THE NEW DEPARTURE.—Gen. Frank Blair, in his speech before the Missouri Legislature says:

What was the new departure policy? Why, if it meant anything, it meant acquiescence in all the usurpations of the Radical party since it has come in power. I think if we should hold a Democratic National Convention to nominate a candidate for President, and those States should still be in favor of the new departure policy, the Democrats of New England and Democrats of other States should be found in favor of that policy, it is very probable we should be saddled with this new departure platform in a great presidential campaign. Now, if the new departure simply means that we recognize what has been done as having been done, why I suppose every man of common sense would concede that; but if it means that having been done, no matter by what means, it would therefore stand unquestioned and approved by the Democratic party, I tell you would find many Democrats in this country who would not concede that under any condition.

For my part, I left the Republican party because of its usurpations. I left it because it asserted power when at the head of the Government and controlling the Government which did not belong to the Government, and I never will say that these usurpations were right. [Applause.] I never will say it, for I do not believe they were right. My honest convictions condemn them as the seeds which will yet destroy our Republic unless dug up and extirpated from our soul. I do not acquiesce in them; they were naked usurpations without justification of any kind, and I do not acquiesce in them, and never have and never will to obtain office or to keep office. I believe that these amendments were passed by fraud—that is the word for it—by coercion. Three States were told that they should not be States unless they adopted it; other States were wielded by a mob of negroes who never had a right to vote except by act of Congress, and when the white people in these States were disfranchised by act of Congress which had no right to disfranchise them.

The State of Missouri voted by an overwhelming majority, notwithstanding one third of the people were disfranchised, against the amendment; yet it was adopted here, and voted for by the members from Missouri in the House in violation of the known will of the people of the State. I do not believe that the people of a single State outside New England ever gave their consent to that amendment, yet it was adopted as a part of the Constitution by such means as I have described, and I am asked to take a new departure, and not only acquiesce to but sanction these things. I protest against it as a naked fraud. It is not the less a fraud because it is a successful fraud and we are unable to get rid of it.

A Man With Nerves of Steel.

Young Donaldson, the daring æronaut, who made a balloon ascension at Reading, Penn., on the 30th of August last, and performed a series of trapeze feats when a mile or more from the earth, repeated his thrilling performance in Norfolk on Monday last. There was no basket to the balloon, but its place was supplied by a trapeze similar to those used by circus performers, and above the trapeze was placed a hoop, secured to which was a suit of heavy clothing to be used by the ariel voyager when he encountered the cold currents. The Norfolk Journal describing the ascension says that when the balloon was released from its moorings and reached a great altitude Donaldson suddenly and apparently with little effort threw himself into a sitting posture on the bar, kissing his hand to the crowd below. Suddenly, pretending to lose his balance, he fell backwards, sliding head downward until he caught by his toes on the side ropes that suspended the trapeze bar. In this perilous position he swung to and fro several seconds—a time which seemed an age to the awe-stricken crowd below. It was curious to observe the varying emotions of the crowd—as varying as the dispositions of each individual. Some were thrilled with admiration of the courage of the daring man and kept their eyes rivited on him. Others shuddering with horror turned away with pallid faces and beating hearts and covered their eyes with their hands to shut out the dreadful sight. Faint shrieks were heard from the ladies, and some turned to leave the spot, but true to the characteristic of their sex—curiosity—concluded to take one more look, and looking once, looked again.—Throwing himself back in his seat on the bar the æronaut sat astride the same.—Then began a series of gymnastic evolutions—blancing himself on his back; turning over and "skinning the cat," by the side ropes, &c. Upward grandly and steadily rose the balloon, cleaving the air like a mighty bird. At length it looked like a mere speck in the clouds. Opera glasses and telescopes were brought into requisition, and by their aid Donaldson could be seen still performing his gymnastic feats. After rising to a tremendous height the balloon hung for a few moments seemingly suspended in mid air, and then sailed off in a southeastern direction. When the balloon was a mere speck in the distance, invisible to the naked eye and almost through powerful telescopes, the man with nerves of steel and the heart of a lion repeated his daring trapeze feat of hanging downward, suspended by his toes. Such a scene was never before witnessed in Norfolk, and soldom anywhere in the world. The description of such a scene reads like a romance, but the reality far surpasses the most vivid powers of "word painting," and we desist from the vain effort to depict it. When the ærialship had reached an attitude of about half a mile, and struck the colder current of air, the æronaut was observed to climb up to the hoop, and get his suit of thick clothes. Descending to the bar he dressed himself, and then resumed the gymnastic display—exercising himself to keep warm. Those who were fortunate to have telescopes saw the balloon gradually descending. Occasionally the æronaut would throw down a bag of sand to enable the balloon to rise—the country probably not being suited for a descent. Late in the evening it was rumored that Donaldson had descended safely near Kempsville, in Princess Anne county.

