BEAUTIES

This is how those who have seen our Spring and Summer lines express their opinions, and the

Ten, Twelve Fifty and Fifteen Dollar Lines of Men's Suits

certainly merit such comment.

All the colorings, viz.: London Smoke, Elephant Breath, Cold Gravy, Spilled Molasses, Olives, Tans, Modes, etc., right up to the top notch in tailoring and trimmings, and if you have been making your purchases from first-class city houses

Our Prices will be a revelation to you

Boys' and Children's Suits in like proportion. All the dash, fit and workmanship goes with them also.

Hats, Caps, Hosiery Neckwear, Underwear and First Class Furnishings : : : : :

We are right here with the goods and are convincing the most skeptical of this fact every day. We do it by occular demonstration. Not on paper. We can deliver the goods. Investigate, it may pay you.

Mrs. Nannie Johnson Cain, formerly of Phoenix, Arizona, now of Baltimore, daughter of Mr. John Ross Johnson, and Mr. Richard Spencer Harris, of the firm of Bateman & Harris, Baltimore, were quietly married at the rectory of Memorial Protestant Episcopal Church, Lafayette avenue and Lanvale street, Wednesday, June 30th, 1909, only the immediate family being present. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Page Dame, assistant rector. Mr. Harris is a son of Mrs. Mary R. Harris and the late Mr. Spencer Harris, of Kent county. Up until a few years ago Mr. Harris was a resident of this county, but now makes his home in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris will reside at the Winston Apartments, 1917 Eutaw Place, Baltimore, until October 1st, at the expiration of which time they will move to Jacksonville, Fla.

IN another column will be found the announcement of a delightful entertainment to be given in Stam's Hall next Tuesday evening. It will be of a high order and for a worthy cause. It is full of music, dancing and mirth and will give much pleasure.

NEWSY KERNELS

Town Election.—Because of a tie vote in Galena some months ago a new election was ordered for the purpose of naming a board of commissioners. There were no contests this time and the following board was unanimously elected: A. P. Prettyman, W. T. Stradley, W. Holt Woodall.

Drowned.—A young colored man by the name Massey, who lived with Mr. Samuel W. Walls, near Crumpton, was drowned last Saturday at Deep Landing, in the Double Creek neighborhood. Massey was swimming and got beyond his depth, and before aid could reach him went under the water, never to rise again. An inquest was held and a verdict of accidental drowning rendered.

Removals.—The tenants in the building now on the site of the proposed new structure to be erected by the Kent County Savings Bank are preparing to vacate. John D. Urie, Esq., has removed his law office to Fraternal Hall building facing Kent square. The Savings Bank will occupy the store room in the Eliason building; and Hughes & Newnam will find quarters in part of the room now occupied by Roland's restaurant in the Westcott building.

Black Hand Letter.—Mr. Joseph George, the owner of 32 farms and living at Sudlersville, has received a "black hand" letter telling him to put $1500 near a telephone pole before a certain time. The writer threatens to burn Mr. George out if he fails to comply with his demand. This procedure is one of the most despicable of acts and no punishment is too severe. Officials are on the hunt for the scoundrel.

New Prudential Agents.—Messrs. Wm. C. Dempsey, of Galena, Arthur R. Tyler, of Millington, and Herbert A. Urie, of Rock Hall, have accepted positions with the Prudential Insurance Co. as agents in Kent. These are excellent young gentlemen and will be an honor to the company.

Great Improvement.—As an evidence that one improvement begets another is proven by the marked changes which have been going on along the river terraces of Mr. H. H. Barroll's home, near town. The Ladies' Improvement Association have undertaken the herculean task of making a play ground out of the "water" lots of the Chestertown Water Department and their work thus far has surprised everyone and gives promise of being a grand success. Mr. and Mrs. Barroll, whose property lies near by, caught the fever and for several weeks have been busy with a dozen men and a score of mules grading their terrace and hauling dirt into the bottom and making solid ground of a marsh. Dynamite was used successfully Monday afternoon in blowing up a half dozen big trees in the line of work. It is one of the biggest improvements made in this section for years. Work on the play ground will be resumed as soon as possible.

Real Estate Sales.—W. W. Beck, Esq., attorney, sold at public sale Tuesday the Walker estate located on the outskirts of Chestertown and on Chester river for $7,100. Col. S. L. Wright was the purchaser. Mr. Wright's son occupies the property. There were three bidders one of whom wanted the tract for a race course. The property consists of about 116 acres of which 24 are in wood.

Mr. Emory Clough, of Sudlersville, has sold his butchering business to Mr. Alfred Walls and will move to Centreville about the middle of the month, where he will open a meat and green grocery stand. Mr. Hawkins Everett will continue to manage the business there for Mr. Walls until New Year's when other arrangements will be made.

Mr. J. Waters Russell, real estate broker, has sold to Mr. John P. Crossley of Queen Anne's the Jos. S. Clark farm in Quaker Neck, tenanted by Mr. Anthony, for $8,000. This farm adjoins Rev. A. H. Covey and contains 150 acres.

J. W. Russell has sold the Price farm near Masseys, to C. W. Trinks for $2200. It contains 121 acres.

Wm. M. Slay, Esq., trustee, on Tuesday sold at public sale the Darrell tract of land in the First district to Mr. Wm. Darrell, for $450.

School Notes.—Prof. Wm. J. Boyer, who was recently appointed principal of the Ridgely public School, has resigned to accept the principalship of the Millington public school. For years Prof. Boyer taught in Queen Anne's county. For the past year or more he has been in charge of the school in Federalsburg.

Miss Idell Baker has resigned her position as preceptress at Washington College which she has filled so acceptably for five years.

Prof. Arthur Greenwood, of Rock Hall, Md., has been appointed principal of the Ridgely public school. The Prof. and his mother will occupy the Roberts property on Maple avenue, Ridgely.

The Maryland Teachers' Association, in session at Mountain Lake Park, presented Dr. M. Bates Stevens with a handsome diamond scarf pin, costing $200. The gift was an appreciation of a long and very efficient service to the State. The presentation speech was accompanied by an outburst of wild enthusiasm.

Disabled Boat Picked up.—Captain John Kirwan, of the steamer Susquehanna, reports having picked up the the steam launch Mayfair, disabled off Poole's Island, about 1.30 A. M. Tuesday. On board were eight persons, several of whom were women. The Mayfair was towed into Betterton, and those on board returned to the city on the Susquehanna. The launch was left at Betterton.

The motor boat Stump was blown ashore at Tolchester Sunday afternoon. The party on board left the disabled boat at Tolchester, and returned to Baltimore on the steamer Louise Sunday night.

AT THE regular meeting Wednesday evening, Chestertown Council No. 177, Jr. O. U. A. M. the following officers were elected: Councilor, J. G. Usilton; vice councilor, W. F. Blyman; conductor, J. E. Pennington; warden, Hyland Crew; inside sentinel, H. B. Rote; outside sentinel, Harvey Blyman; asst. rec. sec'y, W. T. Bennett; chaplain, J. W. Barnes. Following are the trustees: J. W. Barnes, Wm. B. Coleman, Wm. F. Malin, R. F. Elburn, Jacob Allen.

Stealing Team.—Frank Kowski, a young Baltimorean, was arrested at Tolchester Beach Monday evening for stealing the team of Mr. Joseph Price. The boy was not accustomed to driving a team and the horse ran away with him, completely demolishing the carriage. The lad is won in jail awaiting a hearing.
