

MARYLAND SUFFRAGE NEWS

Enter this paper as second class matter December 14, 1912, at the postoffice at Baltimore, Maryland, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Vol. III, No. 39

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 26, 1914

Five Cents

THE CRYSTAL GAZER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Page	Page
Help the Federal Amendment.....205	Our Public Schools.....208, 209
Are We, as Individuals, Responsible for.....206	Advertisements.....209, 211
This Man's Life.....207	The Lamp of Sacrifice.....211
Equal Suffrage League Column.....207	Editorials.....212

DEDICATION

To the poor women without homes, to the little toilers who should be in the schools and playgrounds, to the white slaves in their tragic bondage, and to the children who die, these pages are dedicated! May every woman who is not too idle to have a thought, or too vain to have a soul, or too rich in gold to have a heart, join in the great struggle for women's freedom!
Purity, Liberty, Justice—these we must work for!

HELP THE FEDERAL AMENDMENT

Bristow-Mondell Amendment to Be Voted On in the House on December 29.

The vote on the Bristow-Mondell Amendment has been postponed, and the bill will probably be reported out not later than Tuesday, Decem- ber 29. Meanwhile all possible pressure should be brought to bear upon Maryland's representatives in Congress.

All county and city leagues should pass special resolutions urging Maryland's representatives to cast their votes for the amendment, and all true suffragists should write or telegraph without delay to the members of Congress from Maryland.

Address all the congressmen at the House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., and make your letter very brief, but to the point. A telegram or a special delivery letter will be much more impressive than an ordinary letter, but even a postcard is better than nothing.

The list of congressmen from Maryland is as follows:

- Hon. Jesse D. Price.
- Hon. J. F. C. Talbott.
- Hon. Chas. P. Coady.
- Hon. J. C. Linthicum.
- Hon. Frank O. Smith.
- Hon. D. J. Lewis.

Address,
House of Representatives,
Washington, D. C.