WE Believe

our line of Clothing for the Spring and Summer is the largest, most up-to-date and down-in-price that was ever exhibited in Kent or Queen Anne's counties, and in our ability to get results.

WE BELIEVE that honest goods can be sold to honest people by honest methods.

WE BELIEVE in working, not waiting; in laughing, not weeping; in boosting, not knocking; and in the pleasure of selling goods.

WE BELIEVE that one sale to-day is worth two to-morrow.

WE BELIEVE in to-day and the business we're doing; in to-morrow and the trade we expect to sell; and in the sure reward which the future holds.

WE BELIEVE in courtesy, in kindness, in generosity, in good cheer, in friendship, and in honest competition.

WE BELIEVE if you will examine our line of Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing, Hats, Neckwear, &c., we can surely please you both in assortment and price.

Our Spring and Summer lines are now complete and ready for inspection.

Personal ❋ ❋ ❋ ❋ and Social

We are sorry to report Mrs. Wilbur Eliason as quite sick at the University Hospital, Philadelphia.

We are glad to report the favorable condition of Mr. Wm. B. Usilton, who has been in Philadelphia for several weeks for treatment by specialists for Menier's disease. This is an affection of the auditory nerve of the inner ear and is of very difficult treatment. Mr. Usilton has the best skill of the Hahneman Medical College and Hospital, and home comforts also at the residence of his son, Dr. M. Earle Usilton. His return home at an early day in restored health is hoped for by his many friends.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Lowe, of Baltimore, were guests over Sunday at the home of Dr. Charles Richard Twilley. Mrs. Lowe delighted the congregation of the M. E. Church with a beautiful solo at the Sunday morning service.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Lofland, of Wilmington, are guests of Mr. Joseph Guest and wife.

Mr. Frank Dulaney, of New York City, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Barnett, on Kent Circle.

Mrs. Lilly Numbers, of Millington, was taken suddenly ill on Tuesday evening with acute indigestion and is still quite sick.

We are glad to report Dr. H. G. Simpers and Mr. D. B. McMenamin as very much improved in health.

Miss Mary Elliott's condition yesterday was improved.

Mr. Fred. Hirons, postal clerk between Philadelphia and Norfolk, and son of Mr. John W. Hirons, of Chestertown, was married in Fort Wayne, Ind., Wednesday, his bride being Miss Beulah Alringer. Mr. and Mrs. Hirons will spend a few days in Chestertown, arriving here to-day.

Mrs. W. Frank Jarrell, of Chestertown, is spending the month of May at "The Ostend," Atlantic City.

Mrs. G. A. M. Wilson, of Philadelphia, has been the guest of Mrs. Henry Munford, Chestertown.

Mrs. James L. Beck entertained the St. Paul's Sewing Society in her characteristic fine style last Friday evning.

James W. Chapman Jr., of the Baltimore bar, spent Sunday in town with his family at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Vannort.

Mr. Benedict F. Yates, wife and daughter, of Baltimore, spent several days last week with his sister, Mrs. H. R. Graham, on Queen street.

Mrs. Carrie Sheetz, of Washington, D. C., was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sappington, on Mill street last week.

Mr. Joseph Everett will tenant his Queen Anne's farm next year and Mr. Wm. Lee will remove from the Wilmer farm to Skirven-Lusby farm, near town.

Mrs. George Parker, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Hilty and son, of Parkersburg, W. Va., have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Rote on High street.

Lieut. Commander Thos. T. Craven, well-known in Kent, has been promoted to the position of ordinance officer of the U. S. naval ship South Carolina. Lieut. Craven was flag lieut. on the Connecticut in her trip around the world and won honors for himself, ship and country. Mrs. Craven and two children are now in Philadelphia.

Miss Louise Brown, of Chestertown, has returned home after a visit to her brother in Philadelphia.

Miss Miriam Hubbard will accept our thanks for an invitation to the commencement exercises of her school, the National Cathedral School, at Mount St. Alban, Washington, May 30-June 2.

