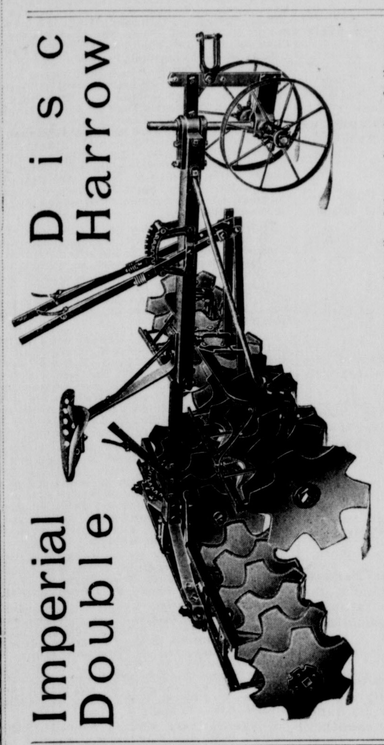
Imperial Double Disc Harrow



It harrows the ground twice in one operation, saving the labor of a man and two horses. It enables the farmer to do his work in one-half the time, making the most favorable weather and soil conditions. It gives better results than any other harrow and lasts much longer than any other harrow.

In construction the Imperial Double Disc consists of a complete out throw harrow with a second harrow (in throw) attached by a flexible frame. The forward harrow cuts the soil and throws it outward; the rear harrow works it again and throws it back, leaving the surface finely divided and perfectly level. The rear gangs follow the front gangs in turning and the rear gangs are set to cut between the tracks. Every inch of ground is pulverized and leveled.

The rear gangs may be quickly and easily detached and the machine used as a single disc harrow if desired. Write for particulars and prices.

WEDDING NOTES.

Mr. Creighton Wallis, a former citizen of Chestertown, and well-known among the newspaper fraternity, has taken unto himself a wife in the person of an attractive young lady from Virginia. Mr. Wallis has given up the printing business and is now interested in a more lucrative trade in Washington, D. C. He is catering to the inner man and is a part owner in a successful restaurant. His bride was in his employ and they went to her home in Virginia and were married.

QUELET—MARTIN.

Miss Marian Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Martin, 834 West Fayette street, Baltimore, and Mr. Geo. L. Quelet, Jr., son of Mr. George L. Quelet, formerly of Chestertown, Md., were married Friday evening at the home of the bride's parents, by Rev. Robert H. Welch, pastor of Fayette street Methodist Episcopal Church. The wedding was a quiet one, only the immediate families of the couple being present. The bride wore a traveling suit of blue broadcloth, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of violets. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Quelet left for a trip South. They will make their home in Newport News, Va., where the groom is engaged in business.

COCHRAN—SUTTON.

Mr. James B. Cochran, of Middletown, Del., and Miss Blanche T. Sutton, of Galena, Md., were married in Philadelphia on Thursday evening, April 29th, at the Memorial Holy Comforter Church by the Rev. T. Reginald Moody. After a short trip Mr. and Mrs. Cochran will make their home in Townsend, Del.

ROBERTS—MIDDLETON.

Miss Delma Middleton, formerly of Rock Hall, was married to Mr. W. H. Roberts, of Baltimore, Thursday, April 22nd by Rev. Ferguson of the Walbrook M. E. Church.

FOSTER—MCCAULLEY.

The home of Mrs. Lizzie B. McCaulley, No. 419 Washington street, Wilmington, and a former resident of Kent, was the scene of an attractive wedding Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, when her only daughter, Miss Anna Bertha McCaulley, became the bride of Levi McCauley Foster. The marriage took place in the presence of a large company of friends of the young people. The decorations throughout the house were pink and white and a profusion of palms, pink and white carnations added to the decorative effect in the parlor.

Punctually at 8 o'clock, when the rooms were filled with relatives and friends of the contracting parties, the bride appeared with her mother, who gave her in marriage. The couple stood beneath a bower of palms, while the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Wilbur F. Corkran, pastor of Union M. E. Church. As the wedding procession entered the parlor Miss Lilian Wainwright, of Spring City, Pa., niece of the groom, played the Bridal Chorus from Wagner's Lohengrin. During the ceremony Hearts and Flowers was played and as the bride and groom received their guests, the full chorus from Mendlesshon was played. The bride was attended by Mrs. Harry E. Cramer as matron of honor, and the groom's best man was his brother, Willam B. Foster of Wilmington. The ushers were Warren S. Ellicott and Herbert Rolph. The bride's gown was white embroidered net over messaline, with satin cord trimming, made directoire. She wore a tulle veil caught with California orange blossoms, which were sent by a friend in California. She carried a white prayer book, handsomely engraved with lilies of the valley. Mrs. McCauley, mother of the bride, wore a becoming gown of black messaline, handsomely braided. Following the marriage ceremony a reception was held from 8.30 until 10 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Foster left late in the evening for a southern trip. They will be "at home" to their friends Tuesdays in May at No. 1407 West Seventh street. The bride's gifts were displayed in a room upstairs and the collection was valuable and handsome. Among the collection was a fine array of cut glass and china, table linen and center pieces, pictures and several useful pieces of furniture and rugs.

Storm and Weather Forecast For May.—From Word and Works, published at St Louis, Missouri, by Rev. Irl R. Hicks, we obtain the following information in reference to the weather for the coming month: "a reactionary storm period is in progress as May comes in. Cloudiness and rain will pass easterwardly over the country from the 1st to 3rd, breaking into electrical storms in many places on the 3rd. A regular storm period is central on the 6th, covering the 4th to the 8th. Cloudiness and rain will attend and move promptly eastward over the country during the 6th, 7th and 8th. A decided change to cooler, with probable frost at night, will set in behind the storms to the westward about the 7th. A reactionary storm period falls on the 11th, 12th and 13th. A regular storm period will be in force from the 15th to the 20th, having its center on the 18th. A reactionary storm period is central on the 23rd, 24th and 25th. Only moderate and brief change in weather conditions will take place between this and the closing storm period of the month, causing a prolonged threatening spell of weather, with possibly cooler about the 26th and 27th. A regular storm period covers the 28th to the 21st, being central on the 29th."
