IMPORTANT TO FARMERS

Manufacture your own stock foods as you need them. No trouble, it saves expense by mixing a small quantity of Fairfield's Blood Tonics with the animals' regular ration. A separate tonic compounded to meet the peculiar requirements of each kind of animal, put up in concentrated form gives greatest results at less cost than the old style and obsolete method of putting up cure-all stock preparations.

MR. CHARLES S. SMITH writes: "It gives me pleasure to inform you that I am now using your Egg Producer and am thoroughly satisfied with the results. I find that it is a good investment and heartily recommend it."

MR. WILBUR ELIASON tells us that his hogs would always become infected with cholera whenever it would appear in the neighborhood. Last fall cholera was on all sides of his farm and he did not have one hog taken sick while in former years he would lose all. He attributes this great fortune to the regular feeding of FAIRFIELD'S BLOOD TONIC FOR HOGS ONLY.

MR. C. C. BROWN, of Pomona, says that he tried for fourteen years to raise ducks, but they always died at the "feathering age." For the past two years he has used FAIRFIELD'S TONIC FOR POULTRY ONLY and raised every duck after he had started feeding this wonderful preparation.

MR. D. B. McMENAMIN, who has tested the merits of FAIRFIELD'S BLOOD TONIC FOR HORSES ONLY says beyond a doubt it is the best preparation of the kind he has ever used. There are scores of others in this county that endorse these meritorious preparations. They are compounded scientifically to meet the peculiar requirements of each animal. You do not run the slightest risk in purchasing these Tonics for if they do not do all that is claimed for them we cheerfully refund your money.

APRIL TERM OF COURT.

Chief Judge Pearce Delivers a Strong Charge to Grand Jury, Capt. C. E. Crane, Foreman, on Observance of Corrupt Practices Act And How Juries Are Drawn—Cases Tried.

The April term of the Circuit Court for Kent county was convened Monday morning with Chief Judge James A. Pearce on the bench. Associate Judges Adkins and Hopper arrived on the eleven A. M. train and took their respective seats beside Judge Pearce. The following Grand Jury was drawn:

Curtis E. Crane, Foreman;	Robert R. Hill,
Samuel F. Cooper,	Frank Crow,
Harry Cacy,	JAmes A. Casey,
James S. Bradley,	Purnell Jefferson,
Samuel Mann,	Wm. H. Cacy,
W. Frank Jarrell,	Harry Rash,
J. Page Gale,	James Bramble,
A. W. Carmine,	J. Leonard Price,
Virgel W. Kendall,	A. Wilson Cochran,
Jesse E. Ireland,	Claude F. Parks,
Joseph R. Usilton,	Frederick H. Cornelius,
	Thomas Rasin,

The Petit Jury is composed of the remainder of the spring panel and is as follows:

Samuel W. Wallis,	Vachell Burgess,
Lambert W. Ford,	Harry S. Dempsey,
Samuel Burgess,	James Brice
Frank X. Kraft,	Albert W. Hudson,
Joseph Brice,	Thomas L. Meeks,
C. Frank Wheatley,	Chas. A. Jessop,
J. Romie Byron,	Harry Nicols,
George W. Atwell,	John S. Newnam,
John Brice,	Charles M. Hurtt,
Howard Turner,	Wm. F. Stoops,
Edward W. Emory,	Walter U. Lusby,
Samuel G. Lee,	James L. Leary,
Frisk H. Ward,

Chief Judge Pearce in his characteristic impressive manner addressed the Grand Jury as follows:

Once before during the period I have been on the bench I took occasion to refer to the provisions of the law regulating the drawing of juries, because I had reason to believe that they were not fully understood by those from whom the jurors were drawn. This imperfect understanding I have reason to believe still exists, and as one of the most experienced judges of the State informs me that he has several times, and always with satisfaction to the jurors, dealt with this subject in opening the courts in his circuit, I shall now follow his example; and in doing so I wish to address my remarks to the Petit Jury as well as to the Grand Jury. With some of the provisions of the law you are no doubt familiar. You know that no one is qualified as a juror who is under 25 years of age, and that no one can be compelled to serve as a juror after reaching 70, though he is not thereby disqualified if he chooses to serve. All Judges of the Orphans' Court, delegates, coroners and constables, while in office, are exempt by law from all attendance as jurors, and schoolmasters are likewise exempt. All election officials are exempt during their term of office and for one year thereafter. All postmasters are exempt, either by law or custom. Custom exempts all county officers—Clerks, Registers of Wills, deputies in these offices, County Commissioners, their clerk, the Sheriff and his deputies and Justices of the Peace. All otherwise qualified jurors, known to the court to be disqualified by deafness or any physical infirmity, or who are certified in proper form by a reputable physician to be unable to perform jury duty without danger to their health, are also exempt, and the number of these excuses would surprise any one but the judge who receives them. The Clerk to the County Commissioners is required to file with the Clerk of the Circuit Court once a year a list of all the male taxable inhabitants of the county on the tax books, not known to him to be under 25 years of age. From this list, and from the poll books of the county at the last general election, the jurors are drawn not less than 15 days before each jury term.

Notice of the time of such drawing is required to be given to the members of the Bar through the crier of the court, in order that they may witness the drawing if they desire, and that they may present to the court at that time any objection of which they may know to any person proposed by the court to be placed in the box. This was designed to be an aid to the court, but notably in this county the members of the bar are conspicuous by their absence; and the only inference is that they regard this provision of the law as more honored in the breach than in the observance. No property qualification can be required in any juror. At the time fixed by the notice above mentioned the Judge is required (in Kent county) to select from the list furnished by the Clerk to the County Commissioners and from the poll books at the last election, 150 names to be placed in the box. No one not upon this list or on the poll books can be selected, and no one drawn as a juror to the last preceding term can be so selected. These 150 must be selected with special reference to their intelligence, sobriety and integrity, and without the least reference to their political opinions.

When these 150 names are selected the Clerk writes their names on ballots of equal size, color and appearance. These ballots are then folded or rolled closely by the Judge with his own hands, and are placed in a box provided for the purpose by the Clerk. A deputy of the Clerk, who was not present when these ballots were written or folded, is then called in, and after the ballots are well shaken and mixed in the box he, without looking into the box, draws out 48 of these ballots, and the men whose names appear thereon constitute the jury for the next term. If any juror so drawn dies, is unable to attend, or is excused for any proper cause before the term begins, the Judge may open the box and draw in the same manner as before a name in his place. After the first drawing the box containing the names selected is locked and sealed, and the key is sealed separately, until the term begins, or until the box is opened in case of drawing a new name before the term.

When all those who are exempt by express law or by custom; when all those under 25 or over 70; all those who are deaf, blind, or suffering under any known infirmity: all those who believe themselves to be properly exempt for any reason and who can produce a phy-