The Forty Hours Devotion will open on Sunday morning at the Sacred Heart Church at 10-30 o'clock, and will continue until Tuesday morning. Very Rev. J. A. Lyons, V. G., will preach at the mass on Sunday morning and also on Sunday and Monday evenings. All are welcome to attend these devotions.

A Fast Game.—The most interesting and exciting base ball game that ever took place in Millington since Jack Townsend entered the box against the Washington College strong team in 1895 took place on the Millington baseball diamond last Wednesday afternoon, Clerks vs. Millington Academy. The score being 10 to 10 in a hard-fought 10-inning game. Rash the famous south Millington twirler was in the box for the Clerks while Wallen did the twirling for the little fellows or Academy boys; and it was a royal pitchers battle from start to finish. Rash was victim of easy mark for some of the boys, as they batted him at will, yet he was well supported. Mr. Oscar Allen, the muscular giant was behind the bat for the clerks while the little kid Henry Tonkin did the catching in fine form for the Academy boys. Time of game two hours and thirty minutes; fifteen set aside in the sixth inning for argument. Mr. R. W. Moffett umpire.

SALES OF REAL ESTATE

The Sale of Aldridge Farms, Near Town, Draw a Large Crowd—Fine Prices—Home Held Up—Private Sale of "New Tolchester."

The "Barkman farm" of Mr. Wm. H. Lambert, has been sold to Mr. Wm. S. Collins for $6,500. The sale was made through Mr. S. C. Skinner, real estate broker. This farm is located in Morgnec and contains 176 acres.

"New Tolchester," containing 250 acres, tenanted by Mr. J. Thomas Blackiston and owned by Mr. Fred. G. Usilton, has been sold to Mr. Robert M. Francis, of Baltimore, for $9,000, the present owner to get his share of 100 acres in wheat. Land in this neighborhood is being steadily improved and the farms brought into better cultivation. Mr. Woodside sold the Tolchester tract of 1,000 acres in 1902 for $25 per acre, since which time the tract has been divided and made into several good farms.

A large crowd of farmers and others from Kent and Queen Anne's were drawn to Chestertown Tuesday by the advertised sale of real state. The "Home Farm" of the late John K. Aldridge, a few miles from Chestertown, was offered by Hope H. Barroll, executor, first. It contains 244 acres. The bidding was spirited from the start and Auctioneer Hurlock did not dwell longer than a minute at one figure. Mrs. George Brice, daughter of the late Mr. Aldridge, started the farm at $14,000 and competed with the Messrs. Williams, of Worton, up to $16,000 when Mr. Will Baxter joined the bidders and helped to run it up to over $17,000. Then came a new Richmond in the field in the person of Col. John E. George, of Queen Anne's, who competed with Mrs. Brice until he finally bought the farm for his father, Mr. Joseph George, at $19,150 or about $81 per acre. Mr. Aldridge paid $20,777.68. The present tenant is Mr. J. Kennard Aldridge and it is believed that he will continue. He has made "good" there.

The "Pippin" farm of 163 acres, adfoining, was also bought by Mr. George or $7,150. Mr. Aldridge did not give more than $4,000 for this farm.

Other realty of the Aldridge estate was offered as follows:

The brick store property on High street, Chestertown, now occupied by J. H. Sides was withdrawn at a bid of $4,000.

Mr. Aldridge's residence on Front street was withdrawn at a bid of $5,100.

A house and lot on Cannon street was sold at $650 to Harrison W. Vickers, Jr.

The property corner Maple avenue and Queen street, residence of the late Geo. W. Smith, was also offered at public sale and withdrawn at a bid of $5,000.

The elegant Smith farm will be sold in Church Hill today.

Senator William M. Slay has purchased the George W. Smith home on Maple Avenue at private sale of H. H. Barroll, Esq., Attorney. The price is said to have been about $6,000.
