Inquisition Sarah Fonds land

An Inquisition indented and taken [illegible] fifteenth day of August In the Eighth yeare of the [illegible] minor of Charles absolute Lord and Prey of the Prouinc[illegible] Maryland and Avalon Lord Baron of Baltimore &c. Anno [illegible] 1683 at the house of Capt. John Coulder in Sunderlat [illegible] of the [illegible] by John Osborne and Francis Fontaine Gentl[illegible]

By vertue of a Commission in the nature of Mandamus issuing out of the high Court of Chancery vnto vs directed bearing date the thirteenth day of April 1683 therby commanding vs the said John Osborne & Francis Fontaine gentl[illegible] by the oaths of Twelue good & lawfull men of the neighbourhood diligently to enquire what lands Sarah Fonds late of Sunderlat County deceased dyed seized of the time of her death as of fee in the County of Sunderlat and of what or under what rents and services and how much thereof lands & tenements are of Copihold by the yeare in all issues and at what time the said Sarah died and who is her next heire and what age the heire is off and who those lands and tenements from the death of the said Sarah hath or doth occupy or the issue and profitts thereof hath or doth occupy and the issues & profitts thereof hath or doth receive and by what title & how and in what Manner and who hath payd the rent for the same & to whome In obedience to which Writ the said John Osborne and Francis Fontaine have ranged to round the Twelue good and lawfull men of the neighbourhood viz: Stephen Coffe Matthew Scarbrough John King John Evans Daniell Cage Thomas Humphreys Alexander Thomas Samuell Harrison William Layton Richard Jeffries John Shingleton and Roger Phillipps who being sumoned tryed and diligently to enquire of the premisses aforesaid upon their oaths doe say That the said Sarah Fonds died possessed of Two of the one halfe of Two tracts of land lying at the head of Bohemia in the County of Sunderlat the one called Poplar Ridge containing Two hundred acres the other called Fonds adventure containing five hundred acres to be holden of the Manor of Sunderlat at the yearly rent of Seaven shillings sterling value and is of noe yearly value or profitt more than the said rent And the said Sarah Fonds died the 25th day of October 1677 and wee find not heire of the said Sarah Fonds the said land was never occupyed by any neither any issues or profitts thereof therefore the rents of the said land have been payd thereunto the death of the said Sarah Fonds by Andrew Fonds Esquire and heire to James late husband of the said Sarah Fonds deceased to the Sheriffe of Sunderlat County for the use of the Rt honble the Lord Propry In testimony whereof wee