A TWELVE-TON GUN, worth $20,000, was recently lost in Bombay harbor. The Jumna, a short time ago, took out from England six new twelve-ton guns for the protection of the harbor. As soon as the ship was ready for unloading suitable tackle was obtained, and a boat came alongside the Jumna. When the first cannon, well secured, was lowered into the boat it almost sank her. To save the boatmen the order was given to reboist. The boat happily pulled off a little, for the slings intended for lowering proved insufficient for raising the mass of metal, and gave way. There was one tremendous splash, and the last was seen of the twelve-ton gun. Divers could find no other trace of it than a sort of dimple in mud where it had disappeared. They probed deep, as a doctor would for a bullet, but with no success; and, considering the nature of the harbor bottom, some 28 feet of mud in parts, it is tolerably certain that the lost treasure will rest in its present bed for many centuries.

TRIAL BY JURY.—One generation ago Lord Chief Justice Denman is said to have made the remark, that in a majority of cases trial by jury was "a humbug, a delusion and a snare." The shock which this sweeping declaration caused in conservative England did not prevent the Chief Justice from sticking to his opinion. To-day the Pittsburg Commercial declares that intelligent opinion in the United States is identical with that of Lord Denman. Upon which the New York Commercial Advertiser observes: "We do not know whether public opinion is thus identical or not; but this we do know—it ought to be." This is pretty strong language, and hardly justified, we should think, by the general results of jury verdicts, which, in the main, at least in civil suits, will be found consistent with justice and equity. In capital criminal cases the morbid public sentiment upon the subject of taking away life, in a lawful manner, is probably more responsible for the frequent acquittal of criminals than the jury system.

BURNING THE WHITE DOG.—A curious ceremony was recently observed by the Onondaga Indians near Syracuse—the burning of the white dog. This rite seems to have an astronomical as well as a religious significance, being always observed at a certain period during the old moon nearest to the month of February. On the day preceding the feast solemn preparation by fasting is made. Early in the morning of the appointed day the tribe meets at the council house, great fires are lighted, guns are discharged, and a general jubilee after the Gilmorean model is organized. A dog, pure white in color, is then strangled, the shedding of blood being unacceptable to the deity honored by the sacrifice. The medicine man then makes a speech, the tribe marches round the dead cur thrice, the medicine man faces towards the east, and throws the body into the flames, keeping up a solemn and monotonous chant during its incremation. The dog is supposed to bear and by his death atone for all the sins of the nation, and the whole ceremony reminds one strongly of the driving into the desert of the scapegoat by the ancient Jews, from whom it is claimed the American Indians are descended.

MR. JAS. H. WILLIAMS, JR., of Chapel District, Talbot county, last week killed a hog 27 months old, which weighed 784 pounds, dressed.

THE newest ear-rings are united by a chain under the chin.

A Body and Mind Disease.

Such is dyspepsia. The stomach and the brain are too intimately allied for the one to suffer without the other so that dyspepsia and despondency are inseparable. It may be added, too, that irritation of the stomach is almost invariably accompanied by irritation of the temper.

