prosperity and her ability to do all that she is called upon for, rather than to be continually making "odious comparisons" with the counties. So much of this thing almost indicates a disposition upon the part of the city to build a brick wall around its sacred precincts and shut out their country cousins altogether.

AN INTERESTING LETTER.

Mr. Fred. W. Quantz, formerly superintendent of the Chestertown strawboard mill, and now successfully managing an independent mill at Vincennes, Ind., writes the following personal business letter to the NEWS. Because of its interest to the people of Chestertown we are sure Mr. Quantz will take no offence at its publication:

"Gentlemen—Enclosed you will find check covering subscription for the Kent News to Dec. 24th 1909. The Kent News is a welcome weekly visitor to one who is interested in Chestertown and its people. I shall always feel a keen interest in the people among whom I so long dwelt.

I am sorry of the failure to get a good supply of water for fire protection, but I always thought it a mistake to assume the risk of spoiling the fine water you had for domestic use by other sources of water of unknown quality.

"It would have been better to have put in an independent pumping station (gasoline) near the river and run an independent pipe line up the main street, with branches running from it to other points, which were to be protected, as this would have given you an unlimited water supply for fire and sprinkling purposes, at less cost and it would avoid many standing expenses which will have to be met in maintaining a pressure system, and the fact that the water supply for domestic purposes was limited, and the possibility of spoiling it should have made the people hesitate before deciding to take the risk of spoiling it. I think it was a mistake to try what was tried if I understand it correctly.

I was pained to learn of Mr. Aldridge's death, as I esteemed him highly as a personal friend. With best wishes, I am

Yours resp't,
F. W. QUANTZ."

THE Merry Widow hat has been discarded by society.

IT is said that the Game Commission will recommend a tax on dogs, a tax on gunners, forbidding gunning from a motor boat and a uniform game law for the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

MARY H. BURCHINAL.

Miss Mary H. Burchinal died at the home of her brother-in-law, Marion deKalb Smith, Esq., Sunday night, in her 79th year. The deceased had been in failing health for over a year and passed quietly away without any seeming suffering. She was a sister of the late Capt. Wm. D. Burchinal and is survived by one brother, Mr. J. Burton Burchinal, and one sister, Mrs. Smith. She had been a welcome member of Mr. Smiths' household for more than thirty years, and was especially endeared to the son and daughter and to the other members of the family. She was a faithful and devoted member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and exemplified her belief in her daily walk. Miss Mary was a good woman and her demise removes a beloved member of this community. The funeral was held Wednesday from Mr. Smith's residence, interment in Chester Cemetery; undertaker Charles L. Dodd in charge.

J. HENRY COVINGTON.

J. Henry Covington, a prominent man of Queen Anne's county, died at his home, at Ford's Store, on Tuesday. He came to Queen Anne's from Baltimore about 30 years ago, and for several years made his home in the vicinity of Church Hill. About 25 years ago he removed to Ford's Store, where he has since resided. He never married. He represented Queen Anne's county in the Legislature in 1908.

The calender year of the Kent county Mutual Fire Insurance Company closed December 31, 1908. The company has had a good year's business at a very low cost of insurance.

THE CLOSING STATEMENT SHOWS:

|---|---|
| First that its total income was... | $14,371.00 |
| Second its total loss by fire and expenses.... | 3,976.00 |
| Third its excess of income over all loss and expenses..... | 10,315.00 |

In other words it has only cost the insured about ¼ of the premiums paid to carry their insurance. At the same time the company has returned to its Policy Holders whose policies have been cancelled the sum of $3,748.00. During the past 8 years the company has returned to its policy holders over $36,000.00.

Its policies, 12 years old show to their credit nearly 40 per cent. of all payments to the company.

Aldridge, checks amounting to $272.50, representing the balance due his estate on two polices of insurance taken out in 1896—on the store building recently sold.

A few weeks ago the Company returned to Mr. Wilbur Hurlock, executor, over $400 balance due estate of S. R. Hurlock, on insurance policies.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Other names have been added to the "official" list of local candidates this week.

Friends of Mr. J. Elwood Morris also announce his candidacy for clerk but we have received no official notice to that effect.

Ex-Sheriff Andrew Medders visited the First district this week and announced his candidacy for the nomination of Sheriff as he drew the bow over his Democratic fiddle and made sweet music for the young folks.

It is reported that Mr. Benjamin Crew will be a candidate for County Commissioner from the Third District in the coming primaries and that Mr. John E. Morris will be his rival.

Under the new Primary Law it is said upon good authority all officials will have to run through the county.

Mr. W. W. Clayton, of Rock Hall announces that he is a candidate for sheriff subject to the Democratic primaries.

Mr. John W. Hirons, of Chestertown, has been announced as a candidate for Town Commissioner at the ensuing election.
