Michael Powers, a member of the Major Dandy Post, No. 843, Perth Amboy, N. J., would like old comrades to know of the help Foley Kidney Pills were to him. He had terrible pains in his back and other painful and annoying symptoms of kidney trouble, and says: "Foley Kidney Pills have cured me in a remarkably short time." Write for particulars. Sold by M. A. Toulson.

There are people in this town who unthinkingly neglect a "mere cold," though they would not otherwise expose their children or themselves to danger. Yet a cold neglected may develop into contagious diptheria, bronchitis or pneumonia. Use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound promptly, for it stops coughs quickly and cures colds. It contains no opiates and is safe for children. Sold by M. A. Toulson.

THE SECRET OF LONG LIFE.

Do not sap the springs of life by neglect of the human mechanism, by allowing the accumulation of poisons in the system. An imitation of Nature's method of restoring waste of tissue and impoverishment of the blood and nervous strength is to take an alterative glyceric extract (without alcohol) of Golden Seal and Oregon grape root, Bloodroot, Stone and Mandrake root with Cherrybark. Over 40 years ago Dr. Pierce gave to the public this remedy, which he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. He found it would help the blood in taking up the proper elements from food, help the liver into activity, thereby throwing out the poisons from the blood and vitalizing the whole system as well as allaying and soothing a cough.

No one ever takes cold unless constipated, or exhausted, and having what we call mal-nutrition, which is attended with impoverished blood and exhaustion of nerve force. The "Discovery" is an all-round tonic which restores tone to the blood, nerves and heart by imitating Nature's methods of restoring waste of tissue, and feeding the nerves, heart and lungs on rich red blood.

MRS. DORN.

"I suffered from pain under my right shoulder blade also a very severe cough," writes MRS. W. DORN, of New Brookland, S. C., to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. "Had four different doctors and none did me any good. Some said I had consumption, others said I would have to have an operation. I was bedridden, unable to sit up for six months—and was nothing but a live skeleton. You advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. When I had taken one bottle of the 'Discovery' I could sit up for an hour at a time, and when I had taken three bottles I could do my cooking and tend to the children. I took fourteen bottles in all and was then in good health. My weight is now 167 pounds.

"I Called up to Ask You Over This Evening"

"What a wonderful comfort and pleasure it is to have all my friends only ten seconds away by telephone," exclaimed one farmer's wife lately. "We couldn't get along without our Rural Telephone line. My husband uses it every day to town for prices on supplies, and he lays to the telephone the credit of saving that money we spent on the house and barn last winter."

If YOU haven't a Rural Bell Telephone on YOUR farm, write to-day for our new booklet, "What Uncle Sam Says about the Rural Telephone." It is free.

STILL POND FARMER'S CLUB

The Still Pond Farmer's Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Pennington. Quite a number of members and visitors were present and a very pleasant day was spent. Some of the questions discussed were, "Is plowing at any time in the summer conductive to the growth of onions?" "Why are the hedges being removed?" "What is the best and cheapest fence we can build?" and several more important questions. After a great deal of discussion, in which Messrs. James Harris, E. B. Pennington, J. R. Jarrell, Rev. Hepbron, Rev. Robinson and others took part, the club adjourned to meet at the home of Mr. Carson Harris in May. Among those present were: Rev. and Mrs. S. T. Hepbron, Rev. and Mrs. F. X. Moore, Rev. and Mrs. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. James Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Carson Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Tilghman Shafer, Mr. and Mrs. William Price, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Roseberry, Mr. and Mrs. William Bonwill, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Price, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Redding, Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Jarrell, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hill, Mrs. and Mrs. Fred Cornelius; Mesdames Kate Crew, John Bennett, George Sutton, Charles Walters, Lavina Harper, Ella Pennington, Misses Fannie and Ruth Bramble, Jessie Crew, Louise Pennington, Emma Shafer, Lilas Walters, and Messrs. Thomas Bramble and Wilifred Robinson.

THE MEANING OF THE HOUND DOG SONG

Mr. W. H. Wallace, writing for the National Monthly, explains the meaning of the picturesque "houn' dawg" song, a campaign song often sung by the friends of Speaker Clark in various parts of the country:

The "setting" of the "song" is, therefore, most life-like and true to human nature. One can see in his "mind's eye" the gawky, shuffling countryman from the backwoods, with his brogan shoes and slouch hat and blue overalls upheld by one gallus, as he trudges leisurely along the highway, accompanied by his faithful hound, "Rover," both as happy as the day is long, and caring for nothing else half so much as for each other. The hound is most probably "yaller"; all over his underside is of that favorite color. Now and then "Rover" finds rabbit tracks ten days old in the sand by the roadside, and "strikes a trail" and "opens up"; his master urges him on with a "whopee." But the chase is soon abandoned, for this sort of hound was never known or expected to catch anything; and they resume their way "to town." As they reach the public square the miserable, uppish town dogs, curs of low degree, go yelping and snarling and snapping at the country dog, as if they would rend him in pieces. He tucks his tail between his legs and hangs his head and seeks protection close to the heels of his master—a picture of abject humility and fear.

When he enters a store the proprietor and the porter and the clerk give the strange dog a kick; the bad town boy heaves a stone at him, and the town loafer "sicks" the town dogs on him in hope of getting up a dog-fight.

After enduring this sort of thing for a time, the dog's master gets tired of it; then he gets mad, and proclaims that it has got to "stop." And he means it, too, and the next feller that kicks the dog is liable to get into serious trouble. The master of the dog thinks enough of a thing is enough.

Poor dog! Fitting symbol of the great mass of the people, who have been kicked around for all these many years by "vested interests," the tariff barons and the high protection of the Republican party. And now they are tired of it; their spirit is aroused, and they say with earnestness and loud acclaim that it has got to "stop."

The picture changes though the lesson is the same.

The big bumpkin of a schoolboy, dull of comprehension and slow to learn, gets many a whack from the teacher, who makes no allowance for his natural dullness. After much patience and long suffering he gets tired of being "lammed" around and rises in rebellion, as Tom Calhoun did at the old Wadsworth school, after being beaten day after day by "Old Man Coleman," the teacher.

So, the great gawky public, slow to perceive, slower to act, are at last seeing how they have been the butt for the G. O. P.'s high tariff and trust magnates for so long; and now their dander is up and they declare it must cease.