The invigorating and tranquilizing operation of Hostetter's Bitters is most powerfully developed in cases of indigestion. The first effect of this agreeable tonic is comforting and encouraging. A mild glow pervades the system, the chronic uneasiness in the region of the stomach is lessened, and the nervous restlessness which characterizes the disease is abated. This improvement is not transient. It is not succeeded by the return of the old symptoms with super-added force, as is always the case when unmedicated stimulants are given for the complaint. Each dose seems to impart a permanent accession of healthful invigoration. But this is not all. The apparient and anti-bilious properties of the preparation are scarcely secondary in importance to its tonic virtues. If there is an overflow of bile, the secretion is soon brought within proper limits, and if the bilary organ is inert and torpid it is toned and regulated. The effect upon the discharging organs is equally salutary, and in cases of constipation the cathartic action is just sufficient to produce the desired result gradually and without pain. The Bitters also promote healthy evaporation from the surface, which is particularly desirable at this season when sudden spells of raw, unpleasant weather are apt to check the natural perspiration and produce congestion of the liver, coughs and colds. The best safeguard against all diseases is bodily vigor, and this the great Vegetable Restorative especially promotes.

THE AMERICAN WASHER.
PRICE $5.50.
The AMERICAN WASHER Saves Money, Time and Drudgery.
The Fatigue of Washing Day no Longer Dreaded, but Economy, Efficiency and Clean Clothing, Sure.
In calling public attention to this little Machine, a few of the invaluable qualities, (not possessed by any other washing machine yet invented,) are here enumerated.
It is the smallest, most compact, most portable, most simple in construction, most easily operated. A child ten years old, with a few hours' practice, can thoroughly comprehend and effectually use it. There is no adjusting, no screws to annoy, no delay in adapting! It is always ready for use! It is a perfect little wonder! It is a miniature giant, doing more work and of a better quality, than the most elaborate and costly. One-half of the labor is fully saved by its use, and the clothes will last one-half longer than by the old plan of the rub board. It will wash the largest blanket, three shirts at a time, washing thoroughly! In a word, the ablution of any fabric, from a Quilt to a Lace Curtain or Cambric Handkerchief, are equally within the capacity of this LITTLE GEM! It can be fastened to any tub and taken off at will.
No matter how deep rooted a prejudice may exist against Washing Machines, the moment this little machine is seen to perform its wonders, all doubts of its cleansing efficacy and utility are banished, and the doubter and detractor at once becomes its fast friends.
We have testimonials without end, setting forth its numerous advantages over all others, and from hundreds who have thrown aside the unwieldy, useless machines, which have signally failed to accomplish the object promised in prominent and loud sounding advertisements. It is as perfect for washing as a wringer is for wringing. The price—another paramount inducement to purchasers—has been placed so low that it is within the reach of every housekeeper, and there is no article of domestic economy that will repay the small investment so soon.
All that is asked for this GREAT LABOR SAVER is a fair trial. We guarantee each machine to do its work perfectly.

In the Matter of THOMAS J. SHALLCROSS, BANKRUPT, IN BANKRUPTCY.

THIS IS TO GIVE NOTICE, that a petition has been presented to the Court this 8th of January, 1872, by Thomas J. IT IS ORDERED BY THE COURT, that a hearing be had upon the same, on the 6th day of February, 1872, before the Court, in the City of Baltimore, in said District, at 10 o'clk, A. M., and that notice thereof be published in the Kent News and Baltimore Gazette, newspapers printed in said District, once a week for three weeks before that day; and that all creditors who have proved their debts, and other persons in interest, may appear at said time and place, and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said Petition should not be granted.

Tax-Payers of the 5th Dist.
TAKE NOTICE.

SOME PERSONS seem to be under the impression that taxes for the current year are not due until the first of January ensuing, but this is a mistake. They are due and collectable on the first day of July in every year. The demands upon me are now urgent, and I respectfully request the tax-payers of my district to come forward and settle at once.
I will be at Grey's Inn Wharf every Monday morning; at Edesville every Monday afternoon; in Chestertown on Tuesdays, and at Rees' Corner on Wednesdays.
