Bromwich upon the 24th day of November in the yeare of our Lord 1692 at Dorchester Com[mon]ly in the province of Maryland the said John for a valuable Con[sideration] before that time by the said Gabriell payd & delivered to the said John at the request & bring under bill in the sum of forty one pounds three shillings and four pence sterl[ing] according to the bills of Exchange (that is to say) the said Gabriell the first second & third all of the same tenour & date with the proper hand of the said John merchant at London direc[ted] to one Mr. Daniell Clapanson John did require the said Daniell in the first of which bills the said Gabriell or order to pay or cause to be paid unto forty days sight of the same the summe of 41li. 03s. 04d. sterl[ing] after of the said tenour & date the said first bill of Ex[change] the second & third the said bills the said John not being paid and in the said second of pay or cause to be paid the said John did require the said Daniell to the summe of 41li. 3s. & unto the said Gabriell or order said 2d bill of Ex[change] the third after forty days sight of the and date not being paid first and third of the same tenour the said John did require and in the third of the said bills to be payd to the said said Daniell to pay or cause third after forty days Gabriell or order the summe of 41li. 3s. 4d first & second of the said third bill of Ex[change] the the said John afterwards tenour and date not being payd consideration of the day and place aforesaid in the and to the said Gabriell said Daniell did assume upon him & the that if the said Daniell then & there faithfully promise any one of them did Clapanson the said bills of Ex[change] or or order according to accept & pay to the said Gabriell said John when after tenour of the said bills & that the the bill mentioned, the said 40 days in of 41li. 3s. & 4d. sterl[ing] would be required the said summe truly content & pay said Gabriell would not and that afterwards that to say the said Gabriell in fact say that yeare of our Lord 169 to say the 18. day of July in the Gabriell by his order at London aforesaid the said or unto the said Daniell appoynted & did shew & offer bills the second & third Clapanson the first of the said ther required the said not being payd and did then said according to the Daniell to accept and pay the Daniell the said bill contents thereof. But the said to accept or pay according Ex[change] for to him hereof & thereunto thereof also John the said ding to the contents thereof did said Gabriell the said refuse & deny wherupon the refused to be paid after bills of Ex[change] for sundry & shewed by Samuel Purkis Notary wards the day & place last mentioned in London in due form of law according to the usq[ue] of merch[ant]