Before Allowing an Operation

Please Read These Two Letters.

The following letter from Mrs. Orville Rock will prove how unwise it is for women to submit to the dangers of a surgical operation when it may be avoided by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She was four weeks in the hospital and came home suffering worse than before. Then after all that suffering Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored her health.

HERE IS HER OWN STATEMENT.

Paw Paw, Mich.—"Two years ago I suffered very severely with a displacement—I could not be on my feet for a long time. My physician treated me for several months without much relief, and at last sent me to Ann Arbor for an operation. I was there four weeks and came home suffering worse than before. My mother advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I did. To-day I am well and strong and do all my own housework. I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and advise every woman who is afflicted with any female complaint to try it."—MRS. ORVILLE ROCK, R. R. No. 5, Paw Paw, Mich.

"THERE NEVER WAS A WORSE CASE."

Rockport, Ind.—"There never was a worse case of women's ills than mine, and I cannot begin to tell you what I suffered. For over two years I was not able to do anything. I was in bed for a month and the doctor said nothing but an operation would cure me. My father suggested Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; so to please him I took it, and I improved wonderfully, so I am able to travel, ride horseback, take long rides and never feel any ill effects from it. I can only ask other suffering women to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation."—MRS. MARGARET MEREDITH, R. F. D. No. 3, Rockport, Ind.

We will pay a handsome reward to any person who will prove to us that these letters are not genuine and truthful—or that either of these women were paid in any way for their testimonials, or that the original letter from each did not come to us entirely unsolicited.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments owes justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine, made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

JOY RIDE PROVES FATAL

Easton, Md., May 21.—John H. O'Day, whose skull was broken when he was thrown out of an automobile while on a joy ride Saturday afternoon in company with Samuel Bratt and Charles Richardson, of Oxford, and Charles Callahan, of Easton, died at the Emergency Hospital here this morning, having never regained consciousness since he was hurt last Saturday. O'Day was 44 years old. He is survived by a widow, one son and a daughter.

A writ has been issued for the arrest of Bratt, owner and driver of the car, on the ground that he was in no condition, mentally, to handle the machine, and therefore violated the State law prohibiting anyone in such condition driving a car under a severe penalty.

It is reported in Easton that Bratt is seriously ill at his home in Oxford. It was first thought he was not hurt, but it has developed that when the car was brought to such a sudden stop and toppled over after coming in contact with the telegraph pole or tree he was struck a hard blow in the stomach by the steering wheel and injured internally. He is reported to be unconscious.

It is the general belief here that the attention of the grand jury of Talbot county, which is in session here, will be called to the death of O'Day, and that the jury will take action in the matter and thus put a stop to reckless running of automobiles.

POINTERS FOR THE MOTORIST

A very compact but complete tire and inner tube repair kit has just been added to the wide variety of accessories supplied by the Michelin Tire Company, Milltown, New Jersey. The substantial metal containing box measures only 6x3x3¼ inches, yet a liberal supply of repair materials is included, such as 2 ounce cans of Michelin Mastic and Cement; an envelope containing 6 assorted red Para inner tube patches; an inside envelope or "blowout" patch, and a good sized piece of emery cloth as well as a box of Michelin Talc.

A feature of this new repair kit is a very complete 32-page illustrated booklet full of practical instructions for making all sorts of quick and permanent repairs to envelopes and inner tubes. This booklet also contains many practical hints for tire users and suggestions that have developed during Michelin's long experience.

Michelin Mastic, one of the accessories in this new repair kit, is a quick-hardening plastic cement for filling cuts in envelopes and repairing punctures in inner tubes. It is not simply an adhesive but is a plastic compound or filler which replaces torn rubber, making a perfect repair as it practically renews the injured parts. Michelin pure gum cement is also particularly adaptable and is an enduring adhesive. The red Para patches supplied with this new kit are of standard Michelin quality, beveled at the edges to prevent curling when cementing.

Big Eggs—The Sun of last Sunday gave two cuts of some extraordinary large eggs laid by a hen belonging to Mr. W. Irving Robinson, of Kennedyville. Regarding the eggs Mr. Robinson says:

"The group marked No. 1 shows 12 large eggs and one of the ordinary size, which is marked X. This dozen eggs weighed 2 pounds, 3¼ ounces, and the hen that laid them lays nearly every day. She is a cross between a Rhode Island Red rooster and a Buff Plymouth Rock hen, and that is, I believe, the best kind I ever saw. Once she took a rest for about two days, and her next egg is shown on the picture marked No. 2. A common egg is shown in comparison and is marked X. This large egg was nearly the size of the one described recently in the Sun. That one was 8¼ inches around the long way and 6¾ inches around the short way. No weight was given. This one of mine is 7¾ inches around the long way and 6¾ inches around the short way, and it weighs 4 ounces. Ordinary eggs are 1½ to 2 ounces in weight."

Explained by Anty Drudge.

Little Miss Rompabout—"Just look, mamma, I tore my frock."

Mother—"Good gracious, and that frock just new! Only washed twice!"

Anty Drudge—"Just those two washings made the tear possible. You boiled the frock, as you do all your clothes, and that softened and weakened its fiber. If you had used Fels-Naptha in cold or lukewarm water, the fabric would not be half rotten and ready to give away the first time it caught in anything."

White clothes are made of vegetable fibres, cotton or flax. Boiling affects them the same way it does other vegetable matter, as potatoes or cabbage. It softens them and weakens the fibre. Boiling will soften even hard wood.

By this you can easily see how your clothes will wear out quicker and tear more easily if you boil and hard-rub them. Wool, which is an animal fibre, is softened just as the fibre of meat in boiling. Fels-Naptha will cleanse your clothes in cold or lukewarm water without any boiling or hard rubbing, and there isn't a single thing in it that will harm the goods.

Your clothes will wear twice as long, and they'll be whiter and cleaner all the time. Try a cake of Fels-Naptha and see. But use it the Fels-Naptha way, according to the simple directions on the red and green wrapper. They'll tell you how to wash all kinds of clothes with Fels-Naptha; wash dishes, clean floors and do many other things with it.
