Bromwick upon the 24th day of November in the yeare of our Lord 1692 at Dorchester Com[illegible] in the province of Maryland the said John for a valuable Con[illegible]deration before that time by the said Gabriell payd & delivered to the said John at his request being hindered in the sum of forty one pounds three shillings and four pence sterl according to the tenor of the merchants delivered unto the said Gabriell the [illegible] bill of Exchange (that is to say) the first second & third all of [illegible] tenour & date with the proper hand of the said John [illegible] subscribed to one Mr. Daniell Clapanson merchant at London [illegible] in the first of which bills the said John did require the said Daniell to pay or cause to be paid unto the said Gabriell or order the summe of 41li. 03s 04d. sterl after forty days sight of the said first bill of Exch. the second & third of the same tenour & date not being paid and in the second of the said bills the said John did require the said Daniell to pay or cause to be paid unto the said Gabriell or order the summe of 41li. 3s & [illegible]d. sterl after forty days sight of the said 2d bill of Exch. the first and third of the same tenour and date not being paid and in the third of the said bills the said John did require the said Daniell to pay or cause to be payd to the said Gabriell or order the summe of 41li. 3s 4d sterl after forty days sight of the said third bill of Exch. the first & second of the same tenour and date not being payd.
The said John afterwards the day and place aforesaid in the consideration of the premises did assume upon him the said and to the said Gabriell then & there faithfully promise that if the said Daniell Clapanson the said bills of Exch. or any one of them did not accept & pay to the said Gabriell or order according to the tenour of the said bills & that the said John when after the end of the said forty days in the bill mentioned should be required the said summe of 41li. 3s & 4d. sterl to the said Gabriell would well and truely content & pay [illegible] the said Gabriell in fact says that that afterwards that is to say the 18. day of July in the yeare of our Lord 169[illegible] at London aforesaid the said Gabriell by his order [illegible] appoynted did shew & offer unto the said Daniell Clapanson the first of the said bills the second & third not being payd and did then there require the said Daniell to accept and pay the same according to the [illegible] contents thereof. But the said Daniell the said bill [illegible] Exch. for to him hindered & refused to accept or pay according to the contents thereof did then & there absolutely refuse & deny whereupon the said Gabriell the said bills of Exch. so [illegible] & shewed refused to be paid afterwards the day & place last mentioned by Samuel Purkis Notary & Labellum publick dwelling in London in due form of law according to the [illegible]