The criminal appearence, appeal and trial dockets were called, appearances entered, orders taken after which the court took recess until 1.45 p. m.

Upon resumption of the afternoon session, the case of P. B. & W. R. R. vs. Hope H. Barroll, appeal from the docket of Justice Sam'l L. Wright, was called and jury drawn.

This case occupied the Court for some time and was a suit for demurrage of $9 against H. H. Barroll. The jury after being out for five hours could not agree and were discharged. The panel comprised A. H. Malsberger, Chas. S. Porter, Wm. E. Parsons, A. T. DeShane, T. J. Dunn, A. S. Crawford, L. W. Ford, Jacob Shriley, Geo. D. Lofland, M. E. Newsome, Jos. R. Lambert, C. C. Jones. H. H. Barroll and son represented the plaintiff and W. W. Beck the defendant.

The Grand Jury brought in the following presentments—Lester Johnson Lewin Davis, George Cann and Elbert Wright all for larceny.

In the cases of the Millington Bank vs. B. E. Davis and C. J. Conner, judgment was entered by the Court for the Bank.

In the case of Mity Graves the State entered a plea of not guilty.

Richmond Radiator Co. vs. Chas. Walter & Son for claim of about $70 was begun before a jury, the attorneys being H. H. Barroll and son and L. W. Wickes on opposing sides. Mr. Barroll asked for a non pros and the case was abruptly closed.

The case of John N. Dodd against C. W. Copper for an old claim was tried and the jury returned a verdict in favor of Mr. Copper. This case was tried last spring but the jury disagreed. John D. Urie represented Mr. Copper and H. H. Barroll and son, Mr. Dodd. The jury comprised Henry Rosin, W. L. Faulkner, S. Harry Todd, L. C. Ayres, A. Casey, H. A. Hill, H. E Taylor, Milton Melvin, L. W. Ford, T. J. Dunn, Chas. S. Porter.

State vs. Elbert Wright for larceny was tried before court; verdict, guilty and sentence suspended. H. W. Vickers for State, R. G. Parks for defendant.

In the case of B. S. Sutton versus P. B. & W. R. R. Co., for about $200 for loss of grain the jury returned a verdict for defendant. W. W. Beck for defendant; L. W. Wickes for plaintiff. The jury comprised E. P. Beck, G. E. Sutton, F. E. Duyer, A. S Crawford, W. E. Parsons, J. L. Price, H. Rosin, L. C. Ayres, L. P. Atwell, A. Casey, H. E. Taylor, Milton Melvin,

The case of Col. W. J. Vannort versus W. H. McKee, Wm. G. Smyth and Jesse H. Copper occupied the court yesterday. This is a case in which $2,000 was borrowed from Col. Vannort by the Family Steam Laundry of which these three were directors and signed the note on the back with several others. The case was most inreresting and was engaged in by S. P. Townshend for plaintiff and H. H. Barroll and L. W. Wickes for defendants.

The England case will come up today.

The Grand Jury examined 40 witnesses, found seven true bill; and reported 8 prisoners in jail whose quarters were comfortable and clean. They recommended that a few repairs be made in jail and stable: "We are of the opinion that the constant and flagrant violation of the local option law in Kent County and particularly Chestertown, has assumed such proportions that some drastic remedy must be applied to check it. We have been creditably informed that 50 or more persons of Chestertown alone, are in the habit of receiving consignments of intoxicating liquors, ranging in quantities from a gallon to a barrel, regularly every week and sometimes oftener; and while we are morally sure that such quantities of liquor are bought for the sole purpose of being sold, and are in fact sold with the utmost impunity, we are unable in spite of our best endeavors, to bring the offenders to justice."

"The repeated unsuccessful efforts of the present, as well as the former grand juries, emphasizes the utter futility of even hoping to accomplish satisfactory results without the aid of reputable detectives; and to this end, we earnestly request the Honorable Board of Commissioners of Kent County, to levy or appropriate a sufficient amount of money to be judiciously expended by the State's Attorney in the employment of such detective service as he may deem wise in assisting him stamp out this flagrant abuse."

TWENTY GALLONS of yellow perch fish fry, or approximately 500,000,000 little fish, have been placed in Kent and Queen Anne's waters—principally creeks and small streams—during the last week, by Michael McNamee, af the Havre de Grace fish hatchery. The fry should grow into good-sized perch in a couple of years.

SANGER'S circus is booked for Chestertown next month.

HON. LLOYD WILKINSON IN CHESTERTOWN.

Hon. Lloyd Wilkinson will speak in Firemen's Hall, Chestertown, next Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. He has challenged Mr. W. H. Anderson, of the Anti-Saloon League to meet him on that date.

Mr. Wilkinson is a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals and is carrying his fight directly before the people. He says that Mr. Anderson has gone out of his way to slander and misrepresent him and he is anxious to meet him on the public platform at Chestertown. The public generally are invited to this meeting in Firemen's Hall. Mr. Wilkinson is a fluent speaker.

GRANGE NOTES.

Fairlee Grange held a special meeting on April 17th. Committees reported on Corn Contest, Lecture on home topics, Ladies Contest, and tomatoes. Little Mildred Fletcher recited a selection in German which delighted the audience.

"The Garner" was edited and read in a pleasing and splendid manner by Miss Florence Nicholson. The articles were up to the standard and the batchelor who told how to cook white potatoes deserves a prize.

"Should the education of woman prepare her for carring on farming?" was ably discussed by Mr. T. E. W. Crew, showing clearly that it is highly important for ladies living on a farm be well informed in the business.

A LADY WHO IS ANNOYED.

Rock Hall, April 19, 1913.

EDITORS OF KENT NEWS:

Realizing the comfort and help many have found through the columns of our worthy Baltimore papers, I felt perhaps your paper could also, be a great help in its community. Kindly tell us what redress the people have who are annoyed by the occupants of shanties on certain shores? Not by the noise at all times but realizing just what is going on, drawing men for miles around and keeping up their games of cards and drinking all night and, at times well on in the next day. This only goes on while the shanties are occupied. There being much agitation in blotting out vice. Would'nt you think this came under the same head? For one who would invite or encourage such. I feel there is little ahead for him. But why do those at home have to be subjected to the mortifications much to the amusement of others. I have noticed this for some time among my neighbors and feel it a serious matter, and it would be more than appreciated if looked into.

Respectfully,

OBSERVER.
